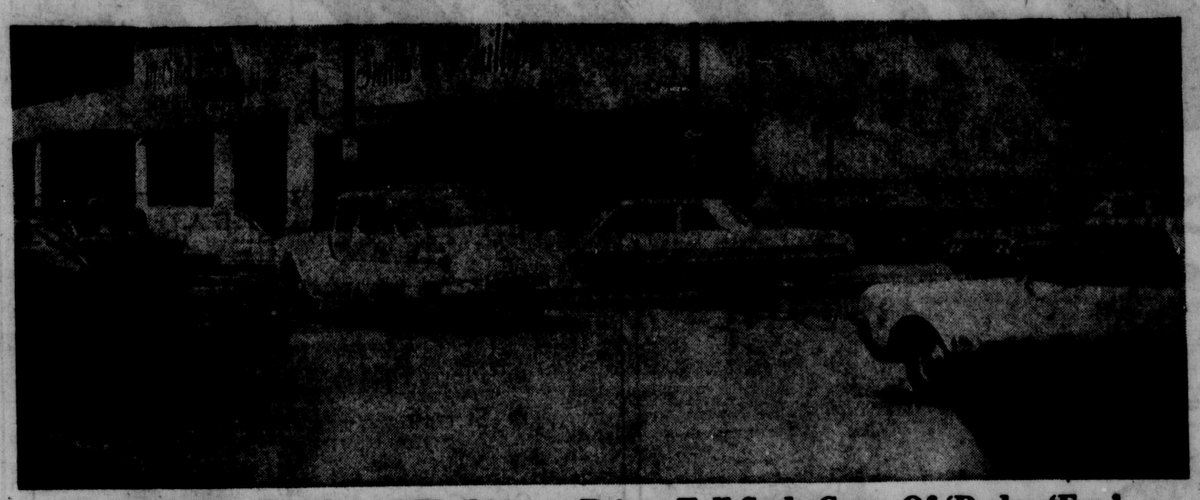
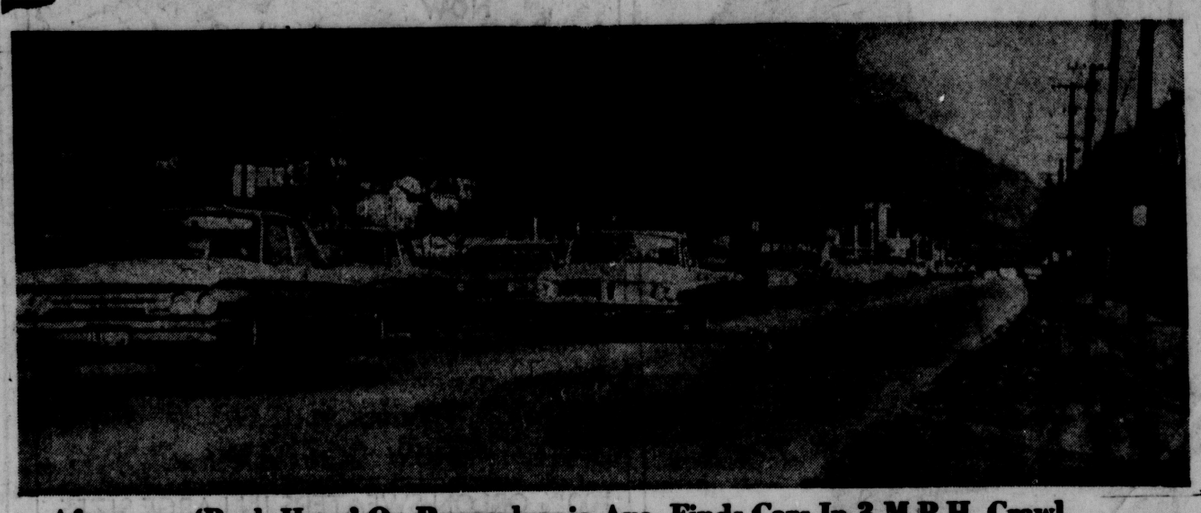
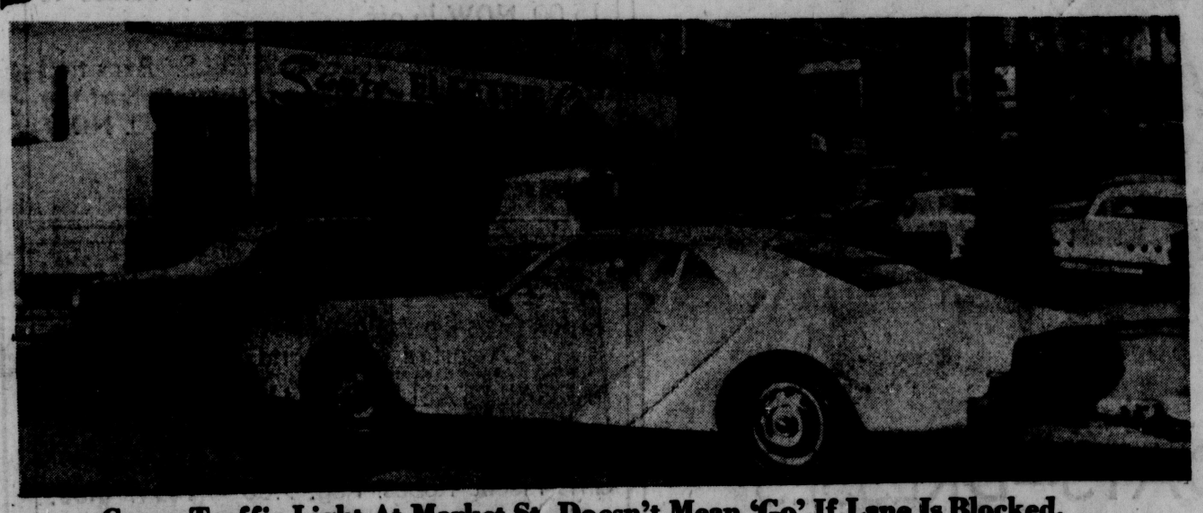
'Who's In Charge Here?'



Congestion At E. 4th And Washington Brings Full Scale Game Of 'Dodge 'Em.'



Afternoon 'Rush Hour' On Pennsylvania Ave. Finds Cars In 3 M.P.H. Crawl.



Green Traffic Light At Market St. Doesn't Mean 'Go' If Lane Is Blocked.

By ROBERT POPP

A pedestrian begins to stroll casually across E. 5th St. with the traffic light in his favor when suddenly an auto whips around the corner from Broadway and the poor devil afoot finishes his crossing with a wild leap like Royal Tan taking the water jump in the Grand National.

Or a husband who has promised to pick up his wife at the dentist's office at 5 p.m. halts in a line of traffic on Washington St. at E. 5th St. and sullenly watches the clock on the bank tick off 5:05, 5:06, 5:07 while he waits for traffic to clear the intersection.

Why doesn't someone do something about traffic? the public asks. It's pretty dogoned obvious where the major problems lie, the tax-payers say. A new center line here, a couple of new signs, a few ordinances containing the necessary regulations — then strict enforcement. That's how the public views the problems at first glance.

And at about this stage in the discussion, the City Traffic Commission's name is broached. Who sits on the commission? When did it meet last? Why doesn't it do something? Who's responsible?

THIS THEN, is the story of the City Traffic Commission and what it can—and cannot—do, as well as some of the arguments for and against its need for existence.

The commission last met more than two years ago, as nearly as anyone can recall. It had been defunct figuratively for some time, but now it also is defunct literally, as the terms of all except one of the five members have expired.

David Sakol, appointed in 1964 and the commission's chairman, holds a term which will run out April 28. The terms of John Kelly, a former councilman, and Ray Wilson, a former service station operator, ran out in 1966. Wilson now resides in Florida. The tenures of Dan Henderson and Don Burbick expired in 1967.

Mayor George E. Willshaw recalls that the commission's last meeting was in 1965. The "duties and powers" of the commission are summed up in one brief paragraph in the City Code:

"The duty of the Traffic Commission shall be to devise ways and means to adequately cope with traffic conditions in the city and to submit the same to Council for its approval. The commission shall also have

Reds' Shells Kill 19 GIs At Khe Sanh

56 Wounded, 14 Missing; Enemy's Toll Placed At 20

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese gunners resumed the shelling of Khe Sanh with the fury of the worst days of the U.S. Marine bastion's 77-day siege, U.S. military spokesmen reported today. They said 19 Leathernecks were killed, 56 wounded and 14 are missing.

The casualties were the heaviest in two weeks at the combat base, officially relieved 12 days ago. The North Vietnamese mounted a 250-round attack by artillery, mortars and 100-pound rockets.

U.S. military spokesmen put North Vietnamese dead at 20 after a Leatherneck patrol Tuesday attacked a Red bunker complex four miles south-southwest of the U.S. base in the northwest corner of the country.

An estimated 40 North Vietnamese hit the Marine combat patrol with mortars and rockets and then laid down intense small-arms fire. U.S. fighter-bombers and artillery pounded the enemy bunkers until the North Vietnamese escaped about midnight.

North Vietnamese artillery attacks on the Khe Sanh base, which subsided after the siege was lifted April 5, also have increased this week. Enemy gunners hurled 250 artillery and rocket rounds on Khe Sanh Tuesday, causing "moderate" damage to U.S. supply areas, U.S. spokesmen said. On Monday, about 300 mortar, rocket and artillery rounds hit the base.

To the south, allied forces pushing through jungles and rice paddies in the biggest offensive of the war reported six sharp clashes within 35 miles of Saigon. It was one of the busiest days so far in Operation Complete Victory, the 100,000-man sweep which began April 8.

A unit of the U.S. 9th Infantry Division killed 12 enemy in a brief fight 31 miles east of the capital. Two Americans were killed and two wounded.

Twenty-five men of a South Vietnamese airborne battalion were wounded in a battle seven miles north of Saigon. There was no report of enemy losses.

In the Mekong Delta 15 miles southwest of Saigon, a Vietnamese regional force company encountered a strong enemy force and two companies of the U.S. 199th Light Infantry Brigade were sent in as reinforcements. Three Americans and 14 government soldiers were killed along with three Vietnamese civilians. Eleven enemy dead were reported.

Grand Jury Asks Bigger Staff For Sheriff's Office

LISBON — Indictments for second-degree murder and four other crimes "against the person" were among 25 true bills returned Tuesday by the Columbiana County grand jury. Eight of the indictments are secret.

In a report to Judge Joel H. Sharp of Common Pleas Court, the jury of 13 women and two men recommended that:

The county commissioners assign more men to the sheriff's department to aid in law enforcement throughout the county in areas outside corporation limits;

A juvenile detention center be established so juveniles may be detained in an atmosphere more suitable than the County Jail, and Wellsville City Council limit parking to one side of Clark Ave. (Route 7) in the area where a car-truck collision Feb. 26, took the life of Mrs. Dorothy Wakefield, 55, of Bloomingdale, formerly of East Liverpool.

Norman E. Ward, assignment commissioner, said trials will probably begin May 6. Pre-arraignment is set for April 24 and arraignment for April 29.

LBJ Peace Initiatives Are Lauded

American Officials Reject South Viet Summit Parley Bid

HONOLULU (AP) — Issues of war and peace in Vietnam and tensions in the potential Korean powderkeg occupied President Johnson as he welcomed President Chung Hee Park of South Korea today for a one-day conference.

Park arrived in Honolulu well after dark in a light drizzle and was met by Johnson.

The Korean leader, attired in a gray business suit, waved at a cheering crowd that pressed against the fence.

Once formalities such as a 21-gun salute and the Korean national anthem were over, Park moved along the fence with Johnson to greet the crowd, then climbed into a helicopter to be whisked to his hotel.

The two chief executives had a full round of formal meetings set for today at the Hawaiian White House — the luxurious ocean front estate of the late industrialist Henry J. Kaiser.

Park's visit coincided with important developments affecting his country and the military-diplomatic situation in Vietnam, where South Korea has nearly 50,000 troops in action:

—Two Americans and two South Koreans in uniform were killed by Communist intruders from the North last Sunday near Panmunjom. U.S. officials suggested this most serious recent incident along the demarcation line between North and South may have been deliberately timed because of the Johnson-Park meetings.

—Park, on leaving his homeland for Honolulu, lauded Johnson's new initiatives toward a Vietnam peace but seemed to express a bit of restiveness by adding "there is a limit to concessions and patience."

—Foreign Minister Tran Van Do of South Vietnam suggested in Saigon the allies in the Vietnam war might do well to hold a summit conference in advance of any substantive peace talks with Hanoi. American officials said it would be premature to consider such a move in the absence of any firm indication that such talks will take place.

Crucible Merger Vote To Be Held

The Board of Directors of the Crucible Steel Co. will hold a special meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 in Pittsburgh to vote on the proposed merger of the firm into the Whittaker Corp. of Los Angeles.

Whittaker and Crucible announced the agreement in principle for an exchange of Whittaker preferred and common stock and cash. The transaction is valued at about $203 million.

Crucible will continue under its present management as an operating subsidiary of the new Whittaker Corp.

WHITTAKER is a diversified concern that makes systems for the aerospace industry and other products.

Under terms of the proposed agreement, Crucible shareholders would receive $47.50 per Crucible common share in a combination of Whittaker stock, cash or notes.

This would consist of $30 of a new Whittaker convertible preferred, providing a 5 per cent yield annually in dividends, and $17.50 of Whittaker common for each Crucible share.

The total value of the transaction would be influenced by general market conditions through relationship to the Dow Jones Industrial average.

Each $100 of preferred can be converted into one share of Whittaker common.

Hunt Foods & Industries, Inc., of Fullerton, Calif., owns about 23 per cent of the 4.3 million outstanding shares of Crucilbe common. One of the conditions set down by Whittaker is the redemption by the merged cor-

County Group Urges Action On Span Here

LISBON — The Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission will write to Gov. Hulett C. Smith of West Virginia to urge prompt replacement of the Chester bridge over the Ohio River at East Liverpool.

Floyd Lower of Lisbon, president, said the letter will suggest the building of a toll bridge if West Virginia does not have funds for a free span.

The commission's executive committee authorized the letter at its monthly meeting Tuesday night in the county commissioners' office at the Courthouse.

Ed Wilhelm of Salem Township was appointed to represent the commission on a countywide committee studying comprehensive health planning.

The executive group accepted a land use study prepared by McClean and McGraw, Youngstown consulting engineers, and presented by Horace McLean of the firm.

Applications for nine minor subdivisions were approved and the applicant for a major subdivision was requested to resubmit his plan. The next meeting will be May 21 at the Courthouse.

As Nominees In Presidential Race

Editors Favor Humphrey, Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — A poll of 80 newspaper editors has found a majority predicting Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon will be their partys' nominees in the presidential race.

Humphrey, still silent on his political plans, was stamped a better than 2-to-1 favorite over Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., in a random Associated Press poll of 80 editors attending the American Society of Newspaper Editors' annual convention.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., like Kennedy a declared candidate for the Democratic nomination, didn't receive a single vote in the sampling.

On the Republican side, Nixon —the only declared GOP candidate—was a prohibitive favorite over such potential challengers as New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Gov. Ronald Reagan of California.

Those picking Humphrey credited him with the advantages of an incumbent administration's party following plus backing from labor and solid support in the South.

"I think the organization will take it in the end. It usually does," said H. P. McCall, editorial page editor of the New Orleans Times-Picayune.

Editors were asked who they thought would win the nomination of each party, rather than who they preferred personally.

These were the results on the Democratic side: Humphrey, 46; Kennedy, 20; President Johnson, 4; McCarthy, 0; Undecided, 10.

The Republican sampling: Nixon, 62; Rockefeller, 14; Reagan, 2; Undecided 2.

A year ago in a poll of ASNE members Nixon enjoyed a 3-to-2 edge over Michigan Gov. George Romney, who has since bowed out of the race. President Johnson was a unanimous choice of 103 editors interviewed at the 1967 ASNE convention. He has since said he won't seek or accept renomination.

William J. Clew, managing editor of the Hartford Courant, said Humphrey would inherit the sympathy for Johnson stemming on the President's abrupt withdrawal.

Brady Black, editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, credited Humphrey with labor support. Henry Belk, editor of the Goldsboro (N.C.) News-Argus, added, "He hasn't got the horns in the South he used to wear."

Charles Pearson, editorial page editor of the Wichita Eagle and Beacon, said Humphrey will have strength "in areas where Kennedy is unpopular, which is a lot of areas.'

William B. Dickinson, managing editor of the Philadelphia Bulletin, differed in choosing Kennedy as the likely nominee. Dickinson said, "I think he has charisma. I think he has many political skills. And he certainly has ample financing."

Thomas L. Boardman, editor of the Cleveland Press, was one of the four who tapped Johnson for the nomination despite his disavowal.

"I think something will come of the Vietnam peace talks and he won't be able to back away from it," Boardman said.

80 Injured, Including 5 Guards

Five Prisoners Killed In Carolina Prison Riot

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—Five prisoners were killed and 80 persons injured early today when guards at North Carolina Central Prison fired on a crowd of about 500 demonstrating prisoners.

Five of the injured were guards, the others prisoners.

State Correction Commissioner V. Lee Bounds said the riot erupted shortly after 1:30 a.m. when the inmates set fire to a small building in a yard of the maximum security facility and "began throwing lighted torches at unarmed custodial officers."

About 45 state highway patrolmen and 50 Raleigh policemen responded to the prison's emergency call for support for prison guards.

Prisoners had staged a sit-down strike in the yard Tuesday and presented a list of grievances to Commissioner Bounds, who said he refused to negotiate with the inmates.

"I talk to inmates daily, but I do not yield to inmate demands that I do anything," Bounds said afterward.

He said the demonstrators were confined to an open yard by custodial officers armed with chemical MACE and nightsticks.

There Could Be Rain Tonight Or Thursday

Showers may fall in the district tonight or Thursday, according to the weatherman.

The forecast calls for not so cool tonight, with the low in the upper 40s and low 50s.

Continued warm weather is due Thursday.

Temperatures will average above normal through Monday, with highs in the 60s and 70s and lows in the 40s and 50s.

Midland Man Indicted In 'Go-Go' Case

The Beaver County grand jury has approved an indictment against a Midland tavern operator for presenting obscene exhibitions.

The charge was filed against Victor Liberatore, owner of the Cantina Bar on Midland Ave., following a raid. Two "go-go" dancers also were arrested in conjunction with this raid and another.

Alice Marie Laney of New Brighton and Lucille Rotolo of Aliquippa, the dancers, were indicted for presenting obscene exhibitions—the first woman at Liberatore's bar.

The grand jury also approved an indictment against John R. Cowling of Hookstown RD 1 for assault with intent to maim,

Wellsville Hits 'Peelers,' Sets Up Meter Attendants

Meter attendants were established and action taken to curb "peeling" and "cracking exhausts" as various ordinances were signed into law during Tuesday night's meeting of Wellsville Council.

In an effort to control what was termed a flagrant disregard for public safety for drivers, mostly teen-agers, Council armed police with a law making rapid acceleration, leaving of tire marks, squealing tires, "cracking, clattering, chattering and non-normal" exhaust sounds illegal within the corporation limits.

The action was spurred by complaints received from several residents against speeding and dangerous operation of vehicles.

To further curtail the problem, Council ordered legislation drafted, on recommendation of the claims, rules and ordinances committee headed by J. B. Phillips, prohibiting driving through service station areas to avoid traffic lights.

Under suspension of rules, signed into law was legislation establishing meter attendants May 1.

A third ordinance naming the Potters Bank and Trust Co. as the official depository for city funds also was passed under suspension of rules.

Council received a letter signed by 13 city emmployes challenging a pay raise proposal presented during the meeting April 2.

Proposals in question were a

In an effort to control what was termed a flagrant disregard for public safety for drivers, mostly teen-agers, Council armed police with a law making rapid acceleration, leaving of tire marks, squealing tires, "cracking, clattering, chattering and non-normal" exhaust sounds illegal within the corporation limits.

The action was spurred by complaints received from several residents against speeding and dangerous operation of vehicles.

To further curtail the problem, Council ordered legislation drafted, on recommendation of the claims, rules and ordinances committee headed by J. B. Phillips, prohibiting driving through service station areas to avoid traffic lights.

Under suspension of rules, signed into law was legislation establishing meter attendants May 1.

A third ordinance naming the Potters Bank and Trust Co. as the official depository for city funds also was passed under suspension of rules.

Council received a letter signed by 13 city emmployes challenging a pay raise proposal presented during the meeting April 2.

County Group Urges Action On Span Here

LISBON — The Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission will write to Gov. Hulett C. Smith of West Virginia to urge prompt replacement of the Chester bridge over the Ohio River at East Liverpool.

Floyd Lower of Lisbon, president, said the letter will suggest the building of a toll bridge if West Virginia does not have funds for a free span.

The commission's executive committee authorized the letter at its monthly meeting Tuesday night in the county commissioners' office at the Courthouse.

Ed Wilhelm of Salem Township was appointed to represent the commission on a countywide committee studying comprehensive health planning.

The executive group accepted a land use study prepared by McClean and McGraw, Youngstown consulting engineers, and presented by Horace McLean of the firm.

Applications for nine minor subdivisions were approved and the applicant for a major subdivision was requested to resubmit his plan. The next meeting will be May 21 at the Courthouse.

Worldwide Riots Ominous

The current pox of worldwide demonstrations and riots must be viewed as exceedingly ominous.

For, although they appear to be sparked by a variety of conditions involving different people, it seems probable that the sinister hand of world communism is manipulating the puppets on the world stage and plotting the action.

The increasing unrest in West Germany, which has erupted into demonstrations, marches and head-cracking riots and is giving the government many an anxious moment, points this up.

ADMITTEDLY LEFT WING, the protectors brazenly carried the red banners of communism as they stalled traffic in city after city throughout the nation, stormed the United States military headquarters at Bremerhaven and tore down an American flag.

So seriously are the student-centered disturbances viewed that Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger ordered the Interior Ministry to set up an emergency staff to cope with the security problem.

Similarly, in England, students marched, rioted and stormed police lines in support of the German students' "cause," which ostensibly is the suppression of the free press by preventing distribution of the conservative newspaper Bild Zeitung, West Germany's largest newspaper, with a circulation of 4 million.

In Germany, in England, in Japan and in the United States, students currently are being energized to demonstrate and riot in support of "causes."

Some of these causes clearly are left-wing organized and labeled as such. Others are home-grown causes which left-wing organizations have moved into and channeled toward insurrection.

WHILE INTERNATIONAL communism supports the war against capitalist nations militarily by providing armaments for the North Vietnamese, it simultaneously wages war ideologically in many areas of the world by plotting, inciting and moving in on riots, protests and uprisings, sowing the seeds of anarchy and revolution by stonings, destruction of property, threats of murder and arson.

Before seizure of power and briefly thereafter, Communist parties historically have sought influence by attracting disgruntled social elements, notably ethnic minorities and the poor, to whom successful members of the prerevolutionary society were depicted as exploiters.

Their basic modus operandi continues in force today, altered only slightly to conform with the opportunities of the moment.

Feathered Friends

What came first — the chicken or the sucker?

Victims of a cockfight holdup Saturday in the Summitville area may ponder the risks of their money and valuables — and their health — in connection with the undercover sport.

It is one thing to pin cash on the fierceness and agility of an aroused rooster, even at the hazard of arrest and fine should law officers take up on themselves to enforce state regulations prohibiting such contests.

But to give up rings and watches to a group of nervous-fingered gunmen ought to give any fan pause for thought.

The notoriety stemming from Sunday morning's adventure may force suspension of operations along the Carroll County line for some time, and the reticence of the barnyard bettors to part with their gambling money on shotgun odds may cut down attendance when the cocks go at it again. But be assured—the feathers and five-spots will be flying again. . .

Personal Involvement Is The Key

Presentation of civic awards to three outstanding men in Wellsville Monday night was not only a deserved tribute to the trio, but a reminder to all men and women of the town of their obligation as citizens.

In this era of rapid change and challenge, Wellsville — not unlike most other cities in this land — must seek to solve overwhelming problems with limited resources, with unenthusiastic support from many residents, with a draining off of young people who could provide vigorous help.

Fred Huston, who gave the response at the Jaycee dinner at which the awards were made, referred to the need for action, for leadership and retention of youth to plan and build a Wellsville to meet the pace of the late 20th Century.

The energy and direction of men such as School Supt. Donald Lowe, winner of the CSA award, Nunzio Lombardozzi, recipient of the DSA honor, and Jack Glover, Youth Fitness award winner, are what Wellsville and every community needs — only in much greater amount from more people. Personal involvement, as these three have shown in past years, is the key to real advance.

Perplexing Middle East

Newest round of reports from the Middle East are slightly encouraging, mostly discouraging.

Dr. Gunnar V. Jarring, United Nations representative to the Middle East, worked out a formula asking Israeli-Arab approval of a U.N. resolution as a preliminary move toward peace talks.

High sources report Israel has signified willingness to accept the resolution even though it specifically calls for withdrawal of Israeli forces from territories occupied in the June war.

The fly in the ointment is the refusal of Gen. Gamal Abdel Nasser, Egypt's president, to accept Dr. Jarring's terms and come to the negotiating table.

Adding to the problem of the general animosity of President Nasser toward Israel is the president's domestic troubles.

The president is seeking to regain some of his slipping prestige and power in a May 2 referendum on reforms. The referendum is his response to demonstrations and demands for changes in domestic policies.

President Nasser would not like to run the risk of suffering a referendum defeat through a backlash of opposition to talks with Israel.

Middle East sources say President Nasser's reluctance to rock the boat rules out any possible peace negotiations until after the May 2 vote.

In the meantime, terrorist activities go on and the potential grows for a new outbreak of violence.

No doubt, U.N. efforts will continue to get Arab-Israeli talks under way — and they should help avoid an atmosphere of complete hopelessness — but a realistic view of the situation can only be bleak.

One of the prime goals of Arab nations has been a pullback of Israelis from occupied areas. Now that Israel appears ready to concede the point, the Arabs are backing up.

If the Arabs have been serious about a peace, it seems strange they would not jump at a chance to gain Israeli withdrawal.

Perplexity over maneuverings and changing positions in the Middle East is not new, but current stirrings give it a new dimension.

At least Israel's position change was a good one so far as the cause of peace is concerned. A willingness to give up occupied areas is a prerequisite to negotiations. Israel appears ready to remove that obstacle.

Much of the world is hoping the Arabs will do as much.

Planes Readied

It took eight years but it looks now like the air route between Moscow and New York is about to be occupied by aircraft.

It was back in 1960 that the Soviet-American air agreement was negotiated. Provisions of the agreement, when it finally was signed, called for two round-trip flights weekly by Pan American World Airways and the official Soviet airline, Aeroflot.

The deputy chief of civil aviation in Russia, Nikolai Bykov, said last week that the inaugural flight will be made during the second half of May.

Deputy Bykov's announcement didn't rate very big headlines but the opening of the air route may be an underestimated development in the occasional thawing of the cold war.

It could lead to considerably more melting.

Nixon Eyes Labor Problems

NEW YORK: — It is a long tome since I sat alone with Dick Nixon in a suite high in St. Louis' Hotel Jefferson. It was in '53 and he had just been booed by labor leaders in the convention hall down below. His feelings were hurt and he mused aloud, wondering why the AFL delegates had sounded off while he read Dwight Eisenhower's message to the gathering.

Victor Riesel

He was not popular with them then — and that's an understatement — and he is not their favorite son now. By labor's count he's been wrong 77.6 per cent of the time.

In a recent poll of 250 Wisconsin labor officials he got 2 votes for president, to 4 for Nelson Rockefeller, 7 for George Wallace, 16 for Bob Kennedy, 16 for Eugene McCarthy, and 185 for Lyndon Johnson.

But everybody has mellowed. Back in '60 they did not boo him at a major labor convention and most likely they would not jeer him now.

Richard Nixon, after all, may yet be the next president.

Since he has been out of office for almost eight years, the union chiefs have little to go on when, inside the circle, they wonder what his policies would be on matters closest to them.

There is only his strong statement condemning the apocalyptic garbage strike here. But since that was a messy situation with labor leaders privately lined up on both sides, they feel it was no clean-cut issue. However, they'll not have long to wait for definitive positions on the issues.

THE NIXON BRAIN TRUST — "energy bank" is the former vice president's phrase for it — now is researching the field. It is concentrating on strikes in the public sector, an issue now so dramatically up front as a result of the tragedy in Memphis.

Furthermore, the tiny Nixon staff is digging into the history of strike crises which have endangered the national interest, safety and welfare — the multimillion dollar stoppages such as those which paralyzed the copper industry and now appear headed for catastrophic collision courses on the waterfront and in the steel industry this summer.

No doubt Mr. Nixon wants to have position papers and special speeches ready when he is invited to address some labor conventions as he did back in '60.

So his researchers are going — in depth — into the Taft-Hartley law "to see if it still fits the needs of the people."

There is no sense trying to second guess the "new" Nixon or his very new youthful staff. There is only one certainty in any attempted diagnosis of the man whom I once heard say that a true analysis of the '60 election would show that a switch of 15,000 or 20,000 votes out of the 68.8 million votes cast would have reversed the election results.

In this correspondent's opinion, the certainty simply is that Dick Nixon is more familiar with labor laws than either Bob Kennedy or Gene McCarthy, and can match even Vice President Humphrey, against whom he may be running this fall.

FEW KNOW that during most of the Eisenhower administration, the general funneled most of his labor problems through Dick Nixon to the then Secretary of Labor, the late, genial Irishman Jim Mitchell.

Few know that it was Dick Nixon who settled one of the toughest strikes ever to harass the U.S., the marathon 1959 steel stoppage. One of the few who do know this is U.N. Ambassador Arthur Goldberg, then attorney for the steel union.

He and the union's leaders met frequently with steel corporation executives in Dick Nixon's home in December of 1959 when the walkout seemed doomed to endlessness.

With Jim Mitchell as the specialist and Dick Nixon as the catalyst, tough labor and tough management, both sides as unbending as the metal they made, gradually got to know each other and settled the strike.

There hasn't been another since.

During those dinners, served personally by the vice president's wife, Nixon developed his philosophy of active neutrality. Thus he bucked his boss, who believed in neutral neutrality.

DWIGHT EISENHOWER was a summit man. He wanted to bring all the nation's top union and management men together to hammer out a national labor peace formula.

But Dick Nixon believed in a network of smaller summits. It was at a "post bellum" dinner in his home on January 11, 1960, for those he had helped settle the steel strike that he talked of men of labor and business sitting at a council table in each industry.

At these little summits, they could talk their problems out of their systems, get to know each other, and deal in terms of human relations. Later, that formula was adopted by the steel industry and today it is the only hope of averting a national steel strike this summer.

If he were president, Mr. Nixon said that night (predicting he'd be running against John Kennedy), he would run such labor-management, industry-wide council dinners in the White House. There the chief executive could bring both sides closer long before crises developed. If he were president, he said.

It's a long time ago and the more things change the more they remain the same. Soon labor will hear again what Dick Nixon would do, if . . .

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

It's a shame to the human race when our own countrymen are fighting, burning and ruining property it took us so long to get.

It's bad enough we're fighting a war in Vietnam, but some people just can't be satisfied. They have to start a full scale war in the United States.

Being in the armed forces that guard our country, I can't understand why people want to fight with each other. If they want to fight so bad, there are plenty of Army enlistment offices across the country. Let them prove to themselves that fighting in a foreign land will make a man out of them, not trying to destroy our own because one race can't get along with the other.

When you're in the service, you realize a lot of things that go on in the world. We're trying to have peace talks with Vietham. How can we be in peace with them when we can't even bring peace between ourselves?

Just try to realize what the people of North and South Vietnam think about Americans now: 'They can't even bring peace between themselves, and here they're trying to talk peace with us.' They must think we're nuts, that we have no self control.

If you ask me what I thought of the violence and the looting of stores, my opinion would be it was all uncalled for.

Now I know I'm in no position to try to run the government. But as an American and as a soldier, I believe I'm entitled to give my viewpoint on something that could easily have been avoided. If we would only realize that as Americans we have to get along together; if not, there may be another civil war.

In a country that is so progressive as ours, maybe we better try a landing on the moon before 1970. If things keep going in the direction they are now, I may want to be the first man on the moon—perhaps it will be safer up there.

Peace Site

There is more than meets the eye in the sparring between the United States and the government of North Vietnam over the selection of a site for peace talks. Thus far, the Hanoi government has favored places which are dominated by Communists. The United States wants the conference to be held in a neutral country, preferably in some capitol city in Asia.

The reasons are well understood in diplomatic circles but not by the public generally. For if the delegations were to meet in a location which is controlled by Communists, it would be difficult for the President or secretary of state to be sure the confidential messages being sent to and from our envoys were not being intercepted.

Likewise, the American government is insistent that the representatives of the press of the United States shall not be subject to any censorship or local restrictions.

MANY PEOPLE WHO are reading about today's effort to set up a peace conference are unfamiliar with what happened when the truce delegation of the United Nations met in July 1951 with the North Koreans. The first meeting convened within Communist-held territory, and Communist troops surrounded the conference. The impression sought to be conveyed was that the United Nations was "surrendering."

After vigorous objections from the U.N., the conference was moved to a point on the dividing line between North and South Korea. Discussions continued there for almost two years before an armistice was signed, but a peace treaty was never concluded.

Fearing a repetition of the same kind of tactics, the United States is wary of any conference held within Communist jurisdiction. It is already apparent that the controversy over the mere picking of a site for the peace talks has furnished an opportunity for Communist propaganda to be spread.

THE NORTH VIETNAMESE government in its latest statement charges, for instance, that the United States was guilty of bad faith in refusing to hold the conference at places suggested by Hanoi. Reference is made to President Johnson's declaration that he was willing to go "to any spot" to hold peace talks.

But he meant, of course, any neutral location, and has since suggested Switzerland, India, Burma, Laos and Indonesia. Actually, the United States would prefer a site in Asia, as the people of that region are most concerned with the terms of a settlement and what it may mean to the future safety of each of the free countries.

Propaganda outbursts may be expected at every stage of the present controversy. The North Vietnamese government and its Communist allies have been encouraged by the dissension within the United States to believe that the American people will consent to anything just to find an excuse to withdraw their troops.

"Peace talks," therefore, can be part of a propaganda war by the enemy. One thing is clear—the North Vietnamese are in no hurry and need time to reorganize and recuperate as they have been dealt some heavy blows in the war. But once the American presidential elections are over, the Communists will probably be surprised to discover that American policy insofar as Southeast Asia is concerned will not have undergone any significant change.

MEANWHILE, THE MORALE of the South Vietnamese Republic is causing worry. The United States has heretofore repeatedly manifested an unswerving determination to protect all Southeast Asian countries against aggression by the Communists. So any weakness emerging now could result in confusion within South Vietnam at the very time when an enlarged army is being mobilized to reduce the burden carried mainly by the American troops.

Sooner or later an international force will have to be established by the United Nations to keep the peace in Asia or a collective arrangement will have to be set up with Japan, Australia, New Zealand, Indonesia, the Philippines, Thailand, South Korea and India contributing manpower for such a permanent force. Once an armistice in Vietnam is declared, the U.N. could take over the responsibility for supervision of the agreement which presumably will spell out the future obligations of North and South Vietnam.

THE NORTH VIETNAMESE government in its latest statement charges, for instance, that the United States was guilty of bad faith in refusing to hold the conference at places suggested by Hanoi. Reference is made to President Johnson's declaration that he was willing to go "to any spot" to hold peace talks.

But he meant, of course, any neutral location, and has since suggested Switzerland, India, Burma, Laos and Indonesia. Actually, the United States would prefer a site in Asia, as the people of that region are most concerned with the terms of a settlement and what it may mean to the future safety of each of the free countries.

Propaganda outbursts may be expected at every stage of the present controversy. The North Vietnamese government and its Communist allies have been encouraged by the dissension within the United States to believe that the American people will consent to anything just to find an excuse to withdraw their troops.

"Peace talks," therefore, can be part of a propaganda war by the enemy. One thing is clear—the North Vietnamese are in no hurry and need time to reorganize and recuperate as they have been dealt some heavy blows in the war. But once the American presidential elections are over, the Communists will probably be surprised to discover that American policy insofar as Southeast Asia is concerned will not have undergone any significant change.

MEANWHILE, THE MORALE of the South Vietnamese Republic is causing worry. The United States has heretofore repeatedly manifested an unswerving determination to protect all Southeast Asian countries against aggression by the Communists. So any weakness emerging now could result in confusion within South Vietnam at the very time when an enlarged army is being mobilized to reduce the burden carried mainly by the American troops.

Sooner or later an international force will have to be established by the United Nations to keep the peace in Asia or a collective arrangement will have to be set up with Japan, Australia, New Zealand, Indonesia, the Philippines, Thailand, South Korea and India contributing manpower for such a permanent force. Once an armistice in Vietnam is declared, the U.N. could take over the responsibility for supervision of the agreement which presumably will spell out the future obligations of North and South Vietnam.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Pollyanna Class of the First Presbyterian Church elected Miss Agnes Bowyer as its president.

Atty. Charles Boyd of East Liverpool was named president of the Columbiana County Bar Association.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Norman Cox and Stan Franczek were presented trophies as the outstanding football and basketball athletes at Wells High School, Newell.

Mrs. Adam Tecca was elected president of the East Liverpool Area Girl Scout Leaders Association.

TEN YEARS AGO — Iva Ann Bebout, Connie Johnson, Karl Walker and Charles Govey, members of the Chester High School Band, were chosen to play in the all-state band festival at Clarksburg.

A Cub Pack was formed in New Cumberland, with Welty Vulgamore Jr. cubmaster.

Mrs. E. L. White and Mrs. Robert Laidlaw of Wellsville visited Washington to view the Japanese cherry blossoms.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

It's a shame to the human race when our own countrymen are fighting, burning and ruining property it took us so long to get.

It's bad enough we're fighting a war in Vietnam, but some people just can't be satisfied. They have to start a full scale war in the United States.

Being in the armed forces that guard our country, I can't understand why people want to fight with each other. If they want to fight so bad, there are plenty of Army enlistment offices across the country. Let them prove to themselves that fighting in a foreign land will make a man out of them, not trying to destroy our own because one race can't get along with the other.

When you're in the service, you realize a lot of things that go on in the world. We're trying to have peace talks with Vietham. How can we be in peace with them when we can't even bring peace between ourselves?

Just try to realize what the people of North and South Vietnam think about Americans now: 'They can't even bring peace between themselves, and here they're trying to talk peace with us.' They must think we're nuts, that we have no self control.

If you ask me what I thought of the violence and the looting of stores, my opinion would be it was all uncalled for.

Now I know I'm in no position to try to run the government. But as an American and as a soldier, I believe I'm entitled to give my viewpoint on something that could easily have been avoided. If we would only realize that as Americans we have to get along together; if not, there may be another civil war.

In a country that is so progressive as ours, maybe we better try a landing on the moon before 1970. If things keep going in the direction they are now, I may want to be the first man on the moon—perhaps it will be safer up there.

25-cent-an-hour discrepency for hourly workers, compared with those on salary; discrimination against emergency flood wall; lack of a definite date on which the finance committee will present a hospitalization program for the city employes and the solicitor's ruling concerning a request that all city employes be included in the provision for sick leave.

The letter was referred to the finance committee.

Harold Sneddon of the Ohio Valley Gas Co. presented a new gas rate proposal, representing an average increase of 9.5 cents per hundred during the four-year period the contract would be in effect.

It was referred to the franchise and claims, rules and ordinances committee for study.

In other business, Council adopted a resolution calling for meetings only in the third Tuesday of each month during June, July and August.

On recommendation of the street and light committee, Council granted the Elks permission to cut the curb on 8th St. near the Riverside Ave. intersection.

Relative to a 2-to-3-foot deep ditch on the east side of Route 45 about 200 yards north of Route 7, which was blamed for a recent traffic mishap, Council instructed the street and light committee to investigate ways to eliminate the hazard.

Jack Call, chairman of the water and sewage committee, reported his committee had investigated a complaint from Daniel Tice of 410 Aten Ave. that water leaking from a fire hydrant had broken the sidewalk in front of his home.

The committee decided Council could not help Tice except to grant permission for an easement or right-of-way across city property.

Phillips, Fourth Ward Councilman, reported complaints relative to animals in the Danbury Ave.-20th St. area led him to visit that section recently.

He said he saw a horse, pony, cow and several goats.

Joe M. Hall, representing the Kiwanis Club, appeared before Council to extend an invitation to members to attend two events sponsored by the club — a luncheon Tuesday at Meade's Restaurant, at which Jack Levi Kimball, deputy director of Division 11 of the highway department, will discuss the progress of plans to build a four - lane highway through the city and the annual community Prayer Breakfast April 23 in the First Methodist Church.

Mayor Barr Refuses To Endorse Kennedy

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pittsburgh Mayor Joseph M. Barr has declined a request to endorse Sen. Robert F. Kennedy for president.

Barr spent an hour Tuesday with Kennedy aide Kenneth O'Donnell. O'Donnell told newsmen after the meeting he'd asked Barr for an endorsement.

The mayor, a democratic state committeeman, said he hasn't made up his mind.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy, Kennedy's opponent for the Democratic nomination, is expected to meet with Barr today during a campaign tour.

Delaware was the first state to ratify the U. S. Constitution, on Dec. 7, 1787.

Succeeds Rev. Skelbred

Mrs. Henderson Named Director For City Center

LISBON — The Community Action Agency of Columbiana County has employed Mrs. Beatrice Henderson of 1249 Erie St., East Liverpool, as program developer for the community center on Mulberry St.

Mrs. Henderson, who has been active in Girl Scout and Camp Fire Girl work, will receive approximately $6,000 a year.

The CAA board hired her Tuesday night to succeed the Rev. John R. Skelbred of East Liverpool, who served the center as parttime director.

The Rev. William V. Ring of Leetonia RD 1, CAA chairman, presided for the meeting in the welfare building.

The board formally accepted the resignation of Miss Catherine Franzetta of East Liverpool, CAA director, who has obtained another CAA post in Dayton.

Rev. Ring said the board has received eight applications for the county director's post which will pay from $7,000 to $8,500 a year, depending upon qualifications.

A committee screening the applications includes Karl Stoudt of New Garden, Donald Hepp of Columbiana, Charles J. Gause of Hanoverton RD 1, the Rev. E. H. Harris of East Liverpool and Rev. Ring.

"We have received encouragement from the Chicago office to develop more programs to reach children between 5 and 25," Rev. Ring reported. He said the county agency is interested in getting the Salineville and Leetonia communities to organize self - help programs for young people.

The next meeting will be May 16 at the welfare building.

THE APRIL term grand jury was noteworthy in two respects — a four-day delay caused by a sudden illness of the foreman and the number of women on the panel. Twelve women and three men were sworn in April 9. The foreman was replaced with a woman yesterday when he was unable to return.

In session four days, the jury examined 105 witnesses called by Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis. The jury ignored two cases, continued one, consolidated three and investigated traffic fatalities which have occurred since January.

"We found the County Jail clean and all conditions met with our approval," the jury reported. "We wish to commend the sheriff's department and the other law enforcement officers in the county for their excellent presentation of evidence to this jury," the report concluded.

Theft Being Probed By Sheriff In Hancock

The Hancock County sheriff's office continued an investigation today in the theft of an air-conditioner which was ripped from a wall at the Spaghetti Villa on Route 30 near Chester early Tuesday morning.

The theft was reported by John Lincoln Owen, proprietor. Owen, who resides at 451 Lycia Ave., Chester, said he found footprints near the window which indicated at least two persons were involved in the theft of the 125 - pound air-conditioner.

Owen also reported large tire tracks near the spot indicated the thieves used a truck.

Crucible

poration of Crucible shares now held by Hunt Foods.

William E. McKenna, Hunt chairman, said, "Assuming the Crucible board feels the merger to be in the interest of all Crucible shareholders, our present intention is to vote Hunt's holdings in favor (of the proposal)."

McKenna is also a member of the Crucible board.

The transaction is subject to negotiation of a definitive agreement, approval by directors and shareholders of both companies and various regulatory agencies.

IN THE trading Tuesday on the New York Stock Exchange, Crucible common closed at $37.875, up 62½ cents. Whittaker common closed at $78.375, off 12½ cents.

The joint announcement was made late Tuesday by William M. Duke, president of Whittaker, and John C. Lobb, Crucible president.

Crucible is a principal producer of high alloys, stainless and specialty purpose steels as well as titanium and other specialty metals.

Whittaker, a broad - based materials company, is engaged in the production and distribution of high - performance materials and in the fabrication of aircraft, aerospace, marine and industrial products.

For the first quarter of 1968, Crucible reported net income after taxes of $3,610,000 on sales of $76,446,000. For the first quarter ended Jan. 31, 1968, Whittaker reported net after tax operating income of $3,126,000 on sales of $67,546,000. Whittaker's first - quarter earnings were further increased by an extraordinary item of $1,654,000.

Lobb stressed diversification at the annual stockholders' meeting in December, stating "Crucible needs to expand, to diversify into other fields."

He also said, "Our objective, whatever we go into, will be to make money, not steel — or any other products. We will upgrade earnings and with that, the value of your investment."

A Crucible stockholders' meeting will be held next Wednesday at 11 a. m. at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel, but the merger will not be considered. This probably will be presented at a special meeting later.

Wetzel To Assist In Pension Study

Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel, Republican of Lisbon, has been appointed by House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess of Bowling Green to the Legislative Service Commission study committee on police and firemen pension funds.

Kurfess said the special 11-member group will review the condition of the police and firemen's disability and pension fund, methods of funding, and report its findings and recommendations to the 108th Ohio General Assembly.

Wetzel is serving his ninth term as a member of the House. In addition to this new assignment, he is chairman of the General Section of the House Finance Committee and a member of the House Agriculture and Conservation and Rules committees.

He represents District 34, Columbiana County.

Pennsylvanian Killed As Auto Shears Pole

NEW BRIGHTON — Norman Moffett, 28, of Harmony RD 1 was killed at 12:50 a. m. today when the car in which he was a passenger sheared a utility pole on 4th St.

Roger Dunham of New Brighton was the driver. Dunham, Moffett and John W. Moore of Beaver, another passenger, all were in the front seat.

Police said Dunham was traveling at a high rate of speed, crashed a stop light and careened out of control before ramming the pole. Police said five guns, five boxes of ammunition and a knife were found in the vehicle.

Maj. Walter Wingate of the British army invented and, in 1874, patented lawn tennis, as we know it, calling it sphairistike. By the next year the Marylebone Cricket Club formulated the first rules for the game, renaming it lawn tennis.

In other business, Council adopted a resolution calling for meetings only in the third Tuesday of each month during June, July and August.

On recommendation of the street and light committee, Council granted the Elks permission to cut the curb on 8th St. near the Riverside Ave. intersection.

Relative to a 2-to-3-foot deep ditch on the east side of Route 45 about 200 yards north of Route 7, which was blamed for a recent traffic mishap, Council instructed the street and light committee to investigate ways to eliminate the hazard.

Jack Call, chairman of the water and sewage committee, reported his committee had investigated a complaint from Daniel Tice of 410 Aten Ave. that water leaking from a fire hydrant had broken the sidewalk in front of his home.

The committee decided Council could not help Tice except to grant permission for an easement or right-of-way across city property.

Phillips, Fourth Ward Councilman, reported complaints relative to animals in the Danbury Ave.-20th St. area led him to visit that section recently.

He said he saw a horse, pony, cow and several goats.

Joe M. Hall, representing the Kiwanis Club, appeared before Council to extend an invitation to members to attend two events sponsored by the club — a luncheon Tuesday at Meade's Restaurant, at which Jack Levi Kimball, deputy director of Division 11 of the highway department, will discuss the progress of plans to build a four - lane highway through the city and the annual community Prayer Breakfast April 23 in the First Methodist Church.

Mayor Barr Refuses To Endorse Kennedy

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pittsburgh Mayor Joseph M. Barr has declined a request to endorse Sen. Robert F. Kennedy for president.

Barr spent an hour Tuesday with Kennedy aide Kenneth O'Donnell. O'Donnell told newsmen after the meeting he'd asked Barr for an endorsement.

The mayor, a democratic state committeeman, said he hasn't made up his mind.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy, Kennedy's opponent for the Democratic nomination, is expected to meet with Barr today during a campaign tour.

Delaware was the first state to ratify the U. S. Constitution, on Dec. 7, 1787.

Succeeds Rev. Skelbred

Mrs. Henderson Named Director For City Center

LISBON — The Community Action Agency of Columbiana County has employed Mrs. Beatrice Henderson of 1249 Erie St., East Liverpool, as program developer for the community center on Mulberry St.

Mrs. Henderson, who has been active in Girl Scout and Camp Fire Girl work, will receive approximately $6,000 a year.

The CAA board hired her Tuesday night to succeed the Rev. John R. Skelbred of East Liverpool, who served the center as parttime director.

The Rev. William V. Ring of Leetonia RD 1, CAA chairman, presided for the meeting in the welfare building.

The board formally accepted the resignation of Miss Catherine Franzetta of East Liverpool, CAA director, who has obtained another CAA post in Dayton.

Rev. Ring said the board has received eight applications for the county director's post which will pay from $7,000 to $8,500 a year, depending upon qualifications.

A committee screening the applications includes Karl Stoudt of New Garden, Donald Hepp of Columbiana, Charles J. Gause of Hanoverton RD 1, the Rev. E. H. Harris of East Liverpool and Rev. Ring.

"We have received encouragement from the Chicago office to develop more programs to reach children between 5 and 25," Rev. Ring reported. He said the county agency is interested in getting the Salineville and Leetonia communities to organize self - help programs for young people.

The next meeting will be May 16 at the welfare building.

THE APRIL term grand jury was noteworthy in two respects — a four-day delay caused by a sudden illness of the foreman and the number of women on the panel. Twelve women and three men were sworn in April 9. The foreman was replaced with a woman yesterday when he was unable to return.

In session four days, the jury examined 105 witnesses called by Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis. The jury ignored two cases, continued one, consolidated three and investigated traffic fatalities which have occurred since January.

"We found the County Jail clean and all conditions met with our approval," the jury reported. "We wish to commend the sheriff's department and the other law enforcement officers in the county for their excellent presentation of evidence to this jury," the report concluded.

Theft Being Probed By Sheriff In Hancock

The Hancock County sheriff's office continued an investigation today in the theft of an air-conditioner which was ripped from a wall at the Spaghetti Villa on Route 30 near Chester early Tuesday morning.

The theft was reported by John Lincoln Owen, proprietor. Owen, who resides at 451 Lycia Ave., Chester, said he found footprints near the window which indicated at least two persons were involved in the theft of the 125 - pound air-conditioner.

Owen also reported large tire tracks near the spot indicated the thieves used a truck.

Crucible

poration of Crucible shares now held by Hunt Foods.

William E. McKenna, Hunt chairman, said, "Assuming the Crucible board feels the merger to be in the interest of all Crucible shareholders, our present intention is to vote Hunt's holdings in favor (of the proposal)."

McKenna is also a member of the Crucible board.

The transaction is subject to negotiation of a definitive agreement, approval by directors and shareholders of both companies and various regulatory agencies.

IN THE trading Tuesday on the New York Stock Exchange, Crucible common closed at $37.875, up 62½ cents. Whittaker common closed at $78.375, off 12½ cents.

The joint announcement was made late Tuesday by William M. Duke, president of Whittaker, and John C. Lobb, Crucible president.

Crucible is a principal producer of high alloys, stainless and specialty purpose steels as well as titanium and other specialty metals.

Whittaker, a broad - based materials company, is engaged in the production and distribution of high - performance materials and in the fabrication of aircraft, aerospace, marine and industrial products.

For the first quarter of 1968, Crucible reported net income after taxes of $3,610,000 on sales of $76,446,000. For the first quarter ended Jan. 31, 1968, Whittaker reported net after tax operating income of $3,126,000 on sales of $67,546,000. Whittaker's first - quarter earnings were further increased by an extraordinary item of $1,654,000.

Lobb stressed diversification at the annual stockholders' meeting in December, stating "Crucible needs to expand, to diversify into other fields."

He also said, "Our objective, whatever we go into, will be to make money, not steel — or any other products. We will upgrade earnings and with that, the value of your investment."

A Crucible stockholders' meeting will be held next Wednesday at 11 a. m. at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel, but the merger will not be considered. This probably will be presented at a special meeting later.

Wetzel To Assist In Pension Study

Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel, Republican of Lisbon, has been appointed by House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess of Bowling Green to the Legislative Service Commission study committee on police and firemen pension funds.

Kurfess said the special 11-member group will review the condition of the police and firemen's disability and pension fund, methods of funding, and report its findings and recommendations to the 108th Ohio General Assembly.

Wetzel is serving his ninth term as a member of the House. In addition to this new assignment, he is chairman of the General Section of the House Finance Committee and a member of the House Agriculture and Conservation and Rules committees.

He represents District 34, Columbiana County.

Pennsylvanian Killed As Auto Shears Pole

NEW BRIGHTON — Norman Moffett, 28, of Harmony RD 1 was killed at 12:50 a. m. today when the car in which he was a passenger sheared a utility pole on 4th St.

Roger Dunham of New Brighton was the driver. Dunham, Moffett and John W. Moore of Beaver, another passenger, all were in the front seat.

Police said Dunham was traveling at a high rate of speed, crashed a stop light and careened out of control before ramming the pole. Police said five guns, five boxes of ammunition and a knife were found in the vehicle.

Maj. Walter Wingate of the British army invented and, in 1874, patented lawn tennis, as we know it, calling it sphairistike. By the next year the Marylebone Cricket Club formulated the first rules for the game, renaming it lawn tennis.

Two Autos Damaged In Salineville Mishap

SALINEVILLE — Moderate damage was reported to two cars in a mishap on E. Main St. Tuesday about midnight.

Police Chief Gordon Sweeney said Jack Brown, 29, of RD 3 was headed west in a 1964 sedan when he saw a car coming in the opposite direction at a high rate of speed over the center line.

Brown swerved to the right, and his car sideswiped a parked 1966 sedan owned by Bill Hull of 123 E. Main St. The driver of the other car did not stop, Brown said.

In Various Property Classes

Hancock Commissioners Give Okay To Levy Rates

The Hancock County Court of Commissioners Tuesday approved the levy rates for the 1968-69 fiscal year.

The court entered an order that the levies be assessed on each $100 valuation in various classes of property.

The rates follow: Class I, 12.4 cents per $100; Class II. 24.8 cents per $100 and Classes III and IV, 49.6 cents per $100.

The court also approved that $7 be added to a service agreement held on an air-conditioner for the Circuit Court room. The additional amount will cover all labor and parts needed to service the air conditioner for the year.

The rent for polling places was set at $40.

Rates Are Accepted At Chester Meeting

Rates for a levy order on property tax for fiscal 1968-69 were accepted during a special meeting Tuesday of Chester Council.

The rates were set by the West Virginia state tax commission on the basis of each $100 valuation received from the assessor's office.

Councilman Charles Kology, Percy Willison and Robert Kincaid attended, with Don Hood, city clerk, presiding.

The breakdown follows:

Class I, personal property, $1,373,600, 12.5 cents, $1,717; public utility property, $22,600, 12.5 cents, $28. Total class I, $1,396,200; taxes levied $1,745. No. II, real estate, $3,912,150, 25 cents, $9,780; No. 4, real estate, $1,775,800, 50 cents, $8,879; personal property, $1,375,000, 50 cents, $6,877; public utility property, $540,500, 50 cents, $2,702. Total Class No. 4, $3,691,600, taxes levied $18,458.

Total assessed valuation is $8,999,950, with taxes levied $29,983.

At a standard estimation of a 5 per cent loss for delinquency, the city should receive $28,484 from the sheriff's office, Hood said.

Hood reminded area residents outside the city limits to sign for fire bonds for protection by the city's department. He said the bonds require that if a call is made to a residency outside the city for a fire the owner will reimburse the department $100. However, he said, if no call during the year is necessary residents are not required to pay anything.

Council will meet in regular session Monday at City Hall.

Water Sample Fee Boosted; 'Teeth' Put Into Sewage Code

LISBON — The Columbiana County Board of Health voted Monday to increase the water sample fee from $3 to $4, effective May 1.

Dr. M. K. Singer, health commissioner, said the board noted the time required to collect samples at the request of consumers, send samples to a state laboratory and deliver the laboratory report.

The board also voted "to put some teeth into the sewage code" by substituting "shall" or "should" throughout the regulation, the doctor said.

Board members authorized Dr. Singer to attend a combined meeting of the Ohio State Medical Association and the Health Commissioners Association May 14-16 at Cincinnati.

March activity reports of the Health Department follow:

Medical division: Immunitions — polio, 19; whooping cough - diphtheria - tetanus, 19, and measles, 29. Strep throat cultures, 61; home visits, six; doctors' office visits, 22; consultations, 63.

Communicable diseases—scarlet fever, four; rheumatic fever, seven; veneral disease, one; chickenpox, 10, and shigella (intestinal) infection, one.

The medical division held two pre-natal classes, a nurses' workshop and a public health nurses' class.

Plumbing inspector — plumbing inspections, 79; sewage, 10; water, 18; consultations, 41.

Sanitarians' inspections—sewage, 31; water, 26; food service, 11; refuse, 12; nuisances, five; milk, one; plumbing, one; trailer parks, five; schools, six; food establishments, eight, and consultations, 146.

The Health Department issued 35 plumbing permits and 40 sewage permits in March.

The Peruvian cities of Lima and Callao have cool climates despite their nearness to the equator. This occurs because the icy Humboldt Current sweeps up the west coast and moderates the climate.

Legion Auxiliary Of County Plans Event For Salem

EAST PALESTINE — The Columbiana County Council of American Legion Auxiliaries will sponsor a tea from 2 to 4 p. m. May 19 at Salem Post 56 for county girls going to Buckeye Girls State at Capital University in June.

Delegates and their mothers will be guests, along with county girls who attended the conference last year.

Unit 290 of Columbiana won the attendance prize last night at the monthly meeting here. Thirty - five members from seven units attended. Mrs. Ann DeJane of Salem, president, was in charge.

Mrs. Norma Jean Poynter of East Liverpool, 10th District Auxiliary president, spoke on membership. She announced that the district auxiliaries' conference will be Sunday, June 2 at Wellsville.

Nomination and election of officers is scheduled for the next meeting May 21 at Lisbon. A memorial service for deceased members is planned.

Some creatures can grow, or regenerate, lost parts. A lobster that loses a claw can grow a new one. And if a little flatworm is cut in two crosswise, its head - half will grow a new tail, and its tail - half will grow a new head.

Columbus Driver Injured In Crash

A Columbus resident is in "guarded" condition today at Salem City Hospital after an accident Tuesday night on Route 172, a half - mile east of Route 9.

John Thomas Lloyd, 23, demolished his 1967 sports car in the crash.

Highway patrolmen said Lloyd was eastbound when his auto ran off the southside edge of the road, went back across the highway and off the northside of the road, hitting a culvert and overturning.

Lloyd was thrown from the vehicle and struck his head on the pavement.

Two Autos Damaged In Salineville Mishap

SALINEVILLE — Moderate damage was reported to two cars in a mishap on E. Main St. Tuesday about midnight.

Police Chief Gordon Sweeney said Jack Brown, 29, of RD 3 was headed west in a 1964 sedan when he saw a car coming in the opposite direction at a high rate of speed over the center line.

Brown swerved to the right, and his car sideswiped a parked 1966 sedan owned by Bill Hull of 123 E. Main St. The driver of the other car did not stop, Brown said.

In Various Property Classes

Hancock Commissioners Give Okay To Levy Rates

The Hancock County Court of Commissioners Tuesday approved the levy rates for the 1968-69 fiscal year.

The court entered an order that the levies be assessed on each $100 valuation in various classes of property.

The rates follow: Class I, 12.4 cents per $100; Class II. 24.8 cents per $100 and Classes III and IV, 49.6 cents per $100.

The court also approved that $7 be added to a service agreement held on an air-conditioner for the Circuit Court room. The additional amount will cover all labor and parts needed to service the air conditioner for the year.

The rent for polling places was set at $40.

Rates Are Accepted At Chester Meeting

Rates for a levy order on property tax for fiscal 1968-69 were accepted during a special meeting Tuesday of Chester Council.

The rates were set by the West Virginia state tax commission on the basis of each $100 valuation received from the assessor's office.

Councilman Charles Kology, Percy Willison and Robert Kincaid attended, with Don Hood, city clerk, presiding.

The breakdown follows:

Class I, personal property, $1,373,600, 12.5 cents, $1,717; public utility property, $22,600, 12.5 cents, $28. Total class I, $1,396,200; taxes levied $1,745. No. II, real estate, $3,912,150, 25 cents, $9,780; No. 4, real estate, $1,775,800, 50 cents, $8,879; personal property, $1,375,000, 50 cents, $6,877; public utility property, $540,500, 50 cents, $2,702. Total Class No. 4, $3,691,600, taxes levied $18,458.

Total assessed valuation is $8,999,950, with taxes levied $29,983.

At a standard estimation of a 5 per cent loss for delinquency, the city should receive $28,484 from the sheriff's office, Hood said.

Hood reminded area residents outside the city limits to sign for fire bonds for protection by the city's department. He said the bonds require that if a call is made to a residency outside the city for a fire the owner will reimburse the department $100. However, he said, if no call during the year is necessary residents are not required to pay anything.

Council will meet in regular session Monday at City Hall.

Water Sample Fee Boosted; 'Teeth' Put Into Sewage Code

LISBON — The Columbiana County Board of Health voted Monday to increase the water sample fee from $3 to $4, effective May 1.

Dr. M. K. Singer, health commissioner, said the board noted the time required to collect samples at the request of consumers, send samples to a state laboratory and deliver the laboratory report.

The board also voted "to put some teeth into the sewage code" by substituting "shall" or "should" throughout the regulation, the doctor said.

Board members authorized Dr. Singer to attend a combined meeting of the Ohio State Medical Association and the Health Commissioners Association May 14-16 at Cincinnati.

March activity reports of the Health Department follow:

Medical division: Immunitions — polio, 19; whooping cough - diphtheria - tetanus, 19, and measles, 29. Strep throat cultures, 61; home visits, six; doctors' office visits, 22; consultations, 63.

Communicable diseases—scarlet fever, four; rheumatic fever, seven; veneral disease, one; chickenpox, 10, and shigella (intestinal) infection, one.

The medical division held two pre-natal classes, a nurses' workshop and a public health nurses' class.

Plumbing inspector — plumbing inspections, 79; sewage, 10; water, 18; consultations, 41.

Sanitarians' inspections—sewage, 31; water, 26; food service, 11; refuse, 12; nuisances, five; milk, one; plumbing, one; trailer parks, five; schools, six; food establishments, eight, and consultations, 146.

The Health Department issued 35 plumbing permits and 40 sewage permits in March.

The Peruvian cities of Lima and Callao have cool climates despite their nearness to the equator. This occurs because the icy Humboldt Current sweeps up the west coast and moderates the climate.

Legion Auxiliary Of County Plans Event For Salem

EAST PALESTINE — The Columbiana County Council of American Legion Auxiliaries will sponsor a tea from 2 to 4 p. m. May 19 at Salem Post 56 for county girls going to Buckeye Girls State at Capital University in June.

Delegates and their mothers will be guests, along with county girls who attended the conference last year.

Unit 290 of Columbiana won the attendance prize last night at the monthly meeting here. Thirty - five members from seven units attended. Mrs. Ann DeJane of Salem, president, was in charge.

Mrs. Norma Jean Poynter of East Liverpool, 10th District Auxiliary president, spoke on membership. She announced that the district auxiliaries' conference will be Sunday, June 2 at Wellsville.

Nomination and election of officers is scheduled for the next meeting May 21 at Lisbon. A memorial service for deceased members is planned.

Some creatures can grow, or regenerate, lost parts. A lobster that loses a claw can grow a new one. And if a little flatworm is cut in two crosswise, its head - half will grow a new tail, and its tail - half will grow a new head.

Columbus Driver Injured In Crash

A Columbus resident is in "guarded" condition today at Salem City Hospital after an accident Tuesday night on Route 172, a half - mile east of Route 9.

John Thomas Lloyd, 23, demolished his 1967 sports car in the crash.

Highway patrolmen said Lloyd was eastbound when his auto ran off the southside edge of the road, went back across the highway and off the northside of the road, hitting a culvert and overturning.

Lloyd was thrown from the vehicle and struck his head on the pavement.

Motorists Face Varied Traffic Problems In City

such powers and duties as are conferred and authorized from time to time by Council."

—:—

THE TRAFFIC Commission has been revived, and then expired, about a half a dozen times in the last 20 years. The "death" of a functioning commisssion never was abrupt. It just faded gradually out of the picture, meeting less and less often, doing less and less. . . . .

The primary reason for each commission's demise appears to have been the fact that very few — if any — of the recommendations ever became law. The fact that recommendations did not become actualities led to growing disinterest on the part of the members, attendance at meetings lessened, the agenda was shortened and finally the meetings died away altogether.

The other side of the coin concerns the action which Council took with the commission's recommendations, because none of the suggestions could become fact without Council's approval.

Probably the biggest reason for Council's inaction has been the public's failure to accept significant recommendations. Council responds to the will of the people and if the public rises in wrath against a proposed traffic change the odds are overwhelmingly against a change.

—:—

OFTENTIMES a vocal minority can make it appear that the entire city is opposed to a change, but only because those in favor of the new rule do not make themselves heard.

Another basic cause of failure to implement commission recommendations is lack of available funds for costly projects.

Time after time the commission — and others studying downtown traffic — have recommended a system of "walk lights" to make things a little easier for pedestrians crossing busy intersections.

Other proposals have called for synchronization of the traffic light system so that a driver moving at a steady pace — 20 miles an hour, for instance — ideally could drive through the business district without ever having to halt.

But either system would cost a huge amount of money. By the time Council has stretched its budget to cover "must" items such as payrolls, materials and supplies there never is a large sum left over for experimenting with new traffic light systems.

When Council receives a recommendation from the Traffic Commission, it usually makes its own study of the circumstances. Council — which has direct control of streets, traffic and parking — usually assigns its street committee or planning committee to study the proposed change and sound out citizen opinion.

UNDERSTANDABLY, a proposal such as establishment of a new one-way street or a ban on left turns at a certain intersection can stir up as much criticism as favorable comment. Every person who walks the sidewalks or sits behind the wheel of a car seems to fancy himself as an expert on traffic problems on a par with baseball's grandstand managers and football's Monday morning quarterbacks.

So, even though a suggestion is referred to Council, it must survive scrutiny and comment again before it starts through the legislative mill.

Not all the commission's recommendations have met with overwhelming approval. The officials at City Hall remember particularly a suggestion made a few years ago to allow only one-way traffic movement on the short section of St. Clair Ave. between 6th St. and Broadway.

A howl of protest rose immediately from the businessmen along the affected stretch. They said cutting off traffic movement would jeopardize their business and inconvenience the customers. Council dropped the proposal, which never had been considered seriously, after one session with the affected businessmen. Characteristically, no one appeared to argue in favor of the change.

On another occasion, the commission proposed allowing only westbound traffic on the section of E. 4th St. at the point where it meets the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." No one foresaw any opposition to the plan, which was designed primarily to cut out dangerous left turns off a Pennsylvania Ave. curve onto E. 4th St.

BUT A STORM of protest was stirred up. Many motorists said they use the section of E. 4th St. as a shortcut to Walnut or College Sts. en route to E. 3rd St. and the Chester Bridge. So that proposal died also.

Some of the commission's ideas have been adopted. One called for a heavy white "stop" line on Dresden Ave. near the Diamond. The line requires inbound Dresden Ave. traffic to stop far enough from the intersection to allow turns by motorists on W. 6th St. onto Dresden Ave. to travel north.

The commisssion sometimes doped out what it thought was the solution to the problem at a certain intersection only to learn later than the "solution" at one point would result in creating a problem at another intersection several blocks away.

As its studies progressed, each commission learned through experience that a city's traffic is not a series of isolated puzzles, but a complicated jumble of pieces that must be fitted together into a rational pattern. Thus 5th St.'s solution can be 6th St.'s headache, and vice versa, if the commission takes the short view.

Queried about the commission's role, Mayor Willshaw commented that virtually every problem presented to the commission already was known to Council.

"If there's something wrong in a certain locality — if traffic is not moving right or if some situation is creating a bottleneck — the ward councilman almost always is the first to hear about it," the mayor said.

—:—

"THE USUAL procedure is to assign an investigation by the street committee or planning committee, which makes an on-the-spot investigation, talks to motorists and residents and businessmen in the area and then reports a solution to Council, if a satisfactory one can be found."

"I am willing to reactivate the commission if it appears there are some tangible benefits that could be derived from its work," the mayor said. "Maybe it could work on programs that Council is not already busy with — making studies that take a long view of some of our problems and do not seek a panacea overnight.

"But I hesitate to ask people to spend a lot of time on things that will not result ultimately in benefit to the motorists and the community. It's a tough job for the layman and the way the number of cars is multiplying, it is bound to get tougher."

Willshaw also pointed out that transportation and traffic studies are part of the "master plan" being prepared for East Liverpool's growth and development by the consulting engineering firm of Carroll V. Hill & Associates.

The "master plan" recommendations are all long-range, calling for such things as a peripheral artery to help remove from the downtown area the cars that simply are heading for points beyond the city, he pointed out.

Other recommendations for traffic changes were contained in a study made a dozen years ago by the consulting engineering firm of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., of Rochester. The Baker report gave East Liverpool at least one lasting benefit—tracing out the east-west course for the Freeway through the city.

The Freeway itself brought about East Liverpool's most sweeping traffic change in generations. It took virtually all inter-city travel out of the center of East Liverpool in shunting Route 30 travelers around, rather than through, the most congested part of the city. The impact was felt overnight on Market St., the Diamond and Dresden Ave.

Penalty Given To 2 Drivers

Two motorists were fined on traffic violations today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff and two more forfeited appearance bonds.

Dale E. Johnson, 42, of 306 Chestnut St., Lisbon, was fined $15 and costs when he pleaded guilty to an Ohio Highway Patrol charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 30. He was cited Tuesday at 6:55 a. m.

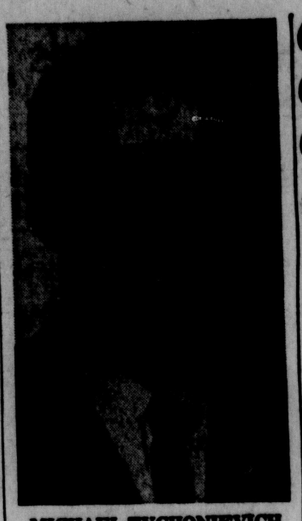
Robert W. Hileman, 26, of Youngstown paid a fine of $10 and costs on a charge of driving the wrong way in a one-way section of Persimmon Alley and was ordered to pay $7.50 costs on a second charge of improper auto registration. He was cited Saturday at 6:45 p.m. by Lt. Paul Blevins and Patrolman James Woods.

Charles Furman of Warrensville Heights forfeited a $32.50 appearance bond on a charge of operating a tractor - trailer rig without displaying a PUCO tax decal. He was cited Monday by William K. Leishman, a state inspector.

Wendell G. Paul, 32, of Akron forfeited a $27.50 bond on a charge of speeding 80 miles an hour in a 70-mile zone on the Freeway. The patrol reported he was cited Tuesday at 10:40 p.m. by an officer who trailed him from State Route 170 to the city limits.

The court ordered a bench warrant for Irene C. Jackson, 41, of 133 Thompson Ave., who failed to appear on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. The patrol said she was cited April 10 at 2:45 a. m. on Route 7.

Charles R. Powell, 24, of Lisbon RD 2 was ordered to pay the court costs on a charge of operating an auto with an expired 10 - day registration tag. He was cited at 7:36 a. m. today in Locust Alley by Patrolman Orin C. Smith.



MICHAEL TYCHONIEVICH
Chosen For Cadet Post.

Youth Selected For U.S. Coast Guard Academy

Michael J. Tychonievich of the Clarkson - Pancake Rd., a Beaver Local High School senior, has been selected as a cadet at the Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn.

Rear Adm. A. B. Engel, superintendent of the academy, this week announced the youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tychonievich, had been selected on the basis of a competitive examination taken in December.

Tychonievich, 18, has been a member of the National Society, Summa Decem, Junior Achievement, Future Teachers of America in which he served as president, Latin Club, Science Club, Student Council, and was sports editor of the yearbook.

He was freshmen class president and played basketball three years.

Man Fined And Jailed For Drunken Driving

LISBON — Melvin E. Brown Jr., 40, of Lisbon RD 1, charged here Sunday with driving while under the influence of alcohol, pleaded guilty Tuesday night before Mayor Clyde B. Pike and was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail.

Forfeiting appearance bonds were Paul Louk, Lisbon RD 2, $25 for reckless operation, and Leon Van Horn, Leetonia RD 2, $15 for driving left of center. Both were cited April 9.

Jailed Tuesday night in lieu of bond to await a hearing before the mayor was Lewis W. Hilliard of 547 E. 2nd St., Salem, charged with stealing a $35 radio from Beryl Rice of Maple St.

Panel Dismisses Case Against Midland Boys

Charges of aggravated assault and battery against three Midland youths have been dismissed by the Beaver County Grand Jury.

The charges were filed against James Crute, David Vanller and John Williams by New Brighton police. The trio was cited following a fracas after a basketball game.

The Grand Jury approved an indictment against Crute for assault and battery.

Check Poses Questions On Chester Vote

Legal questions have been posed at least unofficially over the outcome of Chester's municipal primary election April 2 after it was learned that a nominee paid a filing fee with a personal check that "bounced" from the bank, but later was made good in cash.

Chester Solicitor James Jordan, queried today about the legal implications of the bizarre case, commented that the questions may have to be settled in the courts — if someone decides to make an issue of them.

A candidate who posted a $10 filing fee to run in a municipal race did so with a personal check drawn on a Pennsylvania bank that later bounced it back to the city because the candidate did not have sufficient funds in his account.

City Clerk Donald Hood, who accepted the check, said after the first "bounce" he notified the candidate who, within two or three days made it good. The candidate filed on the last day for entering the primaries.

"He later brought in the cash," Hood explained today. "But it put me in a rather awkward position with the city officials," he continued. Hood said it is not the first time such an occurrance happened in connection with the city. One question that has arisen is this: Was the candidate entered legally if he did not actually pay the fee until after the deadline?

Jordan, contacted this morning, said he has no plans to prosecute and probably wouldn't unless he was directed by the City Council and the mayor. "I will not initiate any action unless the city directs me to," he asserted.

But, Jordan noted that the candidate's opponent, if he is not satisfied with the outcome of the primary election, might take the questions into the courts. The opponent is the one who probably should initiate the action, Jordan indicated.

Claude Joyce, assistant state attorney general, speaking from Charleston, said since the check was made good he believes the election results probably should stand with all candidates. He added there is no state regulation specifying in what way the $10 fee must be paid, adding a personal check is all right if it is accepted by the city clerk.

Joyce said, however, that the city could pass a specific law prohibiting the use of personal checks. Joyce noted the city's elections must follow along the lines of those throughout the state, but such a measure would be proper. "The city has the right to adopt its own election laws," he explained.

The candidate's opponent could not be reached to determine if he is aware of the alleged irregularity or if he plans any court action as a result.

Summitville Sets Road Cost Share

SUMMITVILLE — Council Tuesday night appropriated $300 as its share of the resurfacing of Route 644 in the village this summer.

The legislators also approved an ordinance granting the Ohio Department of Highways permission to undertake the project which involves 1.28 of a mile of roadway.

Charles Heller, district manager of the Ohio Power Co., explained the new mercury vapor lighting which is available and outlined the costs.

Council agreed to study the possibility of replacing some of the present incandescent lights.

Bills totaling $225 were paid. Mayor Ernest Phillips presided. The next meeting will be May 21.

The Civic Improvement League met afterward and discussed further plans for the annual homecoming June 20 - 22. Ride tickets will be available May 1.

Motorists Face Varied Traffic Problems In City

such powers and duties as are conferred and authorized from time to time by Council."

—:—

THE TRAFFIC Commission has been revived, and then expired, about a half a dozen times in the last 20 years. The "death" of a functioning commisssion never was abrupt. It just faded gradually out of the picture, meeting less and less often, doing less and less. . . . .

The primary reason for each commission's demise appears to have been the fact that very few — if any — of the recommendations ever became law. The fact that recommendations did not become actualities led to growing disinterest on the part of the members, attendance at meetings lessened, the agenda was shortened and finally the meetings died away altogether.

The other side of the coin concerns the action which Council took with the commission's recommendations, because none of the suggestions could become fact without Council's approval.

Probably the biggest reason for Council's inaction has been the public's failure to accept significant recommendations. Council responds to the will of the people and if the public rises in wrath against a proposed traffic change the odds are overwhelmingly against a change.

—:—

OFTENTIMES a vocal minority can make it appear that the entire city is opposed to a change, but only because those in favor of the new rule do not make themselves heard.

Another basic cause of failure to implement commission recommendations is lack of available funds for costly projects.

Time after time the commission — and others studying downtown traffic — have recommended a system of "walk lights" to make things a little easier for pedestrians crossing busy intersections.

Other proposals have called for synchronization of the traffic light system so that a driver moving at a steady pace — 20 miles an hour, for instance — ideally could drive through the business district without ever having to halt.

But either system would cost a huge amount of money. By the time Council has stretched its budget to cover "must" items such as payrolls, materials and supplies there never is a large sum left over for experimenting with new traffic light systems.

When Council receives a recommendation from the Traffic Commission, it usually makes its own study of the circumstances. Council — which has direct control of streets, traffic and parking — usually assigns its street committee or planning committee to study the proposed change and sound out citizen opinion.

UNDERSTANDABLY, a proposal such as establishment of a new one-way street or a ban on left turns at a certain intersection can stir up as much criticism as favorable comment. Every person who walks the sidewalks or sits behind the wheel of a car seems to fancy himself as an expert on traffic problems on a par with baseball's grandstand managers and football's Monday morning quarterbacks.

So, even though a suggestion is referred to Council, it must survive scrutiny and comment again before it starts through the legislative mill.

Not all the commission's recommendations have met with overwhelming approval. The officials at City Hall remember particularly a suggestion made a few years ago to allow only one-way traffic movement on the short section of St. Clair Ave. between 6th St. and Broadway.

A howl of protest rose immediately from the businessmen along the affected stretch. They said cutting off traffic movement would jeopardize their business and inconvenience the customers. Council dropped the proposal, which never had been considered seriously, after one session with the affected businessmen. Characteristically, no one appeared to argue in favor of the change.

On another occasion, the commission proposed allowing only westbound traffic on the section of E. 4th St. at the point where it meets the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." No one foresaw any opposition to the plan, which was designed primarily to cut out dangerous left turns off a Pennsylvania Ave. curve onto E. 4th St.

BUT A STORM of protest was stirred up. Many motorists said they use the section of E. 4th St. as a shortcut to Walnut or College Sts. en route to E. 3rd St. and the Chester Bridge. So that proposal died also.

Some of the commission's ideas have been adopted. One called for a heavy white "stop" line on Dresden Ave. near the Diamond. The line requires inbound Dresden Ave. traffic to stop far enough from the intersection to allow turns by motorists on W. 6th St. onto Dresden Ave. to travel north.

The commisssion sometimes doped out what it thought was the solution to the problem at a certain intersection only to learn later than the "solution" at one point would result in creating a problem at another intersection several blocks away.

As its studies progressed, each commission learned through experience that a city's traffic is not a series of isolated puzzles, but a complicated jumble of pieces that must be fitted together into a rational pattern. Thus 5th St.'s solution can be 6th St.'s headache, and vice versa, if the commission takes the short view.

Queried about the commission's role, Mayor Willshaw commented that virtually every problem presented to the commission already was known to Council.

"If there's something wrong in a certain locality — if traffic is not moving right or if some situation is creating a bottleneck — the ward councilman almost always is the first to hear about it," the mayor said.

—:—

"THE USUAL procedure is to assign an investigation by the street committee or planning committee, which makes an on-the-spot investigation, talks to motorists and residents and businessmen in the area and then reports a solution to Council, if a satisfactory one can be found."

"I am willing to reactivate the commission if it appears there are some tangible benefits that could be derived from its work," the mayor said. "Maybe it could work on programs that Council is not already busy with — making studies that take a long view of some of our problems and do not seek a panacea overnight.

"But I hesitate to ask people to spend a lot of time on things that will not result ultimately in benefit to the motorists and the community. It's a tough job for the layman and the way the number of cars is multiplying, it is bound to get tougher."

Willshaw also pointed out that transportation and traffic studies are part of the "master plan" being prepared for East Liverpool's growth and development by the consulting engineering firm of Carroll V. Hill & Associates.

The "master plan" recommendations are all long-range, calling for such things as a peripheral artery to help remove from the downtown area the cars that simply are heading for points beyond the city, he pointed out.

Other recommendations for traffic changes were contained in a study made a dozen years ago by the consulting engineering firm of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., of Rochester. The Baker report gave East Liverpool at least one lasting benefit—tracing out the east-west course for the Freeway through the city.

The Freeway itself brought about East Liverpool's most sweeping traffic change in generations. It took virtually all inter-city travel out of the center of East Liverpool in shunting Route 30 travelers around, rather than through, the most congested part of the city. The impact was felt overnight on Market St., the Diamond and Dresden Ave.

Penalty Given To 2 Drivers

Two motorists were fined on traffic violations today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff and two more forfeited appearance bonds.

Dale E. Johnson, 42, of 306 Chestnut St., Lisbon, was fined $15 and costs when he pleaded guilty to an Ohio Highway Patrol charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 30. He was cited Tuesday at 6:55 a. m.

Robert W. Hileman, 26, of Youngstown paid a fine of $10 and costs on a charge of driving the wrong way in a one-way section of Persimmon Alley and was ordered to pay $7.50 costs on a second charge of improper auto registration. He was cited Saturday at 6:45 p.m. by Lt. Paul Blevins and Patrolman James Woods.

Charles Furman of Warrensville Heights forfeited a $32.50 appearance bond on a charge of operating a tractor - trailer rig without displaying a PUCO tax decal. He was cited Monday by William K. Leishman, a state inspector.

Wendell G. Paul, 32, of Akron forfeited a $27.50 bond on a charge of speeding 80 miles an hour in a 70-mile zone on the Freeway. The patrol reported he was cited Tuesday at 10:40 p.m. by an officer who trailed him from State Route 170 to the city limits.

The court ordered a bench warrant for Irene C. Jackson, 41, of 133 Thompson Ave., who failed to appear on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. The patrol said she was cited April 10 at 2:45 a. m. on Route 7.

Charles R. Powell, 24, of Lisbon RD 2 was ordered to pay the court costs on a charge of operating an auto with an expired 10 - day registration tag. He was cited at 7:36 a. m. today in Locust Alley by Patrolman Orin C. Smith.

MICHAEL TYCHONIEVICH
Chosen For Cadet Post.

Youth Selected For U.S. Coast Guard Academy

Michael J. Tychonievich of the Clarkson - Pancake Rd., a Beaver Local High School senior, has been selected as a cadet at the Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn.

Rear Adm. A. B. Engel, superintendent of the academy, this week announced the youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tychonievich, had been selected on the basis of a competitive examination taken in December.

Tychonievich, 18, has been a member of the National Society, Summa Decem, Junior Achievement, Future Teachers of America in which he served as president, Latin Club, Science Club, Student Council, and was sports editor of the yearbook.

He was freshmen class president and played basketball three years.

Man Fined And Jailed For Drunken Driving

LISBON — Melvin E. Brown Jr., 40, of Lisbon RD 1, charged here Sunday with driving while under the influence of alcohol, pleaded guilty Tuesday night before Mayor Clyde B. Pike and was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail.

Forfeiting appearance bonds were Paul Louk, Lisbon RD 2, $25 for reckless operation, and Leon Van Horn, Leetonia RD 2, $15 for driving left of center. Both were cited April 9.

Jailed Tuesday night in lieu of bond to await a hearing before the mayor was Lewis W. Hilliard of 547 E. 2nd St., Salem, charged with stealing a $35 radio from Beryl Rice of Maple St.

Panel Dismisses Case Against Midland Boys

Charges of aggravated assault and battery against three Midland youths have been dismissed by the Beaver County Grand Jury.

The charges were filed against James Crute, David Vanlier and John Williams by New Brighton police. The trio was cited following a fracas after a basketball game.

The Grand Jury approved an indictment against Crute for assault and battery.

Check Poses Questions On Chester Vote

Legal questions have been posed at least unofficially over the outcome of Chester's municipal primary election April 2 after it was learned that a nominee paid a filing fee with a personal check that "bounced" from the bank, but later was made good in cash.

Chester Solicitor James Jordan, queried today about the legal implications of the bizarre case, commented that the questions may have to be settled in the courts — if someone decides to make an issue of them.

A candidate who posted a $10 filing fee to run in a municipal race did so with a personal check drawn on a Pennsylvania bank that later bounced it back to the city because the candidate did not have sufficient funds in his account.

City Clerk Donald Hood, who accepted the check, said after the first "bounce" he notified the candidate who, within two or three days made it good. The candidate filed on the last day for entering the primaries.

"He later brought in the cash," Hood explained today. "But it put me in a rather awkward position with the city officials," he continued. Hood said it is not the first time such an occurrance happened in connection with the city. One question that has arisen is this: Was the candidate entered legally if he did not actually pay the fee until after the deadline?

Jordan, contacted this morning, said he has no plans to prosecute and probably wouldn't unless he was directed by the City Council and the mayor. "I will not initiate any action unless the city directs me to," he asserted.

But, Jordan noted that the candidate's opponent, if he is not satisfied with the outcome of the primary election, might take the questions into the courts. The opponent is the one who probably should initiate the action, Jordan indicated.

Claude Joyce, assistant state attorney general, speaking from Charleston, said since the check was made good he believes the election results probably should stand with all candidates. He added there is no state regulation specifying in what way the $10 fee must be paid, adding a personal check is all right if it is accepted by the city clerk.

Joyce said, however, that the city could pass a specific law prohibiting the use of personal checks. Joyce noted the city's elections must follow along the lines of those throughout the state, but such a measure would be proper. "The city has the right to adopt its own election laws," he explained.

The candidate's opponent could not be reached to determine if he is aware of the alleged irregularity or if he plans any court action as a result.

Miss Sally Bussard Weds In Ceremonies At Chapel

A dress and coat ensemble of white brocade was worn by Miss Sally Bussard when she became the bride of Thomas C. Baker April 6 at 6:30 p. m. in the chapel ofthe Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bussard of 821 Bank St. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Baker of Shadyside Ave.

The Rev. H. Gene Toot officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar background of palms, ferns and an arrangement of white snapdragons, mums and carnations. Mrs. Jessie Hall Kaufman was organist.

THE BRIDE was given in marriage by her father. Her sheath dress was topped with a matching coat fashioned with circular neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Iridescent sequins adorned the ensemble.

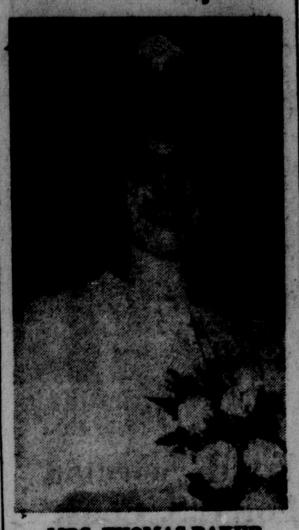
The sequin trim was featured on her headpiece, a white rose with theater veil. She wore a gold, pear-centered, heart-shapd pendant, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a Colonial bouquet of white mums and baby breath centered with a white orchid.

In observing the traditions, she borrowed a blue garter from Mrs. Lynn Hanna; carried a lace-edged handkerchief, the gift of Mrs. Jeri Brown, and a six pence, the gift of Mrs. Blanch Bennett.

Miss Roberta Pennybaker, maid of honor, appeared in a beige suit trimmed in brown. Her headpiece was a brown Dior bow and theater veil. She carried a Colonial bonquet of pink carnations and rosebuds highlighted with baby breath and satin streamers.

Richard Woolison of Athens served as best man. Ushers were Warren Smith and John Hanna.

The mother of the bride chose a pink lace dress with patent accessories and the bridegroom's mother a green dress with matching accessories. White orchid corsages complemented their attire. Mrs. Sam Walter of Templeton, Pa., grandmother of the bride, was attired in a pink print dress with white accessories and carnation corsage.



MRS. THOMAS BAKER
Residing In Marietta.

—:—

A RECEPTION for 60 followed in the social rooms under the supervision of Mrs. Gladys Rose. The buffet table was covered with green maline and centered with a three-tier cake, topped with wedding bells and flanked by candelabra. A floral arrangement was used on the bride's table.

Aides were Mrs. Elaine Smith, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Pat Thorne. Miss Kim Bussard, sister of the bride and Miss Karen Hite of Canton registered guests.

For her honeymoon trip through Virginia, the bride was attired in a pink and white A-line dress with matching jacket, patent accessories and her bridal orchid.

The newlyweds are graduates of East Liverpool High School, the bride in 1964 and her husband in 1965. She was formerly employed in the circulation department of The Review.

The bridegroom is a 1962 graduate of Ohio University, Athens, where he was affiliated with Alpha Phi Omega and Sigma Delta Chi fraternities. He is vice president of the O-Val Advertising Co. at Marietta. He is a member of the Marietta Kiwanis Club.

The couple is receiving friends in a newly-furnished apartment in Marietta.

Chester Society

Miss J. D. Miller
387-2721

The initial meeting of the newly-organized Town and Country Garden Club of the Chester area was held Monday night at the home of Mrs. Betty Dotson of Carolina Ave.

Miss Sally Bussard Weds In Ceremonies At Chapel

A dress and coat ensemble of white brocade was worn by Miss Sally Bussard when she became the bride of Thomas C. Baker April 6 at 6:30 p. m. in the chapel ofthe Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bussard of 821 Bank St. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Baker of Shadyside Ave.

The Rev. H. Gene Toot officiated for the double - ring ceremony before an altar background of palms, ferns and an arrangement of white snapdragons, mums and carnations. Mrs. Jessie Hall Kaufman was organist.

THE BRIDE was given in marriage by her father. Her sheath dress was topped with a matching coat fashioned with circular neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Iridescent sequins adorned the ensemble.

The sequin trim was featured on her headpiece, a white rose with theater veil. She wore a gold, pear - centered, heart - shapd pendant, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a Colonial bouquet of white mums and baby breath centered with a white orchid.

In observing the traditions, she borrowed a blue garter from Mrs. Lynn Hanna; carried a lace - edged handkerchief, the gift of Mrs. Jeri Brown, and a six pence, the gift of Mrs. Blanch Bennett.

Miss Roberta Pennybaker, maid of honor, appeared in a beige suit trimmed in brown. Her headpiece was a brown Dior bow and theater veil. She carried a Colonial bonquet of pink carnations and rosebuds highlighted with baby breath and satin streamers.

Richard Woolison of Athens served as best man. Ushers were Warren Smith and John Hanna.

The mother of the bride chose a pink lace dress with patent accessories and the bridegroom's mother a green dress with matching accessories. White orchid corsages complemented their attire. Mrs. Sam Walter of Templeton, Pa., grandmother of the bride, was attired in a pink print dress with white accessories and carnation corsage.

MRS. THOMAS BAKER
Residing In Marietta.

—:—

A RECEPTION for 60 followed in the social rooms under the supervision of Mrs. Gladys Rose. The buffet table was covered with green maline and centered with a three - tier cake, topped with wedding bells and flanked by candelabra. A floral arrangement was used on the bride's table.

Aides were Mrs. Elaine Smith, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Pat Thorne. Miss Kim Bussard, sister of the bride and Miss Karen Hite of Canton registered guests.

For her honeymoon trip through Virginia, the bride was attired in a pink and white A-line dress with matching jacket, patent accessories and her bridal orchid.

The newlyweds are graduates of East Liverpool High School, the bride in 1964 and her husband in 1955. She was formerly employed in the circulation department of The Review.

The bridegroom is a 1962 graduate of Ohio University, Athens, where he was affiliated with Alpha Phi Omega and Sigma Delta Chi fraternities. He is vice president of the O-Val Advertising Co. at Marietta. He is a member of the Marietta Kiwanis Club.

The couple is receiving friends in a newly - furnished apartment in Marietta.

'Heart' Group Sets Officers

LISBON — G. Alan Hill of East Palestine was elected chairman of the board when the Columbiana County branch of the Heart Association of Eastern Ohio met Tuesday night.

He succeeds Twing Hiscox of Salem, who will serve on Ohio State Heart Association Committees. Hiscox has been on the board nine years.

Other officers named were Dr. John Hayes of East Liverpool, president; Dr. Anthony Rich of East Palestine, vice president; Mrs. Marie Duran of Salem, secretary, and Robert Cole of East Palestine, treasurer.

The board discussed participation in the East Liverpool Home Show April 24-27 and plans to show the public some of the latest teaching aids for physicians and nurses working with heart patients.

The county Heart Fund collection now stands at $19,783 toward the $20,000 goal. The campaign will remain open until the new fiscal year beginning July 1.

Heart officials announced that a new work evaluation unit is operating in the Youngstown office with good response from the public. The unit—a team of cardiologists, social worker and guidance counselor — is available to heart patients in Columbiana, Mahoning and Trumbull counties.

A benefit Heart Fund round and square dance will be held Friday evening at the Hi Neighbor Barn, south of Salem. James Cook, public relations consultant from the state Heart Association office, was a guest last night.

Playrites Drop One Production; Others Continue

One of three plays under production by the Ceramic Playrates was dropped during a meeting Tuesday night in the former Woomer Building on St. Clair Ave.

The play, "Zoo Story" by Edward Albee, was discontinued because of conflicting work schedules of the cast, Miss Penny Titus, director, said.

The other two plays, "The American Dream" and "A Resounding Tinkle," were discussed. They will be presented three nights the last week in May, James Graham, president, said.

The cast of "A Resounding Tinkle" will rehearse Thursday at 7 p. m. in the building. The cast for the other play will rehearse Saturday, the time and place to be announced, Tom Henthorn, director, said.

Robert Lackner was instructed to have a sign painted, advertising the meeting place.

A discussion was held relative to a booth at the Pottery Festival in June.

Frances Leon was appointed chairman for a bake sale. Final plans for the sale will be made at the next meeting April 30 at 7 p. m. in the building.

Student Given Ribbon For Art Show Entry

Jeff Leughmeyer, a Wellsville High School senior, was awarded a merit ribbon for his entry in the Upper Ohio Valley High School Art Show which closed Sunday at Wheeling.

His was one of 11 such awards presented. He entered an oil painting.

The judge was Bernie K. Peace, director of the art department at West Liberty State College.

Family Dinner Will Mark Anniversary Of Pusateris

Mr. and Mrs. James V. Pusateri of 3123 Gilson Ave. will observe their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday with a family dinner at the Inn Town Motel. An open reception will follow from 3 to 5 p. m.

The Pusateris were married April 18, 1918, at St. Aloysius Catholic Church, with the late Rev. Austin Dunn officiating. Mrs. Pusateri is the former Margaret Gerace. Her husband operated a grocery on St. Clair Ave. at one time.

They are the parents of two daughters, Mrs. Ronald (Mary Ann) Wright of Chester and Mrs. Charles (Vera) Capwell of Monroe St., and a son, Michael J. Pusateri of Hampton Court. Another son, Lt. Mathew James Pusateri, was killed during World War II. There are 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

150 Attend Musical Concert Given By College Glee Club

Approximately 150 attended the concert presented by the West Virginia State College ROTC Glee Club Monday in Beacom Memorial Gymnasium, Wellsville.

Selections on the program, sponsored by Lee's Chapel AME Church, ranged from classical to Negro spirituals.

The program began with a march by the glee club members through the auditorium and on to the stage. They opened with a formal choral prelude, "Magnificant" by Monteverdi.

The Glee Club, under the direction of Dr. P. Ahmed Williams, exhibited a versatility of talent, not only in selectivity, presentation and adaptability, but in originality exemplified by the presentation of "I Shall Know Him" done in traditional "modal" style.

Dr. Williams, who received his master's and doctorate degrees at New York University and has studied under Gardner Lamson, renowned opera singer, traced various songs from the beginning of Christianity and explained how they have been adapted to the present religious ceremonies of various faiths.

The audience was invited to "sing along" during the presentation of "I Shall Know Him" and "Cockles and Mussells".

Featured soloists included Dr. Cortez Reece of Bluefield, W. Va., Johnny Ledbetter, James T. Williams and Willie Leonard.

The club sang the Alma Mater and exhibited precision "mod" dance steps as it concluded the program.

Byron Carter was program chairman.

Actress Fay Bainter, 74, Claimed After Long Illness

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Fay Bainter, who won an Academy Award for her portrayal of Aunt Belle in the film "Jezebel," is dead at 74.

The actress, known for motherly roles in such films as "White Banners," "Woman of the Year," "State Fair" and "The Childrens Hour, died at her home Tuesday night after a long illness.

Plans were for her to be buried in Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia beside her husband, Navy Lt. Cmdr. Reginald Venable who died in 1964. Their son, actor Reginald Venable Jr., survives.

Miss Bainter, who was a stage actress before she entered films, began her career when she was 6, appearing with stock companies in her home town, Los Angeles.

In 1933 she made her screen debut as Lionel Barrymore's wife in "This Side of Heaven." She was 41. Four years later she won an Oscar along with her costar in "Jezebel," Bette Davis.

Miss Bainter was nominated for Oscars twice again for performances in "White Banners" and "The Children's Hour." In the latter she played a grandmother deceived by an evil child.

She appeared in a total of 39 films, familiar always for her roles as wife, understanding mother or faithful friend.

Vote Board Gets Data On Reporting Returns

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown today advised the Columbiana County Election Board on the order in which election returns will be telephoned to his office at Columbus after the polls close for the May 7 primary elections.

The first report will cover returns on party races for nomination of U.S. senators and three proposed amendments to the Ohio Constitution. The second report, which may be furnished concurrently if figures are available, will cover the contest for 18th District congressman.

Brown sent similar notices to election boards in the other 87 Ohio counties. The so-called order of count is prescribed by the secretary of state prior to each election.

Student Interest Urged In Service Academies

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)— Forty school officials attending a workshop Tuesday were urged to interest students in applying for scholarships to U.S. service academies.

"It is in the best interest of our nation's future that the academies attract the most worthy and highly qualified young men from across the country," Rep. Clarence J. Brown Jr., R-Ohio, told the officials from a nine-county area.

Since nobody has yet invented a device that can shoe a horse, some 21,280 blacksmiths still practice the craft in the United States. One hundred and ten of them are women.

Bridge Barriers Discussed After Chester Meeting

William Harper of Chester discussed the dangers represented by the barriers on the Chester bridge with three Chester councilmen following the special meeting Tuesday night in City Hall.

Harper, a teacher at Chester Junior High School, expressed concern that the barrier may be momentarily forgotten by area motorists driving travel trailers and other vehicles over the height limit, perhaps resulting in a serious accident.

He said he feels the barrier should be removed and offered to do the job himself if permission were granted.

Councilmen Charles Kology, Robert Kincaid and Percy Willison participated in the discussion. All agreed the barrier is a hazard.

Harper will attend a regular meeting of Council Monday night. Because he did not arrive until the close of the meeting, his comments could not be entered into last night's minutes, Don Hood, city clerk, explained.

Bridge Barriers Discussed After Chester Meeting

William Harper of Chester discussed the dangers represented by the barriers on the Chester bridge with three Chester councilmen following the special meeting Tuesday night in City Hall.

Harper, a teacher at Chester Junior High School, expressed concern that the barrier may be momentarily forgotten by area motorists driving travel trailers and other vehicles over the height limit, perhaps resulting in a serious accident.

He said he feels the barrier should be removed and offered to do the job himself if permission were granted.

Councilmen Charles Kology, Robert Kincaid and Percy Willison participated in the discussion. All agreed the barrier is a hazard.

Harper will attend a regular meeting of Council Monday night. Because he did not arrive until the close of the meeting, his comments could not be entered into last night's minutes, Don Hood, city clerk, explained.

Clinic Picks Fediaczko As Psychiatric Chief

Appointment of W. Gordon Fediaczko of Washington, Pa., as chief psychiatric social worker at the Columbiana County Mental Health Clinic in Lisbon has been announced by Donald G. Roberts of Youngstown, administrative director.

Fediaczko has been working full time at the E. Lincoln Way clinic since last November, coming from the Western State School and Hospital at Canonsburg, Pa.

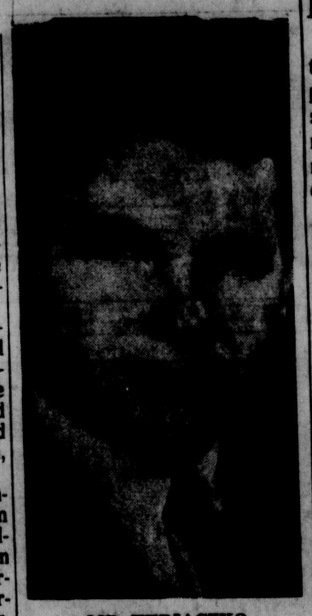
His duties will be as a consultant to the county retarded children's school and the public schools of the county, since his main interest centers around emotional disturbances and mental disorders of children, Roberts said.

Fediaczko received his bachelor's degree in psychology from Washington and Jefferson College and a master's degree in social work from the University of Pittsburgh after majoring in psychiatric group therapy.

He had staff assignments with the Homewood - Brushton Citizens Renewal Council and Pressley House in Pittsburgh. He spent two years in the Army as a personnel psychologist and is a captain in the Army Reserves. He is married and has four children. The family plans to move to Salem soon.

Recent newcomers to the clinic staff are Edward Albaugh of Youngstown, as a psychiatric social worker two days a week, and Raymond A. Bush of 1934 Fairview Court, Salem, who is working for a master's degree at Kent State University and has been assigned here for parallel training — a degree requirement.

Albaugh, former assistant superintendent at Scioto Village (the girls' industrial school) at Delaware, is employed three days a week at the Adult Guidance Clinic at Youngstown.



MR. FEDIACZKO
Will Be Consultant.

Roberts said Albaugh will supervise Bush and that both have been assigned to work with Juvenile Court.

Beginning in September, the clinic will have the services of two University of Pittsburgh students working for doctorates in psychology. Roberts said they will be here three days a week during the school year to meet degree requirements. They also will be assigned to work with Juvenile Court, Roberts said.

Action Taken On Head Start For Hancock

The appointment of a director for the Head Start summer program and the resignation of six teachers, three of whom are retiring, marked Monday night's meeting at Hancock County Board of Education.

R. O. Stevens, principal at New Manchester Elementary School, was selected director of Head Start.

The selection of Stevens was made by a panel of teachers and administrative personnel from a list of four applicants.

The program will last for seven weeks, with an expected enrollment of 65. It was reported 50 applications have been received to date.

The salary of the program director was set at $800 a month. The cost of the entire program will be an estimated $15,000.

Teachers retiring are Mary Hughes, Ethel C. Jackson and Esther Harris. Other resignations were received from Eleanor Sprouse, who cited health reasons, and Kathryn S. McCarick and George Myers, who are leaving the area.

Wirtz Says U.S. Eyes Steel Talks, Won't Intervene

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz says the government is closely following preliminary negotiations in the steel industry, but has no present plans to intervene.

The secretary said "we're watching it with very real interest, with very great interest."

He said the steel negotiations were basic to the stability of the economy, and that an early settlement was necessary to avoid an influx of imports.

Wirt also said that he had "no doubts" Vice-President Hubert H. Humphrey would shortly announce his presidential candidacy and that he would support Humphrey.

Wirt made the remarks at a news conference before he addressed a Democratic fund-raising dinner in Pittsburgh Tuesday night.

At the dinner, he called on Democrats to enter into this year's election with a spirit of unity.

He defended the Johnson-Humphrey administration against its critics, citing its "great accomplishments in the fields of labor and antipoverty."

Wirt also urged Democrats not to run this year on their record for accomplishments, but to come up with plans for an even better society.

Headliners For 'Parade'

"The Southern Aristocrats" of Greensboro, N. C., will headline the barbershop parade of the East Liverpool SPEBSQSA Chapter Saturday at 8 p.m. at Westgate School.

Left to right, they are, Al Connell, tenor; Baxter Westmoreland, lead; Red Sechrest, baritone, and Don Moore, bass. They were 1964 Dixie District champs and international semi-finalists and have been singing together four years.

Other participating quartets will be "The Point Four" and "The Circle W" of Pittsburgh, the "Downtowners" from Pittsburgh and East Liverpool and "The 12th Nighters" from East Liverpool and Steubenville.

Glenn Woods will direct the local chorus and Mrs. Nancy Beaver will direct the local Sweet Adelines chorus. Ralph Finley will serve as master of ceremonies.

Dean Manning, parade chairman, announced tickets are on sale at Robins & Sant and The Lamp Post and also will be sold at the door the night of the performance. There are some tickets still available for the after-glo at the Inn Town Motel, Manning said.

Woods directed the rehearsal Monday night at the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church and announced the dress rehearsal will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at Westgate.

CTA To Hold Fund Project

A fund - raising smorgasbord will be held April 30 by the Citizens for Total Action, it was announced during the meeting Tuesday night at the Masonic Hall.

It will be the group's first such project.

The first report of the group's youth auxiliary was heard. Officers are Larry Fitch, president; Rickie Carter, vice president; Sherry Tyson, secretary; Pam Fitch, assistant secretary; Eileen Kenner, treasurer, and Judy Pack, chaplain.

Mrs. Anna L. Pack, president, again stressed the "urgent need for a combined effort of all residents if the organization is to succeed."

Caesar A. Peters, president of the local chapter of the NAACP, reported on his recent visit at the Beaver Local School System. He said that the students and faculty there displayed considerable interest "in the betterment of racial relationships."

Beavers Edge Springfield 4-3, Piatt Gets Second Win

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

One unfortunate thing about the merger of the two United States pro soccer leagues is the adoption of the ridiculous scoring system used by the National league last year.

True soccer fans know that usually a soccer team gets two points for a win and one point for a tie. But league officials have decided that U.S. fans want to see more scoring, and so are giving six points for a win, three for a tie and one point for every goal scored in a game up to three. Thus a team losing 1-0 gets no points, while a team that loses 10-3 gets three points, the same as teamsplaying a scoreless tie.

This is supposed to lead to more wide-open play, but the foreign players in the league (who come to about 99 per cent) are not used to this style. Games in the U.S. last summer were more high-scoring than anywhere else, but this was because of the poor quality of play rather than a difference in style.

True soccer fans appreciate good defense and midfield play, and don't mind 0-0 games. Most of the people going to soccer games in this country are people who are familiar with the game, either from having watched it in a foreign country or from having played it in this country. Hoked up scoring systems drive these fans away, and the league is just defeating itself with this gimmick.

THE PITTSBURGH Pipers had a winning record in regular season play against every ABA team except New Orleans, whom they meet tomorrow in the final playoffs. The Pipers went 3-3 against the Buccaneers.

The Pipers were the highest scoring team in the league with a 11.9 average. They scored the most three-pointers, 243, and had the best percentage on the long shots, 30.8.

Connie Hawkins led the league in scoring with a 26.8 average, was second in rebounding with 13.5 and fourth in assists with 4.5. Tom Washington of Pittsburgh led the league by hitting 52.2 per cent of his shots and Hawkins was second. Chico Vaughan was third in three-pointer percentage.

AB McDONALD of Pittsburgh Penguins was named to the National Hockey League western division all-star team. McDonald, a left-winger, scored 43 points during the season.

Campbell Makes Fine Catch, DP

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Clutch pitching by Mike Piatt and a fine fielding play by catcher Rex Campbell gave Beaver Local a 4-3 win over Springfield in the Beavers' Buckeye Border Conference baseball opener yesterday at Beaver Local.

The Tigers, trailing 4-2 going into the seventh and last inning, almost pulled the game out, but fell short as Piatt rose to the occasion in a thrilling finish.

Jim Elliot led off the inning with a single and took third when thirdbaseman Bob Flint threw wild, trying for a doubleplay on a grounder by Tom Culp. Jim Booth hit a long drive to left, and it appeared that Springfield was back in the ball game. Both runners scored, though Booth was out at home trying to stretch his hit. But the ball had bounced over the road, and was ruled a ground rule double, with Culp, representing the tying run, having to go back to third.

Now came Campbell's gem. Mark Merrin raised a high foul behind the bleachers on the first base line. Campbell circled behind the stands and made a fine catch. Culp tagged up and attempted to score, but Campbell threw to Piatt covering home and Culp was tagged out.

Piatt still was in trouble, as he walked Rick Sponhaltz, representing the potential winning run. But Piatt fanned pitching opponent Bruce Mallernee to end the contest.

Both pitchers pitched well, but were the victims of shaky support. Springfield made four errors and the Beavers three, and some of the hits were tainted.

Lloyd Stockdale's club took the lead in the second when Lew Brown singled, stole second and came all the way around to score on two bad throws. Gary Klembara led off the third with a double and Piatt singled. Dan Myers walked to load the bases, Campbell singled home one run and Dennis Klembara plated another with a sacrifice fly. The Beavers scored their final tally in the fourth on two errors and a walk.

Piatt was coasting along on a one-hitter until the sixth. Singles by Booth and Sponhaltz and a walk to Mallernee loaded the bases with one out. Piatt fanned Steve Nowalk, but Don Rowe dropped a fly in front of left fielder Scott Dubberly and two runs scored.

The Beavers are now 3-1 overall and Piatt is 2-0. Springfield is 1-1, both in conference play.

Tigers Top Bosox For 4th Straight

By The Associated Press

The Boston Red Sox raised their first American League pennant in 21 years, then the Detroit Tigers lowered the boom.

Detroit wrecked the defending champions' home opener with an eight-run fourth inning for a 9-2 victory, the Tigers' fourth straight after a first-day loss.

"It's a long season. This is just the beginning," said Manager Mayo Smith of the Tigers' fast getaway.

For Boston skipper Dick Williams, it probably seemed like the season might end before the fourth inning did as 13 Tigers went to the plate.

While the Red Sox were having "just one of those days" in the words of Williams, Oakland was beating the New York Yankees 4-3 on Floyd Robinson's two-run pinch homer in the ninth and Cleveland was topping the Chicago White Sox 3-1 on Tony Horton's two-run shot in the seventh. There was no other AL action.

The Red Sox, now 2-3, got a run in the second inning on Joe Lahoud's double and Elston Howard's single, two of the four hits Earl Wilson allowed Boston all day.

Ray Culp allowed Detroit one hit in each of the first three innings but not runs. Then came the fourth.

Bill Freehan singled and Jim Northrup walked. Then with one out Earl Wilson singled to score one run, and Dick McAuliffe walked, loading the bases. Don Wert singled home two runs and McAuliffe and Wert advanced on Lahoud's error in right field.

Al Kaline flied out, but when third baseman Dalton Jones dropped the relay, McAuliffe scored and Wert went to third. Willie Horton doubled in a run. Norm Cash walked and Bill Freehan got an infield hit to again load the bases.

With a 2-0 count on McAuliffe, Lee Stange relieved Culp and walked in a run. Ray Oyler then singled in the final two runs of the inning.

Robinson's homer that wrecked the Yankees came on the first pitch from Dooley Womack, who had put down an Oakland rally in the eighth inning in which the Athletics scored a run. John Donaldson was on through a single when Robinson unloaded.

New York scored all of its runs in the first. Reggie Jackson got the A's first run with a third-inning homer.

Chicago's Joe Horlen was working on a two-hitter until Duke Sims beat out a grounder opening the seventh, and Horton followed with his homer. The Indians added another run in the inning. Pete Ward homered for the Chicago run in the top of the seventh.

E. Liverpool Golfers Top Steubenville

The East Liverpool golf team gained revenge for an earlier two-stroke loss by topping Steubenville 172-182 at the East Liverpool Country Club yestetday.

The Potters are now 6-3, Big Red 5-3.

Rick Hughes was medalist with a 41, beating Steubenville's number one man Duncan Johnson by three strokes. Bob Kinsey fired a 46 to 51 by Mike Denmark, Bob Simms had a 40 to 45 by Martin Hauser, Bill McHenry shot a 42 to 46 by Ken Firm and John Stepien had a 43 to 47 by Jim Sterm. The low four scores count.

The East Liverpool reserves edged the faculty 3-2. Joe Mitchell picked up a point for the faculty at number one, shooting a 52 to 57 by Rick Tommaine. The other faculty point came at five, where Phil Hunt beat Mike DePasquale, though both shot 51s. For the reserves, Steve Picken shot a 48 to a 50 by Joe Smith, Jim Riggs had a 47 to a 50 for Joe Mowad and John Taylor a 50 to 57 for Jim Quinn.

Oak Glen Golfers Top Follansbee

Oak Glen won its second golf match without a loss yesterday, edging Follansbee 8½-6½ at Woodview.

Ben Glass was medalist with a 42 and he picked up 2½ of 3 points for Dick Burig's team. His opponent, basketball ace Bill Conley, shot a 45. Phil Hudok and his opponent Don Simmons each shot 43s and split the three points. Jim Szymanek fired a 47 and took two points as Bob Conley had a 49. Jack Burnquist had a 46 and got 2½ points as John Yveuta had a 49. Terry Boyd shot a 50 and was shut out as Larry Kuten got a 46.

Six national high school track records were set last spring.

Potter Nine To Play Home

East Liverpool will play its first home baseball game of the season this afternoon.

South Side Beaver will provide the opposition. The Rams are 3-2, the Potters 4-0. The game will be played at the Colt League Field on Fifth Ave. Starting times will be between 4 and 4:15.

Briles Beats Braves, Cards Tied For First

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two plus 10 equals 12 to mathematicians and baseball statisticians, but not to Nelson Briles. Not when money is involved, he says.

"I haven't won 12 straight games," insisted the St. Louis hurler, who captured his last 10 decisions in 1967 and ran his record to 2-0 this year by pitching the Cardinals past Atlanta 6-2 Tuesday night.

"It's just two in a row. I already got paid for last season."

Two or 12, Briles' logic failed to impress the Braves as much as his fast ball that stopped the home club with only two unearned runs for eight innings before Joe Hoerner pitched the ninth.

His victory continued the fast getaway of the world champion Cardinals, who moved back into a tie for first place with idle Houston at 5-1.

Lower in the standings, Los Angeles did some hitting for a change and powered past Philadelphia 5-3 in a night game after Cincinnati outlasted the Chicago Cubs 9-8 in the afternoon in the only National League games scheduled.

Briles, who received a big pay raise after recording a 14-5 record and one World Series victory last season, appears to have his mind and arm attuned to more victories that add up to more money this year.

The right-hander, who came out of the bullpen and performed sensationally as a starting replacement for injured Bob Gibson in 1967, scattered nine hits against the Braves, who broke through only with the aid of an error.

Briles held a 6-0 lead for 6 2-3 innings before catcher Tim McCarver dropped a foul pop and Hank Aaron and Felipe Alou followed with run-scoring singles. It was not enough to overcome Orlando Cepeda's four hits and three runs batted in and a homer by Mike Shannon off loser Tony Cloninger.

Only a blister on his index finger, the result of throwing his fast ball, kept Briles from finishing.

"I don't like to think about losing at all," Briles said. "All I think about is winning 20 games like any other pitcher."

Mike Kekich, who just turned 23, might also be dreaming of 20 some day, but right now his mind is on No. 1, his first major league victory.

The left-handed rookie pitcher, who lost to Philadelphia in his only other big league start in June 1965, had the Phillies blanked for seven innings before two singles knocked him out at the start of the eighth. Richie Allen singled in two runs off Phil Regan before Hank Aguirre put out the fire after a sacrifice fly by Tony Gonzales.

However, the Dodgers, who have been shut out three times this season and scored only four runs in five games, had broken loose earlier for a 5-0 lead as Wes Parker, Zoilo Versalles and Willie Davis doubled in runs.

Cincinnati had to come from behind after the Cubs scored seven times in the third inning for a 7-5 lead. Lee May climaxed the comeback with his fourth hit, a single that drove in the winning run in the ninth inning. He knocked in two other runs earlier with a homer and a single, offsetting three RBI by the Cubs' Ernie Banks, who double and homered.

Steiner Breaks Mark Again

Beavers Whip Lisbon, Jim Nuzum Wins Three

The Beaver Local track team, paced by Jim Nuzum, evened its record at 2-2 with a 88-39 romp over winless Lisbon at Beaver Local yesterday.

Nuzum won the 100, 220 and 440-yard dashes and was second in the high jump. Tim Mellon was a double winner, taking the 120-high hurdles and the high jump, while Pihenger of Lisbon won the shot and discus.

Keith Steiner again lowered his school record in the two-mile run, doing 10:52.9 compared to 10:57.2 last week.

Beavers Edge Springfield 4-3, Piatt Gets Second Win

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

One unfortunate thing about the merger of the two United States pro soccer leagues is the adoption of the ridiculous scoring system used by the National league last year.

True soccer fans know that usually a soccer team gets two points for a win and one point for a tie. But league officials have decided that U.S. fans want to see more scoring, and so are giving six points for a win, three for a tie and one point for every goal scored in a game up to three. Thus a team losing 1-0 gets no points, while a team that loses 10-3 gets three points, the same as teamsplaying a scoreless tie.

This is supposed to lead to more wide-open play, but the foreign players in the league (who come to about 99 per cent) are not used to this style. Games in the U.S. last summer were more high-scoring than anywhere else, but this was because of the poor quality of play rather than a difference in style.

True soccer fans appreciate good defense and midfield play, and don't mind 0-0 games. Most of the people going to soccer games in this country are people who are familiar with the game, either from having watched it in a foreign country or from having played it in this country. Hoked up scoring systems drive these fans away, and the league is just defeating itself with this gimmick.

THE PITTSBURGH Pipers had a winning record in regular season play against every ABA team except New Orleans, whom they meet tomorrow in the final playoffs. The Pipers went 3-3 against the Buccaneers.

The Pipers were the highest scoring team in the league with a 11.9 average. They scored the most three-pointers, 243, and had the best percentage on the long shots, 30.8.

Connie Hawkins led the league in scoring with a 26.8 average, was second in rebounding with 13.5 and fourth in assists with 4.5. Tom Washington of Pittsburgh led the league by hitting 52.2 per cent of his shots and Hawkins was second. Chico Vaughan was third in three-pointer percentage.

AB McDONALD of Pittsburgh Penguins was named to the National Hockey League western division all-star team. McDonald, a left-winger, scored 43 points during the season.

Campbell Makes Fine Catch, DP

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Clutch pitching by Mike Piatt and a fine fielding play by catcher Rex Campbell gave Beaver Local a 4-3 win over Springfield in the Beavers' Buckeye Border Conference baseball opener yesterday at Beaver Local.

The Tigers, trailing 4-2 going into the seventh and last inning, almost pulled the game out, but fell short as Piatt rose to the occasion in a thrilling finish.

Jim Elliot led off the inning with a single and took third when thirdbaseman Bob Flint threw wild, trying for a doubleplay on a grounder by Tom Culp. Jim Booth hit a long drive to left, and it appeared that Springfield was back in the ball game. Both runners scored, though Booth was out at home trying to stretch his hit. But the ball had bounced over the road, and was ruled a ground rule double, with Culp, representing the tying run, having to go back to third.

Now came Campbell's gem. Mark Merrin raised a high foul behind the bleachers on the first base line. Campbell circled behind the stands and made a fine catch. Culp tagged up and attempted to score, but Campbell threw to Piatt covering home and Culp was tagged out.

Piatt still was in trouble, as he walked Rick Sponhaltz, representing the potential winning run. But Piatt fanned pitching opponent Bruce Mallernee to end the contest.

Both pitchers pitched well, but were the victims of shaky support. Springfield made four errors and the Beavers three, and some of the hits were tainted.

Lloyd Stockdale's club took the lead in the second when Lew Brown singled, stole second and came all the way around to score on two bad throws. Gary Klembara led off the third with a double and Piatt singled. Dan Myers walked to load the bases, Campbell singled home one run and Dennis Klembara plated another with a sacrifice fly. The Beavers scored their final tally in the fourth on two errors and a walk.

Piatt was coasting along on a one-hitter until the sixth. Singles by Booth and Sponhaltz and a walk to Mallernee loaded the bases with one out. Piatt fanned Steve Nowalk, but Don Rowe dropped a fly in front of left fielder Scott Dubberly and two runs scored.

The Beavers are now 3-1 overall and Piatt is 2-0. Springfield is 1-1, both in conference play.

Potter Nine To Play Home

East Liverpool will play its first home baseball game of the season this afternoon.

South Side Beaver will provide the opposition. The Rams are 3-2, the Potters 4-0. The game will be played at the Colt League Field off St. Clair Ave. Starting time will be between 4 and 4:15.

South Side Rally Edges Burgettstown

A two-out rally in the last inning gave South Side a 2-1 win over Burgettstown at South Side yesterday.

Ron Peden singled, stole second and scored on a hit by Greg Butcher. Tom Doak was the winning pitcher, pitching a two-hitter. The Rams are now 3-2 on the year.

Hawks Beat Rangers, Win Semi-Final Series

By The Associated Press

Chicago Black Hawk Coach Billy Reay, who finished a winner, spoke about his penalty killers and defenseman Doug Jarrett's good game. New York Ranger Coach Emile Francis, a loser, was left with only philosophy.

The Hawks' 4-1 victory over the Rangers Tuesday night completed a remarkable four-game comeback. New York had taken a two-game lead in their National Hockey League Stanley Cup semifinal series and seemed all but certain to make it past the first playoff round for the first time since 1950.

Reay gave full credit to his team of penalty killers — Eric Nesterenko, Chico Maki, Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita — who successfully kept the Rangers away from the net three times in the second period with the score tied 1-1.

"Give those penalty killers credit for keeping us in the game in that second period," said Reay, "and add to it that Doug Jarrett played his best game of the year for us."

Francis also gave credit to Hull and to Chicago's Dennis DeJordy, but kept ranging back to Bob Schmautz' goal in the fifth game of the series Sunday that beat the Rangers 2-1.

"That goal really killed us," said Francis. "We outplayed them in that game and I thought we should have won it. It's funny — sometimes it's better to be lucky than good."

In the other NHL Stanley Cup playoffs, Minnesota beat Los Angeles 4-3 in an overtime period to tie their best-of-7 series at three games apiece and Philadelphia edged St. Louis 2-1 in two overtimes, knotting that West Division semifinals at three games each.

The Black Hawks meet Montreal in the first game of the East Division finals at Montreal Thursday night. The Canadiens won their series four straight from Boston.

Jarrett scored first against the Rangers, who hadn't lost four games in a row all season, but Rod Gilbert tied it up with a goal early in the second period.

With 35 seconds left in the period, Maki took a sharp pass from Hull and put the Hawks ahead for good. Pit Martin and Mikita scored in the final period to ice the game.

Milan Marcetta knocked in a shot at 9:11 of the overtime to give Minnesota its series-tying victory over Los Angeles. The final game will be played Thursday night at Los Angeles.

Glenn Hall slipped making a save on an easy shot by Don Blackburn and Philadelphia beat St. Louis 2-1 at 11:18 of the second overtime period to deadlock that series. The final game will be played in Philadelphia Thursday.

Freedom 9 Wins 9-0 Over Western

Visiting Freedom took advantage of 11 Western Beaver errors, including six in the third inning, to post a 9-0 shutout Tuesday.

Freedom piled up seven runs in the third inning on just one hit but Western Beaver committed six errors and gave up four walks.

The winners only scored two earned runs and those came in the seventh inning.

Freedom's starting pitcher Waugh allowed Western only two hits and struck out 12 batters while giving up only one walk.

Eli Rakas was the starting pitcher for Western and was the victim of the error ridden third inning. Rick Turyan relieved Rakas in the fourth and Don Traylor hurled the final frame.

Western takes a 1-3 record into Friday's game with New Brighton on the Western diamond.

Pirate Pitching Pleasing

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Who would have thought that the good-hit, bad-pitching Pittsburgh Pirates suddenly would become the good-pitch, no-hit Pirates?

Not even manager Larry Shepard, that's who, although he claims the brilliant Pittsburgh pitching of the first five games has been no great surprise.

"It's been great, just great," said Shepard, delighted with a pitching staff that yielded only 27 hits in five games going into today's home opener against Houston.

Still, the Pirates managed to lose two of those five games after carrying two-run leads into the ninth, mainly because their feared batters haven't had many hits themselves. Roberto Clemente, the 1967 National League batting king, carried a .200 average into the home opener, for example. Gene Alley and Willie Stargell were below that.

"I'm not too happy yet with our hitting," said Shepard, stating the obvious. "But I expect that to come around."

Shepard also said the pitching was not just a spring fluke.

"It's indicative of what it's going to be like all year," he said.

Vic Davalillo broke in as a pitcher and once won 16 games in a season in the minors.

Cokes Wins With TKO

DALLAS (AP) — Curtis Cokes used Willie Ludick's unorthodox style to his advantage and beat the South African steel fitter on a fifth-round technical knockout in the fourth defense of his world's welterweight boxing championship Tuesday night.

Then he said he would take a rest until about June and also that he didn't have anybody in mind at this time for another title fight.

Percy Pugh of New Orleans, rated No. 2 by the World Boxing Association, was here to challenge Cokes.

But Doug Lord, Cokes' manager, said promoter Lou Messina of New Orleans would not give him a guarantee of $30,000.

"Messina said a title fight at New Orleans would draw $75,000 but he would offer only 40 per cent," said Lord.

"The time we fought at New Orleans—when Cokes won the welterweight title in 1966—the gate was only $23,000. That wouldn't give Cokes enough money to put his title on the line."

Ludick, a 26-year-old brawler, had little chance with the sharp-punching Cokes, who started out with his familiar counter-punching with his left.

But the left-handed Ludick presented a perfect target for Cokes' right. The champion used his right more than any time in his career and it was a steaming right in the fifth that put Ludick on the downward trail.

Ludick took the automatic eight-count at the insistance of referee Lew Eskin, but he still was groggy when Cokes was at him with lefts and rights that battered him into the ropes. Eskin stopped the scheduled 15-round fight at 34 seconds of the fifth round.

Cokes opened a cut over Ludick's right eye with one of his lightning lefts in the second round and the South African bled the rest of the way. Cokes also opened another cut just below the first cut and cracked the skin by the side of Ludick's nose. Ludick also had a cut on top of his head.

The champion was without a blemish and said "he never did hurt me and I can't recall but a couples of left-hand shots that even stung."

Cokes led by a wide margin in the four rounds. The judges and referee had it 40-35, 40-36 and 40-35 and The Associated Press scored it 40-36 under the 10-point must system.

Cokes, who will be 31 years old in June, has been campaigning 11 years and his record now reads 53 victories, eight losses and two draws.

Ludick had a record of 27 victories and two losses, both on cuts, coming into the ring Tuesday night. He has been fighting for six years.

The fight drew the all-time high in money for Dallas fights. Norm Levinson, co-promoter, said there was a crowd of more than 6,000 paying over $52,000 and that there would be more than $20,000 from television.

OGILVIE'S

To Honor McConnell

East Liverpool High School basketball coach Clint McConnell and two of his players from the 1967-68 squad will be honored at the 14th annual All-Eastern Ohio basketball banquet Monday night in Martins Ferry.

An area cager selected to the Class A team is Stanton senior Randy Frampton.

Potter cagers named to the Class AA squad are center Jerty Christian, a junior, and guard Earl Diddle, a senior.

McConnell is the recipient of the second annual Martins Ferry Times-Leader's Eastern Ohio Class AA coach-of-the-year award and will also receive a trophy at the banquet. He was selected by vote of his fellow coaches.

The 6-4 Christian was his team's second - leading scorer and did yeoman work under the boards in helping the Potters to a splendid 19-2 record this season. He tallied 252 points.

Diddle was a dangerous outside threat for the Ceramists and wound up the season as the team's leading point-maker with 285.

The red-haired Frampton, a deadly shot from the corner, helped the slow-starting Red Raiders to several big tournament victories before they were spilled in the sectional co-final by powerful Mt. Pleasant. Frampton scored 395 points in 21 games.

McConnell was a runaway winner in the balloting for the top "AA" coach in a five-county area.

This was his second season at East Liverpool and he now boasts the best all-time winning record for a Potter coach at 36-8. In 10 years of coaching, McConnell has compiled a sparkling 153-51 mark. He previously coached at John Glenn High in New Concord and at Ashtabula Edgewood.

The All-Eastern Ohio banquet is co-sponsored by the Times-Leader and the Eastern Ohio Association of Booster Clubs. The fete will be held at St. Mary's School Auditorium and will feature Bill Musselman, head coach at Ashland College, as principal speaker. Tickets will be available at the door.

Joining Christian and Diddle on the AA team are Allan Hornyak of Bellaire St. John's, Dave Reasbeck and Floyd Malatesta of Martins Ferry, Ray Szypulski and Dave Suba of Steubenville Central, Jim Smith and Lavert Freeman of Steubenville, Dave Grimes of Barnesville and Dave Hays of St. Clairsville.

Robertson Has Surgery For Kidney

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bob Robertson, a Pittsburgh Pirate farmhand who plays the infield, underwent kidney surgery at Presbyterian - University Hospital Tuesday.

The Pirates said Robertson had a blocked kidney and was reported doing fine after surgery. The club said it had no idea how long he will be sidelined.

Robertson, primarily a third baseman, played for Columbus in the International League last season and appeared in nine games for the Pirates.

He was with the Pirates during spring training this year, but was sent to the team's Daytona Beach, Fla., minor league camp for reassignment before the kidney ailment made surgery necessary.

Hawks Beat Rangers, Win Semi-Final Series

By The Associated Press

Chicago Black Hawk Coach Billy Reay, who finished a winner, spoke about his penalty killers and defenseman Doug Jarrett's good game. New York Ranger Coach Emile Francis, a loser, was left with only philosophy.

The Hawks' 4-1 victory over the Rangers Tuesday night completed a remarkable four-game comeback. New York had taken a two-game lead in their National Hockey League Stanley Cup semifinal series and seemed all but certain to make it past the first playoff round for the first time since 1950.

Reay gave full credit to his team of penalty killers — Eric Nesterenko, Chico Maki, Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita — who successfully kept the Rangers away from the net three times in the second period with the score tied 1-1.

"Give those penalty killers credit for keeping us in the game in that second period," said Reay, "and add to it that Doug Jarrett played his best game of the year for us."

Francis also gave credit to Hull and to Chicago's Dennis DeJordy, but kept ranging back to Bob Schmautz' goal in the fifth game of the series Sunday that beat the Rangers 2-1.

"That goal really killed us," said Francis. "We outplayed them in that game and I thought we should have won it. It's funny — sometimes it's better to be lucky than good."

In the other NHL Stanley Cup playoffs, Minnesota beat Los Angeles 4-3 in an overtime period to tie their best-of-7 series at three games apiece and Philadelphia edged St. Louis 2-1 in two overtimes, knotting that West Division semifinals at three games each.

The Black Hawks meet Montreal in the first game of the East Division finals at Montreal Thursday night. The Canadiens won their series four straight from Boston.

Jarrett scored first against the Rangers, who hadn't lost four games in a row all season, but Rod Gilbert tied it up with a goal early in the second period.

With 35 seconds left in the period, Maki took a sharp pass from Hull and put the Hawks ahead for good. Pit Martin and Mikita scored in the final period to ice the game.

Milan Marcetta knocked in a shot at 9:11 of the overtime to give Minnesota its series-tying victory over Los Angeles. The final game will be played Thursday night at Los Angeles.

Glenn Hall slipped making a save on an easy shot by Don Blackburn and Philadelphia beat St. Louis 2-1 at 11:18 of the second overtime period to deadlock that series. The final game will be played in Philadelphia Thursday.

Freedom 9 Wins 9-0 Over Western

Visiting Freedom took advantage of 11 Western Beaver errors, including six in the third inning, to post a 9-0 shutout Tuesday.

Freedom piled up seven runs in the third inning on just one hit but Western Beaver committed six errors and gave up four walks.

The winners only scored two earned runs and those came in the seventh inning.

Freedom's starting pitcher Waugh allowed Western only two hits and struck out 12 batters while giving up only one walk.

Eli Rakas was the starting pitcher for Western and was the victim of the error ridden third inning. Rick Turyan relieved Rakas in the fourth and Don Traylor hurled the final frame.

Western takes a 1-3 record into Friday's game with New Brighton on the Western diamond.

Pirate Pitching Pleasing

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Who would have thought that the good-hit, bad-pitching Pittsburgh Pirates suddenly would become the good-pitch, no-hit Pirates?

Not even manager Larry Shepard, that's who, although he claims the brilliant Pittsburgh pitching of the first five games has been no great surprise.

"It's been great, just great," said Shepard, delighted with a pitching staff that yielded only 27 hits in five games going into today's home opener against Houston.

Still, the Pirates managed to lose two of those five games after carrying two-run leads into the ninth, mainly because their feared batters haven't had many hits themselves. Roberto Clemente, the 1967 National League batting king, carried a .200 average into the home opener, for example. Gene Alley and Willie Stargell were below that.

"I'm not too happy yet with our hitting," said Shepard, stating the obvious. "But I expect that to come around."

Shepard also said the pitching was not just a spring fluke.

"It's indicative of what it's going to be like all year," he said.

Vic Davalillo broke in as a pitcher and once won 16 games in a season in the minors.

LIMBO. Willie Ludick appears to be trying to get under a limbo stick, but is actually falling to the canvas after a punch by welterweight champion Curtis Cokes in their fight at Dallas last night. Cokes retained his title on a fifth round TKO. (UPI Telephoto)

Cokes Wins With TKO

DALLAS (AP) — Curtis Cokes used Willie Ludick's unorthodox style to his advantage and beat the South African steel fitter on a fifth-round technical knockout in the fourth defense of his world's welterweight boxing championship Tuesday night.

Then he said he would take a rest until about June and also that he didn't have anybody in mind at this time for another title fight.

Percy Pugh of New Orleans, rated No. 2 by the World Boxing Association, was here to challenge Cokes.

But Doug Lord, Cokes' manager, said promoter Lou Messina of New Orleans would not give him a guarantee of $30,000.

"Messina said a title fight at New Orleans would draw $75,000 but he would offer only 40 per cent," said Lord.

"The time we fought at New Orleans—when Cokes won the welterweight title in 1966—the gate was only $23,000. That wouldn't give Cokes enough money to put his title on the line."

Ludick, a 26-year-old brawler, had little chance with the sharp-punching Cokes, who started out with his familiar counter-punching with his left.

But the left-handed Ludick presented a perfect target for Cokes' right. The champion used his right more than any time in his career and it was a steaming right in the fifth that put Ludick on the downward trail.

Ludick took the automatic eight-count at the insistance of referee Lew Eskin, but he still was groggy when Cokes was at him with lefts and rights that battered him into the ropes. Eskin stopped the scheduled 15-round fight at 34 seconds of the fifth round.

Cokes opened a cut over Ludick's right eye with one of his lightning lefts in the second round and the South African bled the rest of the way. Cokes also opened another cut just below the first cut and cracked the skin by the side of Ludick's nose. Ludick also had a cut on top of his head.

The champion was without a blemish and said "he never did hurt me and I can't recall but a couples of left-hand shots that even stung."

Cokes led by a wide margin in the four rounds. The judges and referee had it 40-35, 40-36 and 40-35 and The Associated Press scored it 40-36 under the 10-point must system.

Cokes, who will be 31 years old in June, has been campaigning 11 years and his record now reads 53 victories, eight losses and two draws.

Ludick had a record of 27 victories and two losses, both on cuts, coming into the ring Tuesday night. He has been fighting for six years.

The fight drew the all-time high in money for Dallas fights. Norm Levinson, co-promoter, said there was a crowd of more than 6,000 paying over $52,000 and that there would be more than $20,000 from television.

Lisbon Nips Beaver Local Golf Team

Lisbon edged Beaver Local in golf 3-2 at the East Liverpool Country Club yesterday.

The win was the first against one loss for Lisbon, while Beaver Local is 0-3-1. Rick Metz of the Beavers was medalist with 43, and Terry Apple of Lisbon shot a 44. John Weber had a 47 to 46 by Rodger Crowe of the Blue Devils, while Bob Eardley of the Beavers and Bob Hartman each shot 48. Mike Lord of the losers skied to a 63.

OGILVIE'S

To Honor McConnell

East Liverpool High School basketball coach Clint McConnell and two of his players from the 1967-68 squad will be honored at the 14th annual All-Eastern Ohio basketball banquet Monday night in Martins Ferry.

An area cager selected to the Class A team is Stanton senior Randy Frampton.

Potter cagers named to the Class AA squad are center Jerty Christian, a junior, and guard Earl Diddle, a senior.

McConnell is the recipient of the second annual Martins Ferry Times-Leader's Eastern Ohio Class AA coach-of-the-year award and will also receive a trophy at the banquet. He was selected by vote of his fellow coaches.

The 6-4 Christian was his team's second - leading scorer and did yeoman work under the boards in helping the Potters to a splendid 19-2 record this season. He tallied 252 points.

Diddle was a dangerous outside threat for the Ceramists and wound up the season as the team's leading point-maker with 285.

The red-haired Frampton, a deadly shot from the corner, helped the slow-starting Red Raiders to several big tournament victories before they were spilled in the sectional co-final by powerful Mt. Pleasant. Frampton scored 395 points in 21 games.

McConnell was a runaway winner in the balloting for the top "AA" coach in a five-county area.

This was his second season at East Liverpool and he now boasts the best all-time winning record for a Potter coach at 36-8. In 10 years of coaching, McConnell has compiled a sparkling 153-51 mark. He previously coached at John Glenn High in New Concord and at Ashtabula Edgewood.

The All-Eastern Ohio banquet is co-sponsored by the Times-Leader and the Eastern Ohio Association of Booster Clubs. The fete will be held at St. Mary's School Auditorium and will feature Bill Musselman, head coach at Ashland College, as principal speaker. Tickets will be available at the door.

Joining Christian and Diddle on the AA team are Allan Hornyak of Bellaire St. John's, Dave Reasbeck and Floyd Malatesta of Martins Ferry, Ray Szypulski and Dave Suba of Steubenville Central, Jim Smith and Lavert Freeman of Steubenville, Dave Grimes of Barnesville and Dave Hays of St. Clairsville.

Robertson Has Surgery For Kidney

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bob Robertson, a Pittsburgh Pirate farmhand who plays the infield, underwent kidney surgery at Presbyterian - University Hospital Tuesday.

The Pirates said Robertson had a blocked kidney and was reported doing fine after surgery. The club said it had no idea how long he will be sidelined.

Robertson, primarily a third baseman, played for Columbus in the International League last season and appeared in nine games for the Pirates.

He was with the Pirates during spring training this year, but was sent to the team's Daytona Beach, Fla., minor league camp for reassignment before the kidney ailment made surgery necessary.

Baseball Snubs Lady Umpire

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Bernice Gera, the Long Island housewife who wants to add a little sex to the national pastime, said today she is suing organized baseball for the right to be a lady umpire.

"I have retained a lawyer and we are taking our case to the courts," the thirtyish matron from Jackson Heights, N.Y., announced. "The commioner (Gen. William D. Eckert) refuses even to let me make out an application."

Bernice's lawyer is Mario Biaggi of New York, who said he intends to bring the case first before the State Commission on Human Rights.

"We probably will file under section 296, paragraph six, that deals with discrimination, including sex," Biaggi explained.

"Mrs. Gera has been thwarted and wronged at every turn. She has written to all the proper authorities, taken the necessary steps and received nothing but rebuffs."

Mrs. Gera, wife of a free-lance photographer, graduated magna cum laude from an umpires school last year in West Palm Beach, Fla., the only woman enrolled, and later umpired the National Baseball Congress in Wichita, Kan.

"I didn't have too much trouble," Bernice explained. "The chest protector didn't fit very well—those things aren't made for women. And the players tried to give me a hard time."

Eckert's office acknowledged that correspondence had been received from Mrs. Gera but a spokesman said: "It is a matter up to the league presidents and Ed Doherty in Columbus, who is in charge of umpires' development."

"I'll take it to the Supreme Court if necessary," Bernice said. "It's a violation of the Constitution."

Mrs. Gera said that umpiring is strictly a matter of judgment —not of strength or physical prowess—and a woman can exercise this judgment as well as a man.

Oakland A's In Opener At Home

OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland Athletics, tied for third in the American League, get their first look at their new home, the Coliseum, before a sellout crowd of 50,000 tonight.

Gov. Ronald Reagan will be there. And a host of civic and baseball officials, including William Eckert, baseball commissioner, and Joe Cronin, president of the American League.

So will Charlie O, the pure white mule mascot, resplendent in the A's colors—gold, green and white-and a private trailer equipped with stereo and air conditioning.

So will A's owner, Charles O. Finley and Mrs. Finley, and their seven children, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar A. Finley of Laporte, Ind.

There will be the 115-piece University of California marching band.

Tennessee Ernie Ford will sing the National Anthem.

Finally, there will be the Baltimore Orioles, world champions of 1966. They spoiled the A's first game ever in Oakland uniforms in the AL opener last week in Baltimore.

The A's will send right-hander Lew Krause, 7-17 last season, against Oriole left-hander Dave McNally, 7-7.

Marge Burns Advances At Pinehurst

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP) — Most of the favorites, including medalist Marge Burns, were still in contention today for the second round of the North and South Amateur Invitational for women.

The Greensboro veteran easily defeated Margaret Harmon of Shelbyville, Tenn., 5 and 4, in Tuesday's match play at the Pinehurst Country Club's No. 2 course.

Pairings were scheduled for today this morning's second round.

Maury Wills has stolen at least 104 bases every year since 1960.

Mt. Holly Bowlers Take ABC Lead

CINCINNATI (AP) — New division leaders emerged Tuesday in the 60th day of the American Bowling Congress Tournament.

Dave's Auto Supply of Mt. Holly, N.J., rolled a 3,094 series in the regular team division to take first place, ending the one-day reign of Food Fair stores of Philadelphia, which totaled 3,084.

The quintet had games of 1,024, 1,005 and 1,065 with 83 strikes and 14 splits in the series. Each man had a 600 series. Dan Spadea led his mates with a 633.

In earlier action, Vince Mazzanit of Philadelphia amassed a nine-game total of 1,971 to take first place in the regular all events. Mazzanti, a 40-year-old barber, had a 723 series Monday, then came back Tuesday with 600 in doubles and 639 in singles to topple Ronnie Moore of Louisville, who totaled 1,952 April 4.

Moore and his doubles partner, Jim Ewald, were knocked into second place in regular doubles by the Glenwood Springs, Colo. duo of Rich Stark and Walt Roy, who totaled 1,325.

Milton Dalgo Rides Triple At Waterford

Milton Dalgo, leading rider at the Waterford Park meeting, went on a riding rampage last night before a ladies night gathering of 3,000.

The veteran rode the winners of the first three races before having had his string stoppd when he finished out of the money aboard Native Colony in the fifth race. He had one other mount, Duc L in the seventh, which also was out of the money.

Dalgo's three winners included the daily double of 1-8 in the first two races which paid $13.20, the shortest of the meeting. The winning horses were Social Snif in the first and Marsuelin in the second. Buckeye Duc was his winning mount in the third.

Dalgo's riding triple was somewhat overshadowed by the fourth race perfecta which paid a whopping $381.80 after Hard Labor at $60.20 won and Out Of Sorts ($6.20) finished second. The winning combination was 8 and 4. Dalgo did not have a mount in the fourth race.

As a result of his triple Tuesday night Dalgo took a long lead for the jockey title for the spring meeting which concludes on Saturday, June 1. He now has booted 42 winners home, five more than Bill Sollars, who is in second place.

Gilligan Sees Movie, Hopes It Helps Him Win

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cincinnati Councilman John J. Gilligan went to the movies Tuesday to see a preview of a 30-minute film which he hopes can win him the Democratic senatorial nomination.

The film, "Against All Odds," will be telecast across Ohio before the May 7 primary.

Gilligan is opposing U.S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche for the Democratic nomination.

The film shows Gilligan on the job as a U.S. Representative in 1965 and 1966 and then as city councilman.

Later Gilligan told 600 labor union members at a dinner that "Frank Lausche and his right-wing supporters are panicked."

"He's so scared he won't even call off his stooges who are encouraging Republicans to perjure themselves to vote for him in the Democratic primary," Gilligan added.

He said Ohio must have a senator "who looks to the future not the past, and I want to be that senator. Will you help me?"

Newell Driver Cited Following Accident

A 20-year-old Newell driver was cited by Hancock County deputies after his vehicle ripped out 11 guard posts at 1:45 a. m. today on the 6th St. hill road in Newell.

Larry William Gadd of 34 Elm St., told deputies he was on his way home and was unable to make a turn. His 1961 vehicle was a total loss, with damage estimated at $600. The guard posts were valued at $125.

Gadd, charged with failure to have his vehicle under control, will be given a hearing April 24 before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

Baseball Snubs Lady Umpire

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Bernice Gera, the Long Island housewife who wants to add a little sex to the nationai pastime, said today she is suing organized baseball for the right to be a lady umpire.

"I have retained a lawyer and we are taking our case to the courts," the thirtyish matron from Jackson Heights, N.Y., announced. "The commioner (Gen. William D. Eckert) refuses even to let me make out an application."

Bernice's lawyer is Mario Biaggi of New York, who said he intends to bring the case first before the State Commission on Human Rights.

"We probably will file under section 296, paragraph six, that deals with discrimination, including sex," Biaggi explained.

"Mrs. Gera has been thwarted and wronged at every turn. She has written to all the proper authorities, taken the necessary steps and received nothing but rebuffs."

Mrs. Gera, wife of a freelance photographer, graduated magna cum laude from an umpires school last year in West Palm Beach, Fla., the only woman enrolled, and later umpired the National Baseball Congress in Wichita, Kan.

"I didn't have too much trouble," Bernice explained. "The chest protector didn't fit very well—those things aren't made for women. And the players tried to give me a hard time."

Eckert's office acknowledged that correspondence had been received from Mrs. Gera but a spokesman said: "It is a matter up to the league presidents and Ed Doherty in Columbus, who is in charge of umpires' development."

"I'll take it to the Supreme Court if necessary," Bernice said. "It's a violation of the Constitution."

Mrs. Gera said that umpiring is strictly a matter of judgment —not of strength or physical prowess—and a woman can exercise this judgment as well as a man.

Oakland A's In Opener At Home

OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland Athletics, tied for third in the American League, get their first look at their new home, the Coliseum, before a sellout crowd of 50,000 tonight.

Gov. Ronald Reagan will be there. And a host of civic and baseball officials, including William Eckert, baseball commisioner, and Joe Cronin, president of the American League.

So will Charlie O, the pure white mule mascot, resplendent in the A's colors—gold, green and white-and a private trailer equipped with stereo and air conditioning.

So will A's owner, Charles O. Finley and Mrs. Finley, and their seven children, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar A. Finley of Laporte, Ind.

There will be the 115-piece University of California marching band.

Tennessee Ernie Ford will sing the National Anthem.

Finally, there will be the Baltimore Orioles, world champions of 1966. They spoiled the A's first game ever in Oakland uniforms in the AL opener last week in Baltimore.

The A's will send right-hander Lew Krause, 7-17 last season, against Oriole left-hander Dave McNally, 7-7.

Marge Burns Advances At Pinehurst

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP) — Most of the favorites, including medalist Marge Burns, were still in contention today for the second round of the North and South Amateur Invitational for women.

The Greensboro veteran easily defeated Margaret Harmon of Shelbyville, Tenn., 5 and 4, in Tuesday's match play at the Pinehurst Country Club's No. 2 course.

Quarterfinals were scheduled to follow this morning's second round.

Hank Aaron has stolen at least 15 bases every year since 1960.

Mt. Holly Bowlers Take ABC Lead

CINCINNATI (AP) — New division leaders emerged Tuesday in the 60th day of the American Bowling Congress Tournament.

Dave's Auto Supply of Mt. Holly, N.J., rolled a 3,084 series in the regular team division to take first place, ending the one-day reign of Food Fair stores of Philadelphia, which totaled 3,064.

The quintet had games of 1,024, 1,005 and 1,005 with 83 strikes and 14 splits in the series. Each man had a 600 series. Dan Spadea led his mates with a 633.

In earlier action, Vince Mazzanit of Philadelphia amassed a nine-game total of 1,971 to take first place in the regular all events. Mazzanti, a 40-year-old barber, had a 723 series Monday, then came back Tuesday with 600 in doubles and 639 in singles to topple Ronnie Moore of Louisville, who totaled 1,952 April 4.

Moore and his doubles partner, Jim Ewald, were knocked into second place in regular doubles by the Glenwood Springs, Colo. duo of Rich Stark and Walt Roy, who totaled 1,325.

Milton Dalgo Rides Triple At Waterford

Milton Dalgo, leading rider at the Waterford Park meeting, went on a riding rampage last night before a ladies night gathering of 3,000.

The veteran rode the winners of the first three races before having had his string stoppd when he finished out of the money aboard Native Colony in the fifth race. He had one other mount, Duc L in the seventh, which also was out of the money.

Dalgo's three winners included the daily double of 1-8 in the first two races which paid $13.20, the shortest of the meeting. The winning horses were Social Snif in the first and Marsuelin in the second. Buckeye Duc was his winning mount in the third.

Dalgo's riding triple was somewhat overshadowed by the fourth race perfecta which paid a whopping $381.80 after Hard Labor at $60.20 won and Out Of Sorts ($6.20) finished second. The winning combination was 8 and 4. Dalgo did not have a mount in the fourth race.

As a result of his triple Tuesday night Dalgo took a long lead for the jockey title for the spring meeting which concludes on Saturday, June 1. He now has booted 42 winners home, five more than Bill Sollars, who is in second place.

Gilligan Sees Movie, Hopes It Helps Him Win

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cincinnati Councilman John J. Gilligan went to the movies Tuesday to see a preview of a 30-minute film which he hopes can win him the Democratic senatorial nomination.

The film, "Against All Odds," will be telecast across Ohio before the May 7 primary.

Gilligan is opposing U.S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche for the Democratic nomination.

The film shows Gilligan on the job as a U.S. Representative in 1965 and 1966 and then as city councilman.

Later Gilligan told 600 labor union members at a dinner that "Frank Lausche and his right-wing supporters are panicked."

"He's so scared he won't even call off his stooges who are encouraging Republicans to perjure themselves to vote for him in the Democratic primary," Gilligan added.

He said Ohio must have a senator "who looks to the future not the past, and I want to be that senator. Will you help me?"

Newell Driver Cited Following Accident

A 20-year-old Newell driver was cited by Hancock County deputies after his vehicle ripped out 11 guard posts at 1:45 a. m. today on the 6th St. hill road in Newell.

Larry William Gadd of 34 Elm St., told deputies he was on his way home and was unable to make a turn. His 1961 vehicle was a total loss, with damage estimated at $600. The guard posts were valued at $125.

Gadd, charged with failure to have his vehicle under control, will be given a hearing April 24 before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

ANN LANDERS

The 'Fortune Teller' Bit

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: That letter from Mervyn, the big sport who won a trip to London as first prize in a sales contest, made me laugh. It seems his girl was disappointed when he brought her a clump of dirt from the British airport and called it a "gift."

I laughed, Ann, because it reminded me of a little game we used to play when we were kids. It's too bad the girl didn't know about the game because it would have been an appropriate way to thank Mervyn for his "generosity."

When a new kid moved into our neighborhood we'd welcome him warmly and offer to tell his fortune. The fortune teller would wrap a dish towel around his head and use an old bowl as the crystal ball.

The newcomer would extend his hand and the fortune teller would put a clump of dirt in his palm and say, "You're going to inherit a valuable piece of real estate. It's a beautiful lot in the best part of town. You'll build a 15-room house on the lot. It will be the prettiest home in the city."

Then the fortune teller would reach under his chair where he had a small glass of water handy and pour a little water into the newcomer's hand — enough to make a nice muddy mess und say, "I see you're also going to have a swimming pool. Aren't you the lucky one!"

This was considered the best way to test a newcomer. If he laughed and took it well he was accepted as okay. Thanks for bringing back a childhood memory. — EX-FORTUNE TELLER.

Dear Ex: Funny you should have brought up that little game. Someone tried it on me when I was 8. I remember clearly that I thanked the fortune teller profusely and paid him for his reading by insisting that he share my real estate and swimming pool. He got half of it back — right in the kisser.

Risky Business

Dear Ann: My husband's brother and his wife are creating a serious problem in our family and I need your help. They drive a very old car and it always has something wrong with it. Our car is not new but it's in excellent condition because we keep it that way.

At least twice a week they ask if they can borrow our car. My brother-in-law is a poor driver and has been in several minor accidents. Yesterday he returned our car with a broken taillight, an empty gas tank and a mysterious dent in the fender.

Yet my husband insists we must let them take our car whenever they ask. He says he'd never forgive himself if they were killed because the brakes conked out on their car or a tire blew. He claims we'd be directly responsible. Also he says he does not want them to be mad at us.

I'd like to hear your views. — MARRIED TO A CHUMP.

Dear Married: In a situation like this, somebody is bound to be mad. Let it be them.

If your brother-in-law is such a ding-a-ling that he'd drive a beat up pile of junk with faulty brakes, whatever happens is HIS responsibility.

When you lend your car to a friend in an emergency you're a "nice guy," but when you lend it to a relative who doesn't have the decency to return it with some gas in the tank, you're a chump.

Confidentially

To Disappointed in You: Sorry, you said you wanted my opinion and I gave it. What you really wanted was someone to back you up. I couldn't do it because I don't believe in emotional blackmail.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

U.S. Firm Wins Bid To Buy London Bridge

LONDON (AP) — London Bridge is finally falling down—and the Americans are picking up the pieces.

The City of London Corporation announced the sale of the bridge to an American bidder Tuesday night and said the purchaser would be revealed later this week.

In Lake Havasu City, Ariz., a spokesman for the McCulloch Corp., a bidder for the bridge, said a news conference was called to announce that the firm won the bid.

But the spokesman, Frederick Schumacher, director of McCulloch's Lake Havasu City development, said, "If we don't win the bid, we'll just all have breakfast" at the news conference.

The price was estimated unofficially at $2.4 million. Schumacher said it would cost about $240,000 to ship the 10,000 tons of granite to Arizona.

McCulloch planned to rebuild the bridge at Lake Havasu City, a resort on the Colorado River.

The 136-year-old bridge joins the liners Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth and sundry churches and castles on the transatlantic journey.

"How much for Buckingham Palace?" quipped one Briton of the monument drain.

A London Bridge has spanned the Thames in one form or another since Roman times 2,000 years ago. It has been falling down for centuries in the popular nursery rhyme.

The present bridge, built in 1831 and one of 12 across the Thames in London, is too narrow for today's heavy traffic. A wider bridge will replace it.

Crucible Chorus To Be Presented

Plans were made to sponsor a concert by the Crucible Chorus April 28 when Mary Martha Circle of the Yellow Creek United Presbyterian Church met in the home of Miss Elvada Marshall and Miss Gladys Clark Monday evening.

Devotions entitled "Prayers of Intercession" were presented by Mrs. Kate Joy. The Bible study was led by Mrs. Alice Faloon, with various members participating.

Mrs. James McCollam, circle leader, presided during the business session. Refreshments were served to 12 members and a guest.

The next meeting will be Saturday at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Joy.

Club At Wellsville Sets Prayer Breakfast Plans

Final preparations were made for the annual Prayer Breakfast, plans for a talk by Jack Levi Kimball were discussed and the Dollars for Scholars program was reviewed when the Wellsville Kiwanis Club met Tuesday.

The breakfast will be April 27 at 7 a. m. in the First Methodist Church.

The program will feature a talk by Mayor Burton Ward of Chester and entertainment by Donald Lowe and his wife. Robert Mellinger will be master of ceremonies.

The breakfast is open to the public and tickets may be purchased from William Bush, Joe Hall or any other member of the club, Harold Reed, president, announed.

Kimball, deputy director of Division 11 of the Ohio Department of Highways at New Philadelphia will discuss the present status of the highway to be built through Wellsville during the regular meeting at Meade's Restaurant Tuesday noon, Hall, program chairman, announced.

Non - members may attend the meeting by contacting Hall, Bush or Tom Piatt for reservations, Hall said. Deadline for reservations is Saturday, he added.

During Tuesday's program, Charles Wilfing, trustee for the Wellsville Dollars for Scholars program, discussed the progress of that campaign in Wellsville.

During a question - and - answer session, he explained the objectives of the program.

Babysitter Says Doctor Made Immoral Advances To Her

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— A 17-year-old babysitter testified Tuesday that Bloomville physician Rodger D. Saylors made immoral advances to her when she stayed at his home in 1964.

The girl told a hearing being conducted by the Ohio State Medical Board she was about 14 years old at the time.

Saylors, 42, is charged with immoral conduct with female patients. He has denied the charges.

The girl, a Bloomville High School student, said she had been asked by Saylors' late wife to babysit all night at the physician's home in 1964 when the incident occurred.

Another 17-year-old girl testified she and her brother went on a houseboat trip with Saylors and his three children and the doctor gave her a pill to keep awake while "the rest he gave something to make them sleep."

The girl said Saylors would spend long hours just talking to her after the other children had gone to sleep.

An 18-year-old former patient told the hearing Saylors would examine her without having a third party present and habitually would lock the door before unbuttoning her blouse himself.

Defense attorney Daniel G. Wiles said Seneca County Sheriff Robert G. Wagner attempted to pressure high school girls into testifying Saylors was guilty of immoral conduct.

The hearing was adjourned to June 19.

Merchants Spur Plans For May Sales Clinics

Fred Palmer's "One Great Day of Selling" was discussed during a meeting Tuesday of the East Liverpool Merchants Association in the Chamber of Commerce offices.

Palmer will present his programs May 1 at the Travelers Hotel and Inn Town Motel.

A sales consultant, Palmer was trained in the General Motors sales school. He spent 25 years in sales and sales management, is the former owner of an advertising agency in Cincinnati, is a trustee at Ohio Northern University, travels 1,000 miles a week and speaks to more than 100,000 persons each year.

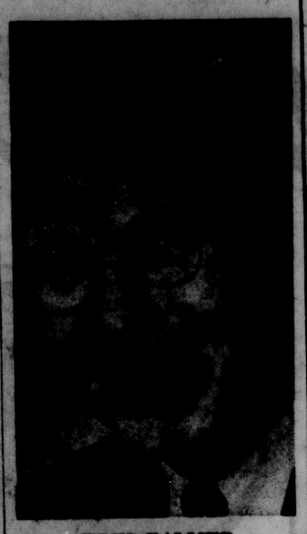
He is listed in Who's Who in Commerce and Industry and is a director of the Columbus Sales Executives Club.

The day will begin with the Retail Sales Rally at the hotel from 8 to 9 and will continue with a Sales Clinic for "Big Ticket Items" at the motel from 10 to 11:45 a. m.

Tickets for the sales rally were distributed to merchants.

—:—

A NOMINATING committee—Dayton Allen, Don Eckert and Thomas Phillips — reported on recommendations for new officers. They are: Charles Averell, chairman to succeed James Locke Jr.; Nelson Hagerty, vice chairman, and Richard B. Sant, treasurer. Sant would be a holdover. The general membership will ballot on the slate during May and the new officers will take over July 1.



FRED PALMER

Locke and Phillips reported on the progress of the pottery festival and the part the merchants' association will play. Chiefly, it will be responsible for decorating downtown stores and for providing billboards and advertising promoting the event.

Locke reported on the Child Care Center co-sponsored by the merchants and Camp Fire Girls Council during the Easter shopping season. The girls conducted a babysitting service for downtown shoppers.

Boy Arrested On Auto Theft

A routine investigation of an argument between two motorists late Tuesday afternoon led to the arrest of a 16-year-old Klondyke youth on charges he stole an auto more than two weeks ago and then disguised it with a crude paint job and a set of fictitious license plates, police reported.

The Harvey Ave. boy is accused of the theft of a 1963 model station wagon which Herman E. Potts of 315 W. 9th St. said was taken March 30 from the Carnegie Auto Sales Lot.

Patrolmen Charles Coen and James Woods were dispatched to Broadway and the River Rd. on a report of an argument between two drivers over an auto accident on April 6. Potts' car was greenish-blue and carried Ohio plates when it was reported missing. The officers found a car of the same make and model which was gray-brown on the bottom and bluish green on the top and carried Pennsylvania license tags.

The other motorist at the scene complained that the station wagon had been involved in a collision with his car April 6 and the young driver had agreed to settle for the damages, but had not. He identified both the car and the driver.

Suspicious of the car's ownership, the officers checked the serial number of the vehicle and learned it was the station wagon Potts had reported stolen. Police said the youth admitted late last night that he had stolen the car, repainted it and placed a Pennsylvania tag on it.

Officers said the youth apparently parked the auto on Broadway near River Rd. when it was not in use so that his parents did not see the vehicle and question him about the ownership. He is being held for county juvenile authorities.

Melvyn Douglas Wins Nomination For Emmy

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Decades after he starred in love stories on the screen, Melvyn Douglas is winning acclaim in television.

The 67-year-old Douglas, as the white-haired star of "Do Not Go Gentle Into That Good Night," won one of six Emmy nominations Tuesday for that dramatic special on aging.

Douglas portrayed an old man unwillingly consigned to an old folks home by his family. Supporting actor Lawrence Dobkin also was nominated. The show was also listed for honors among single dramatic programs for writing by Loren Mandel, direction by George Schaefer and electronic camera work.

"Mission: Impossible," a secret-agent adventure series, won the most nods from the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences with 11 nominations.

Included were nominations for its husband-wife costars, Barbara Bain and Martin Landau. She was a winner last year along with the show as outstanding drama series. Landau was nominated last year. Besides best series nomination, "Mission: Impossible" is listed for single-episode achievements in writing, direction, musical composition, editing, art direction and cinematography.

The golden Emmy statuettes —television's equivalent of the Oscars—will be handed out by the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences at 20th annual ceremonies May 19 in Hollywood and New York.

Frank Sinatra will emcee the Hollywood show with Dick Van Dyke heading ceremonies in New York.

The Emmy winners are chosen by secret ballots cast by what the academy calls "blue ribbon panels composed of the most accomplished individuals from television, motion pictures, the theater and the academic world." Nominations are made by the academy's 6,000 members and by craftsmen and producers.

Another special drama, "Dear Friends," dealing with marital problems, won five nominations as did "I Spy," "Bewitched," the Fred Astaire Show, and "He and She."

Split among the three networks, the nomination totals were CBS 63, NBC 56, and ABC 36.

Coverage of the Middle East war by all three networks was recognized with nominations in various categories. Seventeen news documentaries received nominations for outstanding achievement as did 20 cultural documentaries.

Nominees for individual performances included many perennial favorites—among them Bill Cosby, Robert Culp, Ben Gazzara, Barbara Stanwyck, Don Adams, Lucille Ball and Raymond Burr.

Veteran Pennsylvania Legislator To Quit

ALBION, Pa. (AP) — A veteran of 20 years in the state legislature has announced he is stepping out.

Republican Assemblyman Stanley L. Blair, whose fifth district embraces the western half of Erie and Crawford counties, said Tuesday he would decline renomination.

Blair is certain to be nominated again, since his will be the only name on the April 23 primary ballot.

"I will submit my resignation declining the nomination to the secretary of state," said Blair, who will finish out his term ending Nov. 30.

He declined to say why he was resigning other than that his reasons were "strictly personal."

"But it was something I didn't dream of before I filed for re-election," he said.

Board Discusses Funds To Meet State Standards

Some future financial problems of the East Liverpool School District were discussed informally by the board of education Monday night with various civic representatives.

Providing broadened education programs as required by new state standards will call for additional funds, board members said.

A 12-mill current expense levy will expire this year, and will be submitted for renewal.

The amount of additional funds needed to meet requirements for such revised programs as guidance, vocational education, special education, instructional equipment, library facilities and varied other improvements has not been determined fully, it was explained.

Those attending, including members of the Education Development Council and other interested residents, were asked to study proposals for meeting the state standards and to submit suggestions to the board at a May 7 meeting.

Two tables of 500 were in play, with prizes won by Mrs. Mildred McCord, Mrs. Hacel Chidester, Mrs. Florence Bab, and Mrs. Freda Lowry, a guest.

Mrs. Robert Stock also was a guest.

Mrs. Evelyn McKenzie of S. Lincoln Ave. will entertain May 20.

Victory Club Meets

Mrs. Nannie Meehan and Mrs. Lodge Thorne were guests when Mrs. Wesley Brown of Exchange St. entertained the Victory Club Monday night. Two tables of 500 were in play.

Mrs. Victor Williams and Mrs. Ollie Carnes won prizes.

The club will dine out April 29.

Lisbon Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Silverthorn of New Philadelphia spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Garrett Willis of W. Pine St.

Games From A To Z

ATLANTA — Card games played in the United States range from Accordion (a form of Solitaire) to Zioncheck (a variant of Contract Rummy).

Spanish is spoken by 140 million people in the world.

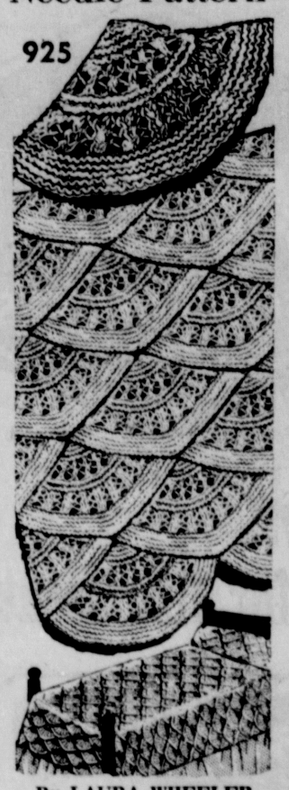
Needle Pattern



By LAURA WHEELER

Add rich texture to modern, traditional bedroom with this luxurious spread.

Jiffy - knit shells — lacy, solid bands alternate to create beautiful wave design. Pattern 925: shell medallions 6½ x 12", joining chart.

Send 50 cents in coin for this pattern to Needlecraft in care of the East Liverpool Review, 45 Pattern, P. O. Box 161, Old Chelsea Station, New York 11, N. Y. Print plainly your name, address and the pattern number.

Concert Set Friday Night At Westgate

The Westgate Junior High Band and Orchestra will present its spring concert Friday at 7:45 p. m. at Westgate auditorium.

Mrs. Judith Fisk is director of the orchestra and Donald Hunsberger the stage band and concert band.

The program will begin with the orchestra presenting five selections, including "Larghetto" (Handel) and "Golden Tango" (Silvester and Wilson).

Four numbers will be played by the stage band, including "Glow Worm" (Arr. Sears).

The Concert Band will present seven selections, ending with "Our Glorious Land" (concert march by Olivadoti).

Tickets may be purchased at the door.

The town of East Hampton, Long Island, inspired John Howard Payne to write "Home, Sweet Home."

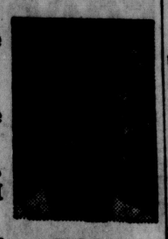
HINTS FROM HELOISE

Plastic Lid Suggestion

DEAR HELOISE: Many plastic lids are about the same size and shape but do not fit every container even though they look alike.



Heloise

So when I bring home any plastic container such as ice cream, cheese, oleo, etc., I immediately write a different number on the top of each lid and the same number on the side of the container that goes with it. Then I know that these two belong together.

It's a real time saver for me, as I don't have to try out each one to see which fits what. . .

Folks, this is really a top-notch hint, as most of us keep our plastic containers in a dark place such as a pantry corner or under the kitchen cabinet and the lids all piled together in a bowl or drawer.

Use a felt marker because it won't wash off. I found black is the best.

Now, before you ever open a container, give it a number both on top of the lid and around all sides of the container itself in BIG NUMBERS so you can spot them whether you wear bifocals or not!

Then line those lids up in numerical order.

I used 1, 2, 3, etc., and when I got a new-size in-between container I used 2½, 4½, etc.

Whenever you're in a tizzy (that means a real hurry), pick up the size container you want, glance at the number on the side, then match it up with the lid that's already marked with the same number.

Try it I promise you'll find it a really neat trick.

Wasn't Mrs. Cox great to think this one up.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: Some days I just can't wait until my husband gets home from work so I can unload all my troubles on him.

But after sixteen years of marriage I finally learned to feed him before I ever start in. . .

SATISFIED.

DEAR HELOISE: When I cook a beautiful white head of cauliflower, I cover it with lettuce leaves first.

Instead of coming out yellow, the cauliflower will be snowy-white when served, which will add to its appeal.

MRS. R. W. B.

-:-

Ever tried cooking it UPSIDE DOWN Does a great job. I always add a teaspoon of lemon juice to my water. No change in taste at all and does a wonderful "snow job."

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: With spring here, let me mention a new use for your now famous nylon net that has brought me much pleasure.

As our balcony needs a climbing greenery wall to make it a pleasure in summer and fall, I attached a strip of net to the wall and let sweet peas grow up it.

I can also hang another piece of net on the open air side and, without blocking the light, it gives support to growing greenery, it's attractive and saves fidding with strings and wires or the expense of trellises.

BILL EARL.

DEAR HELOISE: I have a large kitchen and therefore do lot of footwork while preparing a meal.

During spring cleaning recently, I asked myself why I kept those four cannisters in a nice row next to the stove.

Answer: Force of habit!

Really, the coffee and tea cannisters should be by the sink, for that's where I get the water for such beverages.

Maybe some others have been wasting steps or space out of habit and should take a good long look at their own kitchen arrangement. Sure saves time and energy.

Jumping To Conclusions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

It costs more today for a man to buy his French poodle a good hair trim than it does to pay for one for his wife—but look at the results he gets. It is often a better investment. A wife comes back from the barber looking like a French poodle does before it goes.

Age makes cowards of most of us. Few people over 40, no matter how much they enjoy a simple pleasure like an ice cream cone, will eat one unless they are accompanied by a child. Then they can do it without feeling self-conscious.

Any doctor will tell you that 15 minutes a day in the sun are all you need. But the parks are studded with nuts who sit on a bench all day with their eyes closed and holding an aluminum reflector under their chin in order to get a tan that can only help ruin their skin.

Wide neckties are back in style once more among well-dressed men. How about bringing back spats, too. There never was anything like a pair of spats to make a fellow feel like a dude.

Pheasant under glass is supposed to be one of the delicacies regularly enjoyed by the wealthy, but most of them actually would rather have corned beef hash topped by a leering yellow egg. To most of us, pheasant under glass is a symbol, a culinary rumor. I've traveled in 65 countries, dined in some world-famous restaurants, and have yet to see it either ordered or served.

Nine out of ten people can't tell the difference between a daffodil and a crocus. Can you?

Whenever a guy at a cocktail party meets a flashy blonde who tells him she is taking karate lessons, he usually leaves her within 30 seconds to talk to a mousy brunette in the corner.

Many people today laugh at the idea we'll ever have another great business depression. But nobody over 55, who can still remember the last one, laughs.

A modern child is one who becomes bored during a jet plane ride to Europe, but gets a real thrill out of walking around the backyard on a pair of stilts. In the old days he would have made the stilts himself. Now he buys them—as he does all his toys.

Actresses are more likely than secretaries to chew their fingernails. That's why so many wear false nails.

Top business executives are always proclaiming that they are looking for enterprise, initiative and daring in their subordinates. Yet there isn't one in 10 executives who has the daring himself to appear in public in a plaid raincoat.

Nothing reminds us more of the brevity of beauty in this world than to discover in the home next August a hidden Easter egg the kids didn't find in April.

Money is the secret ingredient that enables a man to be reckoned a success despite poor posture, bad breath and dandruff.

Film Screened For Rotary Club

Cpl. Howard Reinke, of Lisbon Post 15 of the Ohio Highway Patrol, screened a film, "The Third Killer," during a meeting of the Rotary Club Tuesday noon in the Travelers Hotel.

Reinke substituted for Cpl. Sam Smith, who was unable to attend.

Richard M. Beatty was program chairman.

The film dramatized the causes of highway accidents.

Visitors included John Young of the Pittsburgh club.

A special birthday cake was presented the club by Elmer Eiferd honoring the birthdays this week of Jackman Vodrey, Eiferd, Dr. Charles Gerace and Alvin Babb.

Archeologist Will Speak At Association's Meeting

The second Mill Creek Valley Association meeting will be held in the Independence Elementary School on Route 151 April 24 at 8 p. m.

George Robbie, a member of Amockwi Chapter 17 of the Pennsylvania Archeological Association, will discuss "an Adventure in Local Archeology."

Work on the Ohio View site in Industry Township has been going on since November 1959. It is a stratified site, with an age range from approximately 3000 B.C. to 1600 A.D.; that is, the findings date from the beginning of the Archaic Period and continue through to the end of the late Pre-Historic Period, association members said.

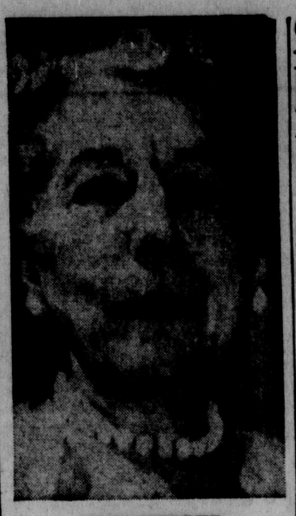
Robbie will review the discoveries on the site, show slides of operations and workers, pictures of interesting finds and many artifacts representing the various archeological periods.

Robbie is a welder in the Sinclair Koppers Co. He is one of the corps of semi - amateur, semi - professional archeological diggers, whose activities were initiated by the Department of Man of the Pittsburgh Carnegie Museum, under a grant from the Sarah Mellon Scaife Foundation. Early training was under the direction of J. Mayer-Oaks, field archeologist of the Carnegie Museum. The training and the findings are recorded in his book, "Pre-History of the Upper Ohio Valley."

In addition to his work and his archeological hobby, Robbie works with a Boy Scout group. For the last seven years he has accompanied Explorer Scouts on Canadian canoe trips. Last year 19 Explorer Scouts from Potter and Raccoon Townships and Monaca went on this trip.

Center Township Boy Scout Troop 427, with John Hussey Scoutmaster, will perform authentic Indian dances as part of the program. There will be a social hour with refreshments following the program.

The Mill Creek Valley Historical Association includes members from distant states, largely as a result of newspaper clippings sent to them by local relatives and friends.



EDNA FERBER
Pulitzer Prize Winner.

Edna Ferber, Noted Author, Taken At 82

NEW YORK (AP) — Edna Ferber, who insisted she never needed to experience a situation to write about it, leaves in death a legacy of books, plays and short stories vividly portraying the American scene.

A spinster at her death Tuesday at age 82, she once recalled in reference to her written works:

"Unmarried female writers have one advantage over their wedded female contemporaries. They can lavish more time and energy on their children, of which I, as a spinster, have had 32—or is it 33: one loses count.

World's first rural mile of concrete was laid down in 1909 in a strip near the Michigan State Fair Grounds.

Other Officers Also Selected

Richard Shingler Named Head Of VFW At Chester

Richard Shingler was elected commander of Burge - Casto VFW Post 6450 of Chester Monday night.

A World War II veteran, Shingler is a clerk at the Chester post office. He has a son in the armed services and two other sons recently received their discharges.

Other officers named were Howard "Hap" Allison, senior vice commander; Louie Cavallaro, junior vice commander; Robert Milby, quartermaster; James Jordan, judge advocate; Jed Wilson, chaplain; Dr. Dave Pugh, post surgeon, and William Glover, three - year trustee.

Shingler succeeds William Glover, who presided at Monday's meeting and announced officers will be installed in June.

—:—

TWO DONATIONS of $100 were made to Junior Achievement and Dollars for Scholars. Another $25 was donated to the Brooke - Hancock Mental Health Association and $15 to the American Cancer Society.

The post will send six boys and girls to the Hancock County conservation camp at Tomlison Run Park in June. The camp is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, with the theme "Man And Nature."

Any member of the post who has a son or daughter between the ages of 13-18 desiring to attend the camp is requested to contact William Glover.

Charles W. Morris, chairman, announced plans are complete for the Loyalty Day program May 1. The week of April 29-May 4 has been designated as Loyalty Week by President Johnson. The program was sponsored nationally by the VFW.

Morris said the VFW is requesting all residents of Chester to display their flag during Loyalty Week. The program will close on Saturday May 4 at the post home with donations of flags to schools and other civic groups in Chester. A queen will be named. Following the crowning, a Loyalty Day dance will be held beginning at 10 p. m. The Grant District Burial group will conduct a flag-raising ceremony in front of the post home.

—:—

HARRY HALL, chairman, announced a benefit show for patients at the Veterans Hospital in Oakland will be held April 27. The program is sponsored by the veterans' organizations of Hancock County.

A life membership was given to Jed Wilson, who was re-elected chaplain.

A social night will be held next Wednesday from 8 to 11. Glover announced the meeting for posts in the 1st District will be held at Elm Grove Sunday.

Thomas Connors of East Liverpool was enrolled as a new member. John McCullough was acting officer of the day.

The next meeting will be May 20 at 8 p. m.

Hearing Slated Friday For Car Theft Charge

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Friday in a preliminary hearing for Arnold E. Adkins, 32, of 735 Valley Ave., who was cited early Sunday on an auto theft charge.

Adkins appeared in court Monday on the felony charge without counsel and the judge continued the case until today to allow him to contact an attorney. Adkins told the judge this morning he has secured counsel but his attorney was in Youngstown today on another legal matter.

The court then reset the preliminary hearing and continued Adkins' $1,000 appearance bond. Adkins is charged with theft of a 1964 two-door convertible which Ronald J. Lewis of 1022 Ephriam St. reported taken Saturday night from Diamond Alley at Washington St.

Inmate, 34, Ends 4-Day Hunger Strike

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 34-year-old prisoner in Cuyahoga County Jail ended a four-day hunger strike Tuesday because he "got too hungry."

William "Billy The Kid" Bornman who is awaiting trial on armed robbery charges, said he stopped eating Saturday because he was being "persecuted" by Sheriff James J. McGettrick.

Bornman said he was being kept chained in solitary confinement, and was not allowed to exercise, write letters or receive visitors.

The sheriff said he believed Bornman's hunger strike was an attempt to get into the hospital and plan an escape. Bornman escaped twice last July from a Baltimore hospital after he was arrested for robbery.

"A guy would have to be a magician to get out of this place," Bornman said. "I'm not going anywhere, so why the leg irons?"

Little Effect Seen For Area In Milk Marketing Change

A federal milk marketing order which will bring western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio under a single marketing district will have little affect on the East Liverpool area, a local dairy officials said today.

The Department of Agriculture announced Tuesday the new marketing order rearranging the district will become effective July 1. It will set minimum prices for dairy farmers, but the department's spokesman did not know whether it will affect prices to housewives.

Elmer Eiferd, an official of the Golden Star Dairy, said the East Liverpool area will remain in the same district under which there has been control for 15 years. He added there are no foreseeable changes because of the new marketing order, since the principal change was to include western Pennsylvania in the district.

The agriculture department said 82 per cent of the area's 8,582 farmers who voted approved the order.

The time between now and July 1 will be used to explain the new regulations to handlers. The order consolidates the present Northeastern Ohio, Youngstown - Warren and Wheeling areas into a single area with the Pittsburgh and Erie areas.

80 Striking Workers Due Back At Bell

CLEVELAND (AP) — Eighty striking employes — mostly women — at Ohio Bell Telephone Co.'s service office are expected to return to work today, union officials said.

Clifford T. Pentrack, vice president of Local 4309, Communication Workers of America said the employes stopped work Tuesday against union orders.

He said the strikers were unhappy with working conditions.

The union has a national strike deadline set for 3 p.m. Thursday.

Archeologist Will Speak At Association's Meeting

The second Mill Creek Valley Association meeting will be held in the Independence Elementary School on Route 151 April 24 at 8 p. m.

George Robbie, a member of Amockwi Chapter 17 of the Pennsylvania Archeological Association, will discuss "an Adventure in Local Archeology."

Work on the Ohio View site in Industry Township has been going on since November 1959. It is a stratified site, with an age range from approximately 3000 B.C. to 1600 A.D.; that is, the findings date from the beginning of the Archaic Period and continue through to the end of the late Pre-Historic Period, association members said.

Robbie will review the discoveries on the site, show slides of operations and workers, pictures of interesting finds and many artifacts representing the various archeological periods.

Robbie is a welder in the Sinclair Koppers Co. He is one of the corps of semi - amateur, semi - professional archeological diggers, whose activities were initiated by the Department of Man of the Pittsburgh Carnegie Museum, under a grant from the Sarah Mellon Scaife Foundation. Early training was under the direction of J. Mayer-Oaks, field archeologist of the Carnegie Museum. The training and the findings are recorded in his book, "Pre-History of the Upper Ohio Valley."

In addition to his work and his archeological hobby, Robbie works with a Boy Scout group. For the last seven years he has accompanied Explorer Scouts on Canadian canoe trips. Last year 19 Explorer Scouts from Potter and Raccoon Townships and Monaca went on this trip.

Center Township Boy Scout Troop 427, with John Hussey Scoutmaster, will perform authentic Indian dances as part of the program. There will be a social hour with refreshments following the program.

The Mill Creek Valley Historical Association includes members from distant states, largely as a result of newspaper clippings sent to them by local relatives and friends.

EDNA FERBER
Pulitzer Prize Winner.

Edna Ferber, Noted Author, Taken At 82

NEW YORK (AP) — Edna Ferber, who insisted she never needed to experience a situation to write about it, leaves in death a legacy of books, plays and short stories vividly portraying the American scene.

A spinster at her death Tuesday at age 82, she once recalled in reference to her written works:

"Unmarried female writers have one advantage over their wedded female contemporaries. They can lavish more time and energy on their children, of which I, as a spinster, have had 32—or is it 33: one loses count.

World's first rural mile of concrete was laid down in 1909 in a strip near the Michigan State Fair Grounds.

Other Officers Also Selected

Richard Shingler Named Head Of VFW At Chester

Richard Shingler was elected commander of Burge - Casto VFW Post 6450 of Chester Monday night.

A World War II veteran, Shingler is a clerk at the Chester post office. He has a son in the armed services and two other sons recently received their discharges.

Other officers named were Howard "Hap" Allison, senior vice commander; Louie Cavallaro, junior vice commander; Robert Milby, quartermaster; James Jordan, judge advocate; Jed Wilson, chaplain; Dr. Dave Pugh, post surgeon, and William Glover, three - year trustee.

Shingler succeeds William Glover, who presided at Monday's meeting and announced officers will be installed in June.

—:—

TWO DONATIONS of $100 were made to Junior Achievement and Dollars for Scholars. Another $25 was donated to the Brooke - Hancock Mental Health Association and $15 to the American Cancer Society.

The post will send six boys and girls to the Hancock County conservation camp at Tomlison Run Park in June. The camp is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, with the theme "Man And Nature."

Any member of the post who has a son or daughter between the ages of 13-18 desiring to attend the camp is requested to contact William Glover.

Charles W. Morris, chairman, announced plans are complete for the Loyalty Day program May 1. The week of April 29-May 4 has been designated as Loyalty Week by President Johnson. The program was sponsored nationally by the VFW.

Morris said the VFW is requesting all residents of Chester to display their flag during Loyalty Week. The program will close on Saturday May 4 at the post home with donations of flags to schools and other civic groups in Chester. A queen will be named. Following the crowning, a Loyalty Day dance will be held beginning at 10 p. m. The Grant District Burial group will conduct a flag-raising ceremony in front of the post home.

—:—

HARRY HALL, chairman, announced a benefit show for patients at the Veterans Hospital in Oakland will be held April 27. The program is sponsored by the veterans' organizations of Hancock County.

A life membership was given to Jed Wilson, who was re-elected chaplain.

A social night will be held next Wednesday from 8 to 11. Glover announced the meeting for posts in the 1st District will be held at Elm Grove Sunday.

Thomas Connors of East Liverpool was enrolled as a new member. John McCullough was acting officer of the day.

The next meeting will be May 20 at 8 p. m.

Hearing Slated Friday For Car Theft Charge

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Friday in a preliminary hearing for Arnold E. Adkins, 32, of 735 Valley Ave., who was cited early Sunday on an auto theft charge.

Adkins appeared in court Monday on the feiony charge without counsel and the judge continued the case until today to allow him to contact an attorney. Adkins told the judge this morning he has secured counsel but his attorney was in Youngstown today on another legal matter.

The court then reset the preliminary hearing and continued Adkins' $1,000 appearance bond. Adkins is charged with theft of a 1964 two-door convertible which Ronald J. Lewis of 1022 Ephriam St. reported taken Saturday night from Diamond Alley at Washington St.

Inmate, 34, Ends 4-Day Hunger Strike

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 34-year-old prisoner in Cuyahoga County Jail ended a four-day hunger strike Tuesday because he "got too hungry."

William "Billy The Kid" Bornman who is awaiting trial on armed robbery charges, said he stopped eating Saturday because he was being "persecuted" by Sheriff James J. McGettrick.

Bornman said he was being kept chained in solitary confinement, and was not allowed to exercise, write letters or receive visitors.

The sheriff said he believed Bornman's hunger strike was an attempt to get into the hospital and plan an escape. Bornman escaped twice last July from a Baltimore hospital after he was arrested for robbery.

"A guy would have to be a magician to get out of this place," Bornman said. "I'm not going anywhere, so why the leg irons?"

Student Admits Wrong In Anti-War Protest

CINCINNATI (AP) — Daniel Turner, 19, a former University of Cincinnati student, said Tuesday he now knows his thinking was wrong when he participated in an antiwar demonstration in the Federal Building last Dec. 7.

Municipal Judge Paul E. Gilday fined the young man $25 and costs each on charges of trespass and assault on a police officer, $35 for resisting an officer and placed him on probation for a year but he stayed execution of all sentences to allow Turner to be accepted in the draft.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

A TV Look At The Resisters

NBC producer George Page has got an education while putting together a TV documentary called "We Won't Go" scheduled to air on May 3.

Hal Humphrey

"I suspected most of these kids would be goof-offs and hippies who were refusing to be drafted, but instead I've found most of them quite sincere and intellectual," says Page.

The idea came to Page to do a story on the draft evaders after he'd made a talk at his own alma mater, Emory University in Georgia.

-:-

MANY SAMEL STUDENTS came up to him to talk about the Vienamese War and get his opinion on it. Some of them expressed the sentiment that they wouldn't go even if drafted.

"There are some hippies among the 'Resist' group, as they call themselves, but most of them are what the hippies call 'straights.' There is, no long hair or beads and such," explains Page.

"LARRY GREW UP in a comfortable middle-class home, and there is nothing in his 'all American' background which would make it easy to understand his act of rebellion," says Page. "He has never been poor. He is not black, nor does he come from a broken home.

"He had his draft notice recently and orders to report for induction. I took my cameraman and went with him to the induction center, along with the pastor of his church and some other friends and family of Larry.

"He was told when we got there that his induction had been canceled that day. No explanation. I don't know if it was the threat of publicity or not that changed the mind of someone at the induction center," Page reports.

LARRY IS BACK at school now awaiting his fate along with several classmates who also belong to "Resist." Meanwhile, Page has interviewed and looked at others in the movement from San Francisco to Canada vis Los Angeles and Chicago and will show them on his documentary.

"I'm not examining the draft law in this program, but this startling new breed of young Americans and their strong opposition to the Vietnamese War, which is mostly what's motivating them, it seems.

"There are adults involved, too. Larry's parents are behind him in his decision. Dean Spencer Parsons of Rockefeller Chapel at the University of Chicago actually urges young men to resist the draft and is on the program. Gen. Hershey, head of the Selective Service, refused to come on, but Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark is appearing," says Page.

A LOT OF CREDIT is given NBC by Page for having the courage to put his documentary on, because, as he points out, it is a very touchy subject. The only other TV program devoted to the subject was done by Granada TV in Britain.

Page narrates "We Won't Go" himself, and makes several interesting points as he goes along. One of these is that the American Ctmmunists have no real influence on these boys refusing to be drafted. Another is that it's the more intellectual ones who are more against the war and doing something about it.

"The poverty group doesn't know how to resist, so they are the ones who wind up going, but I believe there'd be a real rebellion if the Army didn't have a year's limit on serving in Vietnam," adds Page.

-:-

IT WAS columnist Walter Lippmann who pointed out not long ago that the rich weren't sending their sons to this war as they had in past conflicts involving America. This is not a fashionable war as far as causes are concerned, he added.

"Right or wrong, they exist," says Page of the Resisters in his upcoming documentary on the subject, "and it's our business to try to undestand them."

LOF Glass Firm Reports Hike In Sales, Earnings

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Co. reported Tuesday increased sales and earnings for the third consecutive quarter. Earnings for the quarter just ended were 88 cents a share, compared to 60 cents for the same period a year ago.

L-O-F President Robert G. Wingerter told shareholders that consolidated sales of $71,919,317 for the first quarter of 1968 were 20 per cent above sales of $59,953,185 for the corresponding period in 1967.

Net earnings after taxes were $9,363,202 compared to $6,330,211 a year ago.

The shareholders approved a change in the company's articles for incorporation and amended code of regulations to permit expansion into fields other than production of glass, paints, chemicals, plastics, building and material supplies and certain other items.

The directors declared a dividend of 70 cents a share, payable June 10 to shareholders of record May 15.

Markley Elected Head Of Timken Company

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — The board of directors of the Timken Roller Bearing Co. has elected Herbert E. Markley company president.

The directors also elected W. R. Timken Jr. and J.F. Toot Jr. corporate vice presidents Tuesday. They will serve as Markley's assistants.

Markley, 53, executive vice president since 1959, succeeds W. R. Timken, president since 1960. Timken continues as board chairman, a post to which he was elected March 19 following the death of his brother, H.H. Timken Jr.

LEGAL NOTICE

ORDINANCE NUMBER 22, 1968
AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTION 173.01 OF THE CODIFIED ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL WHICH ESTABLISHES VACATIONS FOR THE EMPLOYEES OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OTHER THAN POLICE AND FIRE DEPARTMENT MEMBERS.

WHEREAS, The codified Ordinances of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, does contain the following section which is herein expressly set forth, to-wit:

SECTION 173.01 VACATIONS GENERALLY.

(a) All employees who are employed after the beginning of each calendar year and who are continuously employed by the City until the end of that calendar year shall be allowed vacation. For each full month employed, such employee shall receive one-half day, such vacation to be allowed during the next calendar year. For employees on a monthly salary, the vacation payment shall equal one forty-eighth of the monthly salary for each half day allowed. For employees paid on the hourly basis, the vacation payment shall equal one-half day's work at regular daily wage.

(b) For each of the next four consecutive continuous years of employment following the first fractional calendar year, all employees in every department in the City shall be allowed a vacation during the following calendar year for the period of two weeks with pay. Such pay for an employee who is paid on a monthly or yearly salary basis shall be one-half of his regular monthly salary. The pay for an employee on an hourly basis shall be equal to thirteen days' work at his regular daily wage.

(c) For each of the next ten years of continuous employment after four years of continuous employment following the first fractional calendar year, all employees in every department shall be allowed a vacation during the following calendar year for a period of three weeks with pay. Such pay for an employee who is paid on a monthly salary basis shall be three-fourths of his regular monthly salary. The pay for an employee on an hourly basis shall be equal to nineteen and one-half days' work at regular wage.

(d) For each year of continuous employment after fourteen years of continuous employment following the first fractional calendar year, all employees in every department shall be allowed a vacation during the following calendar year for the period of four weeks with pay. Such pay for an employee who is paid on a monthly salary basis shall be his regular monthly salary. The pay for an employee on an hourly basis shall be equal to twenty-six days' work at regular wage.

(e) In the event that an employee terminates his employment with the City or his employment is terminated by his death, as part of his final pay, he shall be entitled to receive vacation pay earned during the preceding calendar year and not previously received during the calendar year of termination. In addition he shall receive for each completed month of employment in the calendar year of termination, one-twelfth of the vacation to which he would have been entitled had he worked the entire year of termination. However, the vacation allowance for the year of termination shall not be used in computing the months of completed service in that year.

(f) Any employee who is discharged shall not be entitled to a vacation allowance for the calendar year in which he is discharged, but shall receive vacation pay for the preceding calendar year not previously taken.

(g) The manner in which the vacation pay is computed in each case is only for the purpose of setting the amount of money to be received by the employee and not the time allowed away from the job.

(h) Employees who are entitled to a paid vacation must take all of their vacation during the calendar year following the year in which the vacation is earned or forfeit the same.

(i) "Daily wage" means the number of hours usually worked each day in the department of which the employee is a member multiplied by the hourly wage of such employee.

(j) Vacation payments shall be based only on basic salaries and hourly rates and shall not include payments based on seniority.

(k) The "monthly salary" or "hourly wage" referred to throughout this section means that the salary or rate in effect at the conclusion of the calendar year in which such vacation was earned, or, in the event of termination of employment through death or resignation, that salary or rate at the end of the preceding calendar year prior to the year in which such employment is terminated.

AND WHEREAS, it is necessary to enact an Ordinance to conform with the vacation terms agreed between the City of East Liverpool and the East Liverpool City Employees, Local Union 677, American Federation of State, County & Municipal Employees, Council 18, AFL-CIO.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. That Section 173.01 of the Codified Ordinances of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, be hereby amended, and which amended Section is hereby ordained to read as follows:

SECTION 173.01 VACATIONS GENERALLY.

(a) Employees become eligible for vacations with pay after completion of one year of continuous service.

(b) Commencing with the calendar date of employment, Employees with one year continuous service, but less than five years of continuous service, shall receive two weeks vacation. Employees with five years of continuous service but less than fifteen years of continuous service, shall receive three weeks vacation. Employees with fifteen years of continuous service, or more, shall receive four weeks of vacation.

(c) During their vacations, all employees shall receive pay at their monthly or hourly rate including seniority. (Longevity Pay).

(d) In the event that an employee terminates his employment with the City or his employment is terminated by his death, as part of his final pay, he shall be entitled to receive vacation pay earned during the preceding calendar year and not previously received during the calendar year of termination. In addition he shall receive for each completed month of employment in the calendar year of termination, one-twelfth of the vacation to which he would have been entitled had he worked the entire year of termination. However, the vacation allowance for the year of termination shall not be used in computing the months of completed service in that year.

(e) Any employee who is discharged shall not be entitled to a vacation allowance for the calendar in which he is discharged, but shall receive vacation pay for the preceding calendar year not previously taken.

(f) In the event that any scheduled vacation includes the official holidays described in Section 173.06 of the Codified Ordinances of East Liverpool, as amended, one calendar day shall be added to the scheduled vacation for each holiday described therein.

SECTION 2. That Section 173.01 be hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, welfare and safety, the emergency being the necessity for now providing a clearly defined schedule of vacations for the various employees of the City, in accordance with the aforementioned agreement. This Ordinance shall thereby take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 23, 1968
AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTION 173.09 OF THE CODIFIED ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL WHICH ESTABLISHES VACATIONS FOR FIRE AND POLICE DEPARTMENTS.

WHEREAS, The codified Ordinances of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, does contain the following section which is herein expressly set forth, to-wit:

SECTION 173.09 VACATIONS FOR FIRE AND POLICE DEPARTMENTS.

(a) Each regular member of the Fire or Police Department of the City who is employed after the beginning of each calendar year and who is continuously employed by the City until the end of that calendar year shall be allowed vacation. For each full month employed, such employee shall receive one-half day, such vacation to be allowed during the next calendar year at full pay. For each of the next four continuous years of employment following the first fractional calendar year, each member of the Fire or Police Department shall be allowed two calendar weeks' vacation. For each of the ten years of employment following the four years mentioned in the preceding sentence, each member shall receive three calendar weeks of vacation and each member after the ten years mentioned above shall receive four calendar weeks. In the event that any scheduled vacation includes New Year's Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day or Christmas Day, then one calendar day shall be added to the scheduled vacation. During the vacations all members shall receive pay at their monthly rate (including seniority) in effect at the time the vacation is scheduled or employment terminated as described below.

(b) In the event that an employee terminates his employment with the City or his employment is terminated by his death, as part of his final pay, he shall be entitled to receive vacation pay earned during the preceding calendar year and not previously received during the calendar year of termination. In addition, he shall receive for each completed month of employment in the calendar year of termination one-twelfth of the vacation pay to which he would have been entitled had he worked the entire year of termination. (c) Any employee who is discharged shall not be entitled to a vacation allowance for the calendar year in which he is discharged, but shall receive vacation pay for the preceding calendar year not previously taken.

(d) The employees who are entitled to a paid vacation must take all of their vacation during the calendar year following the year in which the vacation is earned or forfeit the same.

(e) All vacations shall be permitted under such rules and regulations as may be adopted and prescribed by the Director of Public Service-Safety.

AND WHEREAS, in order to clarify the vacation allowance for the Fire Department in accordance with prior oral agreements:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. That Section 173.09 of the Codified Ordinances of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, be hereby amended, and which amended Section is hereby ordained to read as follows:

SECTION 173.09 VACATIONS FOR FIRE AND POLICE DEPARTMENTS.

(a) Each regular member of the Police Department of the City who is employed after the beginning of each calendar year and who is continuously employed by the City until the end of that calendar year shall be allowed vacation. For each full month employed, such employee shall receive one-half day, such vacation to be allowed during the next calendar year at full pay. For each of the next four continuous years of employment following the first fractional calendar year, each member of the Police Department shall be allowed two calendar weeks' vacation. For each of the ten years of employment following the four years mentioned in the preceding sentence, each member shall receive three calendar weeks of vacation and each member after the ten years mentioned above shall receive four calendar weeks. In the event that any scheduled vacation includes New Year's Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day or Christmas Day, then one calendar day shall be added to the scheduled vacation. During the vacations all members shall receive pay at their monthly rate (including seniority) in effect at the time the vacation is scheduled or employment terminated as described below.

(1) In the event that an employee terminates his employment with the City or his employment is terminated by his death, as part of his final pay, he shall be entitled to receive vacation pay earned during the preceding calendar year and not previously received during the calendar year of termination. In addition, he shall receive for each completed month of employment in the calendar year of termination one-twelfth of the vacation pay to which he would have been entitled had he worked the entire year of termination. (4) All vacations shall be permitted under such rules and regulations as may be adopted and prescribed by the Director of Public Service-Safety.

(b) The following rules shall apply, commencing with the calendar date of employment, to each regular member of the Fire Department of the City.

1. Each regular member of the Fire Department of the City, with one (1) year continuous service, but less than five (5) continuous years service, shall receive fifteen (15) days vacation.
2. Each regular member with five (5) years of continuous service, but less than fifteen (15) years of continuous service, shall receive twenty-two (22) days vacation.
3. Each regular member with fifteen (15) or more years of continuous service shall receive twenty-nine (29) days vacation.
4. In the event that any scheduled vacation includes New Year's Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day or Christmas Day, then such member shall be entitled to one (1) day extra vacation at full pay to be taken in that vacation year.
5. In addition to the above provided vacation, any firemen who, during any calendar year, being off duty is re-called to duty under the provisions of the last sentence of Section 147.03 of the Codified Ordinances of East Liverpool, Ohio, shall be entitled to one (1) day extra vacation at full pay in the ensuing calendar year. Said one (1) day extra vacation shall be permitted under such rules and regulations as may be adopted and prescribed by the Director of Public Service-Safety.

SECTION 2. That Section 173.09 be hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, welfare and safety, the emergency being the necessity in now providing for a clearly defined schedule of vacations for the Fire Department. Student Admits Wrong In Anti-War Protest

CINCINNATI (AP) — Daniel Turner, 19, a former University of Cincinnati student, said Tuesday he now knows his thinking was wrong when he participated in an antiwar demonstration in the Federal Building last Dec. 7.

Municipal Judge Paul E. Gilday fined the young man $25 and costs each on charges of trespass and assault on a police officer, $35 for resisting an officer and placed him on probation for a year but he stayed execution of all sentences to allow Turner to be accepted in the draft.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

A TV Look At The Resisters

NBC producer George Page has got an education while putting together a TV documentary called "We Won't Go" scheduled to air on May 3.

Hal Humphrey

"I suspected most of these kids would be goof-offs and hippies who were refusing to be drafted, but instead I've found most of them quite sincere and intellectual," says Page.

The idea came to Page to do a story on the draft evaders after he'd made a talk at his own alma mater, Emory University in Georgia.

-:-

MANY SAMEL STUDENTS came up to him to talk about the Vienamese War and get his opinion on it. Some of them expressed the sentiment that they wouldn't go even if drafted.

"There are some hippies among the 'Resist' group, as they call themselves, but most of them are what the hippies call 'straights.' There is, no long hair or beads and such," explains Page.

One more or less typical example interviewed by Page is 19-year-old Yale sophomore Larry Francis of Los Angeles, who refused to accept his student deferment because he feels that the selective service system is unfair.

"LARRY GREW UP in a comfortable middle-class home, and there is nothing in his 'all American' background which would make it easy to understand his act of rebellion," says Page. "He has never been poor. He is not black, nor does he come from a broken home.

"He had his draft notice recently and orders to report for induction. I took my cameraman and went with him to the induction center, along with the pastor of his church and some other friends and family of Larry.

"He was told when we got there that his induction had been canceled that day. No explanation. I don't know if it was the threat of publicity or not that changed the mind of someone at the induction center," Page reports.

LARRY IS BACK at school now awaiting his fate along with several classmates who also belong to "Resist." Meanwhile, Page has interviewed and looked at others in the movement from San Francisco to Canada vis Los Angeles and Chicago and will show them on his documentary.

"I'm not examining the draft law in this program, but this startling new breed of young Americans and their strong opposition to the Vietnamese War, which is mostly what's motivating them, it seems.

"There are adults involved, too. Larry's parents are behind him in his decision. Dean Spencer Parsons of Rockefeller Chapel at the University of Chicago actually urges young men to resist the draft and is on the program. Gen. Hershey, head of the Selective Service, refused to come on, but Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark is appearing," says Page.

A LOT OF CREDIT is given NBC by Page for having the courage to put his documentary on, because, as he points out, it is a very touchy subject. The only other TV program devoted to the subject was done by Granada TV in Britain.

Page narrates "We Won't Go" himself, and makes several interesting points as he goes along. One of these is that the American Ctmmunists have no real influence on these boys refusing to be drafted. Another is that it's the more intellectual ones who are more against the war and doing something about it.

"The poverty group doesn't know how to resist, so they are the ones who wind up going, but I believe there'd be a real rebellion if the Army didn't have a year's limit on serving in Vietnam," adds Page.

-:-

IT WAS columnist Walter Lippmann who pointed out not long ago that the rich weren't sending their sons to this war as they had in past conflicts involving America. This is not a fashionable war as far as causes are concerned, he added.

"Right or wrong, they exist," says Page of the Resisters in his upcoming documentary on the subject, "and it's our business to try to undestand them."

LOF Glass Firm Reports Hike In Sales, Earnings

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Co. reported Tuesday increased sales and earnings for the third consecutive quarter. Earnings for the quarter just ended were 88 cents a share, compared to 60 cents for the same period a year ago.

L-O-F President Robert G. Wingerter told shareholders that consolidated sales of $71,919,317 for the first quarter of 1968 were 20 per cent above sales of $59,953,185 for the corresponding period in 1967.

Net earnings after taxes were $9,363,202 compared to $6,330,211 a year ago.

The shareholders approved a change in the company's articles for incorporation and amended code of regulations to permit expansion into fields other than production of glass, paints, chemicals, plastics, building and material supplies and certain other items.

The directors declared a dividend of 70 cents a share, payable June 10 to shareholders of record May 15.

Markley Elected Head Of Timken Company

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — The board of directors of the Timken Roller Bearing Co. has elected Herbert E. Markley company president.

The directors also elected W. R. Timken Jr. and J.F. Toot Jr. corporate vice presidents Tuesday. They will serve as Markley's assistants.

Markley, 53, executive vice president since 1959, succeeds W. R. Timken, president since 1960. Timken continues as board chairman, a post to which he was elected March 19 following the death of his brother, H.H. Timken Jr.

LEGAL NOTICE

ORDINANCE NUMBER 22, 1968
AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTION 173.01 OF THE CODIFIED ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL WHICH ESTABLISHES VACATIONS FOR THE EMPLOYEES OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OTHER THAN POLICE AND FIRE DEPARTMENT MEMBERS.

WHEREAS, The codified Ordinances of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, does contain the following section which is herein expressly set forth, to-wit:

SECTION 173.01 VACATIONS GENERALLY.

(a) All employees who are employed after the beginning of each calendar year and who are continuously employed by the City until the end of that calendar year shall be allowed vacation. For each full month employed, such employee shall receive one-half day, such vacation to be allowed during the next calendar year. For employees on a monthly salary, the vacation payment shall equal one forty-eighth of the monthly salary for each half day allowed. For employees paid on the hourly basis, the vacation payment shall equal one-half day's work at regular daily wage.

(b) For each of the next four consecutive continuous years of employment following the first fractional calendar year, all employees in every department in the City shall be allowed a vacation during the following calendar year for the period of two weeks with pay. Such pay for an employee who is paid on a monthly or yearly salary basis shall be one-half of his regular monthly salary. The pay for an employee on an hourly basis shall be equal to thirteen days' work at his regular daily wage.

(c) For each of the next ten years of continuous employment after four years of continuous employment following the first fractional calendar year, all employees in every department shall be allowed a vacation during the following calendar year for a period of three weeks with pay. Such pay for an employee who is paid on a monthly salary basis shall be three-fourths of his regular monthly salary. The pay for an employee on an hourly basis shall be equal to nineteen and one-half days' work at regular wage.

(d) For each year of continuous employment after fourteen years of continuous employment following the first fractional calendar year, all employees in every department shall be allowed a vacation during the following calendar year for the period of four weeks with pay. Such pay for an employee who is paid on a monthly salary basis shall be his regular monthly salary. The pay for an employee on an hourly basis shall be equal to twenty-six days' work at regular wage.

(e) In the event that an employee terminates his employment with the City or his employment is terminated by his death, as part of his final pay, he shall be entitled to receive vacation pay earned during the preceding calendar year and not previously received during the calendar year of termination. In addition he shall receive for each completed month of employment in the calendar year of termination, one-twelfth of the vacation to which he would have been entitled had he worked the entire year of termination. However, the vacation allowance for the year of termination shall not be used in computing the months of completed service in that year.

(f) Any employee who is discharged shall not be entitled to a vacation allowance for the calendar year in which he is discharged, but shall receive vacation pay for the preceding calendar year not previously taken.

(g) The manner in which the vacation pay is computed in each case is only for the purpose of setting the amount of money to be received by the employee and not the time allowed away from the job.

(h) Employees who are entitled to a paid vacation must take all of their vacation during the calendar year following the year in which the vacation is earned or forfeit the same.

(i) "Daily wage" means the number of hours usually worked each day in the department of which the employee is a member multiplied by the hourly wage of such employee.

(j) Vacation payments shall be based only on basic salaries and hourly rates and shall not include payments based on seniority.

(k) The "monthly salary" or "hourly wage" referred to throughout this section means that the salary or rate in effect at the conclusion of the calendar year in which such vacation was earned, or, in the event of termination of employment through death or resignation, that salary or rate at the end of the preceding calendar year prior to the year in which such employment is terminated.

AND WHEREAS, it is necessary to enact an Ordinance to conform with the vacation terms agreed between the City of East Liverpool and the East Liverpool City Employees, Local Union 677, American Federation of State, County & Municipal Employees, Council 18, AFL-CIO.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. That Section 173.01 of the Codified Ordinances of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, be hereby amended, and which amended Section is hereby ordained to read as follows:

SECTION 173.01 VACATIONS GENERALLY.

(a) Employees become eligible for vacations with pay after completion of one year of continuous service.

(b) Commencing with the calendar date of employment, Employees with one year continuous service, but less than five years of continuous service, shall receive two weeks vacation. Employees with five years of continuous service but less than fifteen years of continuous service, shall receive three weeks vacation. Employees with fifteen years of continuous service, or more, shall receive four weeks of vacation.

(c) During their vacations, all employees shall receive pay at their monthly or hourly rate including seniority. (Longevity Pay).

(d) In the event that an employee terminates his employment with the City or his employment is terminated by his death, as part of his final pay, he shall be entitled to receive vacation pay earned during the preceding calendar year and not previously received during the calendar year of termination. In addition he shall receive for each completed month of employment in the calendar year of termination, one-twelfth of the vacation to which he would have been entitled had he worked the entire year of termination. However, the vacation allowance for the year of termination shall not be used in computing the months of completed service in that year.

(e) Any employee who is discharged shall not be entitled to a vacation allowance for the calendar in which he is discharged, but shall receive vacation pay for the preceding calendar year not previously taken.

(f) In the event that any scheduled vacation includes the official holidays described in Section 173.05 of the Codified Ordinances of East Liverpool, as amended, one calendar day shall be added to the scheduled vacation for each holiday described therein.

SECTION 2. That Section 173.01 be hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, welfare and safety, the emergency being the necessity for now providing a clearly defined schedule of vacations for the various employees of the City, in accordance with the aforementioned agreement. This Ordinance shall thereby take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 23, 1968
AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTION 173.09 OF THE CODIFIED ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL WHICH ESTABLISHES VACATIONS FOR FIRE AND POLICE DEPARTMENTS.

WHEREAS, The codified Ordinances of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, does contain the following section which is herein expressly set forth, to-wit:

SECTION 173.09 VACATIONS FOR FIRE AND POLICE DEPARTMENTS.

(a) Each regular member of the Fire or Police Department of the City who is employed after the beginning of each calendar year and who is continuously employed by the City until the end of that calendar year shall be allowed vacation. For each full month employed, such employee shall receive one-half day, such vacation to be allowed during the next calendar year at full pay. For each of the next four continuous years of employment following the first fractional calendar year, each member of the Fire or Police Department shall be allowed two calendar weeks' vacation. For each of the ten years of employment following the four years mentioned in the preceding sentence, each member shall receive three calendar weeks of vacation and each member after the ten years mentioned above shall receive four calendar weeks. In the event that any scheduled vacation includes New Year's Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day or Christmas Day, then one calendar day shall be added to the scheduled vacation. During the vacations all members shall receive pay at their monthly rate (including seniority) in effect at the time the vacation is scheduled or employment terminated as described below.

(b) In the event that an employee terminates his employment with the City or his employment is terminated by his death, as part of his final pay, he shall be entitled to receive vacation pay earned during the preceding calendar year and not previously received during the calendar year of termination. In addition, he shall receive for each completed month of employment in the calendar year of termination one-twelfth of the vacation pay to which he would have been entitled had he worked the entire year of termination. (c) Any employee who is discharged shall not be entitled to a vacation allowance for the calendar year in which he is discharged, but shall receive vacation pay for the preceding calendar year not previously taken.

(d) The employees who are entitled to a paid vacation must take all of their vacation during the calendar year following the year in which the vacation is earned or forfeit the same.

(e) All vacations shall be permitted under such rules and regulations as may be adopted and prescribed by the Director of Public Service-Safety.

AND WHEREAS, in order to clarify the vacation allowance for the Fire Department in accordance with prior oral agreements:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. That Section 173.09 of the Codified Ordinances of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, be hereby amended, and which amended Section is hereby ordained to read as follows:

SECTION 173.09 VACATIONS FOR FIRE AND POLICE DEPARTMENTS.

(a) Each regular member of the Police Department of the City who is employed after the beginning of each calendar year and who is continuously employed by the City until the end of that calendar year shall be allowed vacation. For each full month employed, such employee shall receive one-half day, such vacation to be allowed during the next calendar year at full pay. For each of the next four continuous years of employment following the first fractional calendar year, each member of the Police Department shall be allowed two calendar weeks' vacation. For each of the ten years of employment following the four years mentioned in the preceding sentence, each member shall receive three calendar weeks of vacation and each member after the ten years mentioned above shall receive four calendar weeks. In the event that any scheduled vacation includes New Year's Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day or Christmas Day, then one calendar day shall be added to the scheduled vacation. During the vacations all members shall receive pay at their monthly rate (including seniority) in effect at the time the vacation is scheduled or employment terminated as described below.

(1) In the event that an employee terminates his employment with the City or his employment is terminated by his death, as part of his final pay, he shall be entitled to receive vacation pay earned during the preceding calendar year and not previously received during the calendar year of termination. In addition, he shall receive for each completed month of employment in the calendar year of termination one-twelfth of the vacation pay to which he would have been entitled had he worked the entire year of termination. However, the vacation allowance for the year of termination shall not be used in computing the months of completed service in that year.

(4) All vacations shall be permitted under such rules and regulations as may be adopted and prescribed by the Director of Public Service-Safety.

(b) The following rules shall apply, commencing with the calendar date of employment, to each regular member of the Fire Department of the City.

1. Each regular member of the Fire Department of the City, with one (1) year continuous service, but less than five (5) continuous years service, shall receive fifteen (15) days vacation.

2. Each regular member with five (5) years of continuous service, but less than fifteen (15) years of continuous service, shall receive twenty-two (22) days vacation.

3. Each regular member with fifteen (15) or more years of continuous service shall receive twenty-nine (29) days vacation.

4. In the event that any scheduled vacation includes New Year's Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day or Christmas Day, then such member shall be entitled to one (1) day extra vacation at full pay to be taken in that vacation year.

5. In addition to the above provided vacation, any fireman who, during any calendar year, being off duty is re-called to duty under the provisions of the last sentence of Section 147.03 of the Codified Ordinances of East Liverpool, Ohio, shall be entitled to one (1) day extra vacation at full pay in the ensuing calendar year. Said one (1) day extra vacation shall be permitted under such rules and regulations as may be adopted and prescribed by the Director of Public Service-Safety.

SECTION 2. That Section 173.09 be hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, welfare and safety, the emergency being the necessity in now providing for a clearly defined schedule of vacations for the Fire Department. Junior Editors Quiz on BROWN THRASHER

QUESTION: Why is the brown thrasher Georgia's state bird?

ANSWER: Georgia is an attractive state associated with beautiful things, such as sunny days, trees draped in moss, sweet-smelling flowers. It was natural that Georgians should have chosen an especially attractive bird, the brown thrasher, and an especially attractive flower, the Cherokee rose, to represent the state of which they are so proud. The brown thrasher is well liked for a number of reasons. He eats many harmful insects. A relative of the mockingbird, he has a sparkling and melodious song which some bird students have rendered into the words in our picture. His color is rich rusty red with white underparts and bold black spots, giving a handsome effect when seen against masses of summer green. Who does the brown thrasher thrash? Nobody knows. It seems to be merely the sign of his active, lively nature that he moves his tail up and down so vigorously, although perhaps it helps him drive away intruders from his nest in the breeding season. At any rate, he gets his name from this habit. Look for a brown thrasher this summer. Study him and enjoy his beautiful song.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, April 17, the 108th day of 1968. There are 258 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1521, the Diet at Worms excommunicated Martin Luther from the Roman Catholic Church after the former monk refused to admit to charges of heresy.

On this date—

In 1790, Benjamin Franklin died in Philadelphia at the age of 84.

In 1861, Virginia seceded from the union.

In 1941, Yugoslavia surrendered to Germany, but partisan forces continued to wage guerrilla warfare.

In 1943, American warplanes carried out attacks against Palermo, Sicily.

In 1945, it was announced that the Japanese had lost more than 200 planes in a single day of suicide attacks over Okinawa.

In 1964, Jerrie Mock of Columbus, Ohio, became the first woman to make a solo flight around the world as she landed her plane at Columbus.

Ten years ago ... the Brussels World's Fair opened in Belgium.

Five years ago ... Egypt, Syria and Iraq announced that a plan to merge would be submitted to national plebiscites.

One year ago ... A federal judge ordered strikers to return to work at a Connecticut plant which produced helicopter engines needed in Vietnam.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, April 17, the 108th day of 1968. There are 258 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1521, the Diet at Worms excommunicated Martin Luther from the Roman Catholic Church after the former monk refused to admit to charges of heresy.

On this date—

In 1790, Benjamin Franklin died in Philadelphia at the age of 84.

In 1861, Virginia seceded from the union.

In 1941, Yugoslavia surrendered to Germany, but partisan forces continued to wage guerrilla warfare.

In 1943, American warplanes carried out attacks against Palermo, Sicily.

In 1945, it was announced that the Japanese had lost more than 200 planes in a single day of suicide attacks over Okinawa.

In 1964, Jerrie Mock of Columbus, Ohio, became the first woman to make a solo flight around the world as she landed her plane at Columbus.

Ten years ago ... the Brussels World's Fair opened in Belgium.

Five years ago ... Egypt, Syria and Iraq announced that a plan to merge would be submitted to national plebiscites.

Junior Editors Quiz on BROWN THRASHER

QUESTION: Why is the brown thrasher Georgia's state bird?

ANSWER: Georgia is an attractive state associated with beautiful things, such as sunny days, trees draped in moss, sweet-smelling flowers. It was natural that Georgians should have chosen an especially attractive bird, the brown thrasher, and an especially attractive flower, the Cherokee rose, to represent the state of which they are so proud. The brown thrasher is well liked for a number of reasons. He eats many harmful insects. A relative of the mockingbird, he has a sparkling and melodious song which some bird students have rendered into the words in our picture. His color is rich rusty red with white underparts and bold black spots, giving a handsome effect when seen against masses of summer green. Who does the brown thrasher thrash? Nobody knows. It seems to be merely the sign of his active, lively nature that he moves his tail up and down so vigorously, although perhaps it helps him drive away intruders from his nest in the breeding season. At any rate, he gets his name from this habit. Look for a brown thrasher this summer. Study him and enjoy his beautiful song.

Bill Dillard of Columbus, Ga., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review, is selected for a prize.
